GAZETTE-CITY DEPARTMENT. PITTSBURGH: WEDNESDAY MORNING, PEB. 18, 1856. SHERIPS PATTERSON DANGEROUSLY INJURES CHERRY PATTERNS DARGERES. We regret to innounce that Sheriff Patterson met with an ac-It appears the Sheriff and his wife were in the funeral cortege of the late Mr. Moore whose remains were being covered to the Cemetry for interment yesterday morning, Mr. Patterson occupying a sleigh in the rear of the procession. Two drivers and the wagons, who were running a rear, overton the procession near the toll-gate and one of them being unable to check his horse ran him upon the sleigh, the shafts of the wagon, striking Mr. Patterson on the left side under the arm. The horses of the latter became frightened and ran off throwing both him and his wife out. The Sheriff was taken up in an insensible out. ened and ran off introving out this and its wire out. The Sheriif was taken up in an insensible condition and conveyed to a neighboring tavern, whitter a thysician was summoned. Mrs. P. was but slightly injured.

We learned late in the afternoon that Mr. P. was lying incensible and bleeding at the mouth; and much four is entertained that his injuries are of such a nature as may terminate his life. P. S.—Since writing the above we learn that the Sheriff has been brought in to his residence where he now lies in full possession of his faculties, but in a very dangerous condition.

There were spine five or six teamsters driving at a rapid rate, who caused the accident. Three of them, named Valentine Hobaugh, Frederick Felbert and Edward Boyle, are under arrest, contents are in the possession of the police.

An Ancient Bill of Ladies.—The Cleveland Herald publishes an old fashioned bill of lading, handed them by Mr. Thos. Gallagher, of Pittshurgh: "Slave ships used to have like bills of lading, on which the pious appeal to the Almighty would now sound strangely incongruous with the purpose of the voyage.

The form of the annexed bill of lading was preserved as late as 1810, perhaps later, in commercial transactions between England and Philadelphin.

I. M. No. 1.433. Shined by the grace of God P. S.—Since writing the above we learn that on.
The Tax Collector of the Second Ward, Mr. Mr. A. Haddens was elected Professor of Treasurer—George E Arnold.

A Marriage is the Jail.—A young man ample Clemenson, who has been lying in Jail ample Clemenson, who has been lying in Jail for some time on a charge of Seduction and for some time on a charge of Seduction and for some time on a charge of Seduction and for some time on a charge of Seduction and for some time on a charge of Seduction and for some time on a charge of Seduction and for some time on a charge of Seduction and treath of Fronties, was noticed in marriage on Monday night within the wails, to his prosecutiful Marry Nelson. Both are young. Alderman Memarters refused to withdraw the suit, so that a number of the officials in the Sheriff's effice and about the Jail were obliged to go his bail.

Tan Runnak of the late Mr. Robert Moore, yesterday, was largely attended by the merchants of the city, among whom ho was held in high resteem, the Central Board of Education, the Professors and pupils of the High School, and others.
