

GAZETTE-CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 25, 1860.

News from Mexico.—The great point of interest is as yet at the river. Two ice plows were brought into use on the ice, under the direction of Capt. Buchanan, in aiding the breaking and cutting of the ice. The plows resemble a common plow in appearance, but they are provided with curved teeth sharpened, so as to cut the ice when it is being drawn up. Two mules are attached to each. The plows in their operations were equal to the expectations formed of them. The first day's work was to clear the ice of operation was that portion of the ice between Haw Mill Run and opposite the foot of Liberty street. The ice was cut in large squares and raised to the boats below.

The rumors which were in circulation on Wednesday, as to the rise at the river, only anticipated a fact, went round four hours. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. G. L. Glavin of the National Telegraph office, to whom we are under many obligations, received a dispatch to the effect that the ice had broken, and was still rising though the ice had not broken. He afterwards learned that there was a rise of fourteen feet.

In regard to the St. Louis break, the following facts were given out from the Bureau office, yesterday. It will be seen that the reports previously received, are considerably exaggerated.

St. Louis.—Mr. F. Finney.—The Fringle is in the gorges behind the Island, straight and sound to the river.—Capt. Buchanan.—The Fringle, Bon Holt, Chambers and Challenge are in the gorge in the slough back of Duncan's Island, not much injured, and now how the gorge, is about as bad as it ever was. The Falls foot of the slough, damage small. The Falls City is on the head of the bar below town. It feels strong in two.

The above reports were issued in part in this city. The loss will be comparatively small.

Burrer Courier.—Before Judge Williams. In the case of Mrs. Donahoe and Robert Beams, reported yesterday, the jury found for Plaintiff $4,000.

Baltimore.—William B. Donaldson, No. 207 April term 1854. Hamilton for plaintiff; Mabie and Bowden for defense. Action for damages for the loss of a valuable portrait which he kept a studio in Allegheny, who assigned his books to M. Hodkinson, who assigned them to E. C. Brown, and these to the painter, who, it is alleged, gave them to Donaldson for the purpose of alieving the account settled. The defendant made no real claim to the portrait, but he required that they were paid for in gold, in the presence of two persons, who being called as witnesses, fully sustained the defense set up.

Jersey City.—John D. Davis vs. Wm. Moorhead, Charles Barnett, and A. Williams. No. 98 November term, 1854. Jones and McDonald for plaintiff; H. B. Smith for defendant. Action on a judgment bond.

The Adams Express Company is one of the most useful institutions in the country. It has always been conducted with the greatest care and promptness, and officers in every department have been selected with judicious care, so as to insure the safety of the property or the position for which they are intended. Mr. G. W. Case, the able head of the Express Company, having been called to preside over the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Mr. Alfred Gaither, late of Baldwin, has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Gaither has for several years as connected with the business of this Company. He is a prompt, energetic and efficient officer, and will be well received by all the interests with which he has been entrusted, and will be a most popular officer with the public, so much of whom may be said to be in their daily business.

The Allstonian Valley, Boston.—By reference to the advertisement of this road, in another column, it will be seen that the company has done two things, which were preferred by a number of passengers, who were transferred to the cars by the Mayor's police on a charge of disorderly conduct. After a hearing yesterday, it was committed to prison for a short time, and a process from Court was also lodged against him.

Moscow.—Night after night, the great magicians, Blaize, distract crowded houses, and keep them enthralled in unflagging amusement and enjoyment from 10 p.m. until 12 m. and the second at 4 p.m. By this chance passengers will be enabled to reach Clinton, Brooklyn and the surrounding villages, without the trouble on which they have Pittsburgh.
