These agents spotted out property, in the capacity of Drovers, this disguise giving them greater advantages.

The horses delivered to the agents, the latter paid $50 a head; for other property in similar proportion. Butter than progeeded to give but the names of the gang and of the station keepers; but, as we said above, we do not publish them. Of these one resides in Louenne county; eight in Chemung county, New-York; four in Tioga county, four in Indiana county; three on the mountains and two in Blair county. Two of the Tioga county men had been in the state's prizon for horse stealing and passing counterfeit money. One of the Blair county men is a merchant in respectable standing, and possesses wealth. He is one of the principal byvers. He and the other was concerned in the defendance of goods several years ago.

When a horse was spotted, one or two of the gang would proceed to the response of the county by this institution:

When a horse was spotted, one or two of the gang would proceed to the place and steal it it there was no station house near, they would go to the woods, steal food for their horses and roby made no stay in any place they very readily got off large amounts of counterfeit money without detection. Having reached the estation house from whence they started, they disposed of their horses to the keeper thereof for $50 a head.

Among the transactions of the gabg, Rutter says that last year a store in Frankstown was robbed of a large quantity of broadcloth. Seven webbs went to him, which he sold to the latter yet.

One of the gang was a policeman at Elmyra, N. Y. A robbery of a jewelly store was perpetuated there by him and an Indians man. He opened the inside doors; and both loaded themselves with gold-watches, furs, jew-elry &c. These goods were all left in Chemung county, N. Y.

One of the parties engaged in this robbery (not the watchman) got employment at a depot in Buffalo to watch the freight department. In this capacity he robbed a great many bores of an immense quantity of valuable goods, which were all forwarded to Indiana.

A great quantity of goods was stolen at different times from the Mountain road in this State and sold to the agents in Indiana and Luzerno.

The Buffalo depot man was arrested and put into the Indiana jail for breaking into the recidence of a Mrs. Buchanan. He, two others and Rutter were engaged in the robbery. The three

One of the party stole a horse from Col. Foster, in Chemung county, N. Y., which is at this time near Lewistown. After this horse was taken, Col. F. captured three horses from the gang, and has them in his porsession for identification. They were taken from three brothers, who stole two of them from Harmony, Butler county, and the third from near Greensburg. Rutter thinks that about one hundred and Rutter thinks that about one hundred and fifty horses in all have been stolen. A great many men in the garg he was unacquainted with. Two of the gang are at Yazoo Swamps, Mississippi. One of them set fire to Mr. Gamble's nawmill in Indiana to revenge himself for Gamble's interference in the matter of the escape of the Buffalo man from the Indiana Jail.

The gang dealt largely in the counterfeiting cape of the Buffalo man from the Indiana Jail.

The gang dealt largely in the counterfeiting fusiones, with great success. Notwithstanding the extensive transactions of the gang, there was a great outlay of money, and Butter says it is a losing business. For instance they had a common purse. The man who fired Gamble's sawmill was under arrest in Buller for stealing two horses. The horses were returned, and ha released on bail. Rutter was obliged to pay his bail, $384, and allow him to escape. The his bail, $384, and allow him to escape. Butter is very indiguant that no effort has been maile to get him out of jall, and therefore tells the whole affair. He has received a letter from his wife, stating that the person arrested with him, in Luserne county, has given leg ball and desarred. nd decamped.
