PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. 23, 1856.

ANOTHER MEETING OF THE Pennsylvania Delegates.

At the adjournment of the Convention last night, the Pennsylvania Delegation was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. Darsie.

Mr. Darsie stated the motion pending was that Hon. David Wilmot be requested to call a Republican State Convention at such time as he see fit.

Mr. Jones, of Montgomery, moved that the motion be amended by authorizing Mr. Wilmot to call the convention on the 26th of March at Harrisburg.

Mr. Jones stated in answer to an inquiry of Mr. Robb, that the Convention already called was not called by Know Nothings but by members of the Legislature of all anti-administration parties.

Mr. Darsie said he would be the last to go into an arrangement which would merge the Republican party in any other. But he thought there was good faith in the matter, and believed if the union was consummated the Democracy would be defeated, and this defeat would have great moral power in the ensuing Presidential election.

Mr. Jones urged that the Republican party should hold an independent convention.

Mr. Clark, of Mercer, moved as an amendment that Mr. Wilmott be requested to call a Convention after the National Republican Convention has made a nomination for President and Vice President of the U. S.

Mr. Gazzam said there might be doubt in the minds of some Republicans as to the propriety of the reference. Why shall we not have a new State Executive Committee? He stated that Mr. Wilmott was an appointee of Judge Jessup.

Mr. McCalmont proceeded to speak, when Mr. Raymond objected as the gentleman had refused to sign his name as a member of the Convention.

Mr. Ewett said he believed no one would object to Mr. McCalmont's addressing the meeting. Nobody doubted his fidelity to anti-slavery sentiments.

The Chair decided that Mr. McCalmont was entitled to the floor as a matter of right.

Mr. McCalmont then proceeded to address the meeting. He implored the Republican party as it loved its own cause, to unite in the Convention of the 26th. Where can the Republicans obtain their allies? Certainly not from the sham democracy. He urged that the anti-slavery element of the American party was ready to fight the battle side by side with the Republicans in good faith. And so that the cause wins, no matter who gets the glory.

Considerable sparring followed.

Mr. Lett, of Warren, made an explanation of his position as a signer of the call of the Convention of the 26th March.

The difficulty was finally settled by postponing the whole matter indefinitely and the meeting then adjourned.

ACCIDENT ON THE PGH'A RAILROAD—ONE MAN KILLED AND OTHERS WOUNDED.—The mail train Westward Thursday evening, was followed by an extra engine. On approaching the siding near Huntingdon, about 5 o'clock P. M., the coupling between the passenger engine and cars broke, and the engine following struck the train at a speed of about five miles per hour, breaking the platforms of the passenger cars, and injuring four persons. One had his leg cut off, one had a foot mashed, and another was seriously injured by jumping off. The fourth was only slightly injured.

No one would have been hurt had they remained in the cars and conformed to the rules conspicuously posted in every car. Another strong evidence of the necessity for passengers obeying the rules of the Company especially provided for their safety.

Since the above was received, we learn that one of those injured is dead; the others are comfortable and will recover.

THE Pittsburgh Literary Club will give a public performance this evening, consisting of an essay, an oration, and a very interesting debate, in relation to the present aspect of affairs in Kansas, in which W. E. Stevenson and other talented gentlemen of the Society will take part. We hope to see the hall crowded, and that our citizens will avail themselves of the benefits resulting from such information as is imparted by this useful and praiseworthy institution. The exercises will commence at 7 o'clock this evening, at their hall corner of Wood and Third sts., over the Telegraph office. Admission free.

THE members of the Smithfield Street M. E. Church have rented the "Independent Welsh Church" on the corner of Fourth and Ross St's. as a place of public worship. The first sermon will be preached on to-morrow at 3½ o'clock P. M., by pastor Rev. W. A. Davidson.

The pastors of the Methodist Churches of the two cities have made arrangements to fill the pulpit on every Sabbath afternoon.

INSTALLATION.—The services connected with the installation of Rev. C. P. Krauth as Pastor of the English Lutheran Congregation of this city, will take place to-morrow at 10½ o'clock A. M. The Rev. Dr. Sprecher of Springfield, Ohio, and Rev. W. A. Passavant, the former Pastor will conduct the services of the occasion.

Rev. Dr. Pass will preach at St. Andrew's Church to-morrow morning at 10½ o'clock.

(Special Despatch to the Gazette.)

GREENSBURGH, Feb. 22.—Corrigan was convicted of murder in the first degree by the jury, to-day at 3 o'clock, after an absence of two hours.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—The Philadelphia American National Convention assembled this morning in National Hall, Market street. Isaac Hazlehurst, of Philadelphia, acting temporary Chairman. Credentials were being examined, and much time will be occupied in disposing various claims to seats of Pennsylvania delegates.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Committee reported officers Ephraim Nearish, of New Jersey President; 24 Vice Presidents, one from each State. The Committee on Credentials not having reported the roll, the report on permanent organization was accepted, but no vote was taken on officers.

On re-assembling this evening the permanent officers took their seats when the committee on credentials reported a majority and minority reports, the former in favor of Edie delegates from Pennsylvania, the latter signed by Southern members refusing to recognize delegates from any council repudiating the platform of 1856, or the 12th section of that platform. An animated debate ensued upon the Edie delegates.

HALIFAX, Feb. 22.—The screw steamer Asteam from Havre for New York put in here to-day short of coal. She experienced very rough weather. She brings dates from Havre to the 5th but no tidings of the Pacific. The French journals only have been received. The news is unimportant.

The rumor is still current at Paris that Prussia will not be permitted to participate in the conferences. Gorschakoff when signing the protocol of Vienna accepting propositions, demanded that Prussia be invited to take part. Buol supported the demand, but Bourquenay and Sir H. Seymour wished to refer to their governments. The acceptance of Russia caused the greatest astonishment in Turkey, but had not reached the Crimea at the latest dates.

The disturbances created by the Baronks at Sbamila were serious.

A military conspiracy is reported at Madrid, with ramifications extending through the North of Spain. Particulars are not given.

There is nothing from England. Breadstuffs have declined. Confidence of peace is daily increasing.

WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 22.—The Canada's mails arrived this morning. It is ascertained from a well informed source that the government dispatches contain nothing of a definite character from England, nor is there any prospect of an early settlement of matters in dispute between this and that government. The enlistment is absorbed into Central American question. There is no information whatever to verify the rumor in the London Advertiser of angry words having passed between Mr. Buchanan and Lord Clarendon. Mr. Crampton has received instructions, not to absent himself from Washington as heretofore contemplated and still attends to unfinished business at the State Department.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 22.—The Black Warrior has arrived, bringing dates from Havana to the 17th inst. The papers furnish no news of importance. The weather had becoms more favorable, but the sugar crop is undoubtedly short; the market was active, with a good speculative demand for sugars; from 14,000 to 16,000 boxes had been contracted for at $22@$23,50.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—Iron Market.—The transactions in Pig during the week amount to 1900 tons, of which 800 are to go West from the Susquehanna; 800 tons No. 1 of a choice brand sold at $26 cash.
