Mr. Filmore is certified to be a Know Nothing of the Third Degree, having taken all the oaths and obligations of the Order. The New York Tribune has published an account of the proceedings of the National Convention of the Know Nothing Party, held at New York on the 21st and 22nd inst. It is appropriate therefore to hear what that press says about these obligations which Mr. Filmore has taken:

From the New York Tribune: We have just read, for the first time, the obligations of the three K's, degrees, and do not hesitate to pronounce them such as to render the execution of them a disgrace to the human race. It is appropriate therefore to hear what that press says about these obligations which Mr. Filmore has taken:

We give the gist of the obligations which are assumed by the first degree. Members of the first degree are compelled to: "To comply in all political matters, so far as this order is concerned, with the will of the majority, though it may conflict with their personal preference."

It is, in fact, the political individuality of members of the first degree is utterly swallowed up. The second degree members are sworn: "To refrain, in all political matters, from any personal or private remarks on any subject, or from any personal expression of opinion."

The third degree members are sworn to: "To refrain from all personal remarks on any subject, or from any personal expression of opinion, or from any personal conduct, in any manner, which might reflect on the honor of the order, or the character of its members."

Mr. Filmore is sworn to: "To refrain from all personal remarks on any subject, or from any personal expression of opinion, or from any personal conduct, in any manner, which might reflect on the honor of the order, or the character of its members."

Our friends understand that Mr. Filmore is sworn to: "To refrain from all personal remarks on any subject, or from any personal expression of opinion, or from any personal conduct, in any manner, which might reflect on the honor of the order, or the character of its members."

The House on Thursday took up the liquor bill from the Senate, which had been reported from the Committee on Commerce. The bill is in favor of the Senate bill, and is in favor of the Senate bill.

On Friday, the Senate refused to concur in the amendments of the House to the bill. The House then passed the bill as amended, and sent it to the President.

THE SENATE APPROPRIATION BILL. The Senate on Thursday passed a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the relief of the unemployed in the West. The bill is in favor of the Senate bill.

Proposed and Reorganized. The proposition that the city and county should be reorganized into wards, and each ward should be a separate corporation, has excited some feeling in the community. We publish the following communication as an expression of one shade of this feeling, and would give it a more extended circulation than it is entitled to.
