MR. BLAIR AND THE BALTIMOREANS.—The statement made by the Hon. F. P. Blair, in the Baltimore Convention, that he had been commissioned to the Convention by the Baltimore Republican Association, composed of men of character and extensive wealth, has created a wonderful furor in that city, and is the subject of a public meeting on the 20th inst. to defend the commercial interests of the city against the impugnation of abolition tendencies. It strikes us that this is a very important matter, and one that should be carefully considered.

It is not denied, either, that the Association is composed of gentlemen of character, and that some of them possess extensive wealth. Thus every assertion of Mr. Blair is made good. The meeting held at the Board of Trade Rooms, which denounced Mr. Blair, and refused to admit him to the Convention, is a body of men of character and extensive wealth, and one that should be carefully considered.

There is one fact developed by this protest of Baltimore merchants and business men, which leaves no room for doubt. We have been told by the leading paper of Baltimore that the citizens of that city were opposed to the breach of faith by the South in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and to all the agitation which it has created. No sooner, however, do some of their own citizens, in the exercise of their undoubted privilege, give expression to this sentiment in an official form, than all Baltimore is agitated, and the Board of Trade, a commercial body, composed of business men of all descriptions, of political opinions, calls a town meeting, addressed to the Board of Trade, and requests that they should meet on Wednesday the 27th, at noon, to consider the "impugnation of abolition tendencies."

Now what is to be inferred from this? That the merchants and business men of Baltimore are ready to support all the acts of aggression and outrage which have thrown the country into a state of agitation, unbecomingly to the peace of the nation? Talk about moderation and fairness! The Baltimore business men do not bear out of themselves defend their conduct and their principles before them. Mr. Corran, who is the leading agitator, is a man of character and extensive wealth, and one that should be carefully considered.

Suppose an Association was formed in this city to sustain the infraction of the Missouri Compromise, and the doctrine that slavery should be extended to Kansas and the free territories, and it should send a delegate to a National Convention to represent them, would the Board of Trade of this city, or any other Northern body, step out of its legitimate path to secure them? Most certainly not. Northern people despise such conduct upon the free expression of opinion. If the Board of Trade, in such a case, should step out of its legitimate path to secure them, it would be a disgrace to the city.

These things show the North what it has to expect from even the most moderate, South of Mason and Dixon's line. The whole South, from the Atlantic to the Gulf, and from the Gulf to the Pacific, are solidly Democratic, Whig and Abolitionist, and they are all ready to support the infraction of the Missouri Compromise, and the extension of slavery over that fair territory. The Board of Trade of this city, and the Board of Trade of every other Northern city, should be careful to support the infraction of the Missouri Compromise, and the extension of slavery over that fair territory.

At the close of our report on the Missouri Compromise, we stated that the Baltimore Convention had adopted a resolution, that it would send a delegate to a National Convention to represent them. This resolution was adopted by a large majority, and it is a disgrace to the city that it should be so easily abandoned.

The Baltimore Convention, which was held on the 15th inst., at the Board of Trade Rooms, was a body of men of character and extensive wealth, and one that should be carefully considered. It is a disgrace to the city that it should be so easily abandoned.

Our neighbor of the Journal gives the nomination of Fillmore the chief shoulder. He says: "I present to you, Mr. Fillmore, as a candidate for the Presidency, a man of character and extensive wealth, and one that should be carefully considered."

The Hiram Platform.—The principal feature of the platform is the extension of the Missouri Compromise to the free territories. The Catholic feature is struck out, and the party now fraternizes with Catholics as loyally as if they had never assailed the Pope and his satellites. Louisiana was admitted into the Union, and the Protestants were refused admission. The whole creed of the party has been divided into two, uniting or separating the Protestants, whether Protestants or Catholics.

There is one thing, however, which needs explanation. The 8th section of the platform is published as follows: "An enforcement of the principle that no State or Territory can admit other than native-born citizens to the right of suffrage, or of holding political office, unless persons shall have been naturalized according to the laws of the United States." (2) An enforcement of the principle that no State or Territory can admit other than native-born citizens to the right of suffrage, or of holding political office, unless persons shall have been naturalized according to the laws of the United States.
