During the discussion a communication from John Tiernan, who has figured so often for alleged huckstering, setting forth the extensivences of his trade, and douying that he is a huckstering, setting forth the extensivences of his trade, and douying that he is a huckster, was read.

The Ordinance was amended on motion or Mr. Lare; and then read a third time and passed as amended.

Mr. M'Kelvy offered the following resolution:

Whereas, efforts have been made by many citizens to raise a fund for the purchase of the Steam Fre Engine constructed by J. L. Lowrie, by which means '$1500 have been subscribed, and also, whereas, an additional sum of $2000 is promissed to be paid by the Insurance Companies of the city. Therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on Fire Companies of the city. Therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on Fire Companies and Hose in addition to the power now given be further empowered and instructed to purchase shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars over and above the sums raised in the two subscriptions now made.

The resolution was read twice; an amendment was made to refer to Committee on Fire Regine; manded to include Finance to sot and report section at next meeting.

The last amendment was adopted.

Mr. Calhoun presented a petition to grade washington circel, referred to Committee on streets.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 10.—Yesterday & WASHIBGTON CITY, March 10.—Yesterday a disgraceful affair occurred in the ladies' parlor of the National Hotel. Mir. Suart, of Louisville, faucyting himself affronted by Mr. Mahon, of Washington, knocked him down while the latter drew a pistol and fired, but fortunately missed his antagonist Stuart, who jumped saide just in time to save himself, the ball glancing scross his abdomen close enough to burn and tear his pantaloons, but inflicting no other injury. Stuart who is a very tall and powerfulman received no blows from Mahon whom he held with one hand while he beat him zeverely with the other fist, cutting and bruising him seriously. The parties were finally separated by Reeder Broom, of Pennsylvania, and the Hotel Cashier.
