Naw YORK, Feb. 28, 1856.

DEAR SIE:—At a meeting of the Republicans of the Union, called by the Chairmen of Republicans of the Union, called by the Chairmen of Republican organisations in several of the States, and held at Pittsburgh, on the 22d inst, in addition to resolving on the 17th day of June next, at Philadelphia, as the time and place for holding a delagated Convention; to nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, a National Execution Committee was appointed, the tional Executive Committee was appointed, the names and residences of which are herewith an-

Upon consultation with such of the committee as were present at Pitthsurgh, it was deemed advisable to call the first meeting at Washington, which will afford an opportunity for consultation, which members of Congress, and with other of our friends of the Republican party who may be temporarily sojourning at the National Capital.

be temporarily sojourning at the National Capital.

Tou having been unanimously chosen a member of said National Executive Committee, I respectfully invite you to cattend its first meeting, at the City of Washington, on Wednesday, the 28th day of March usix!

Permit me to express the hope that is will be convenient and agreeable for you to attend and meeting, that its members may have the benefit of your counsel and experience. If convenient to be present, please inform me of the fact at the seniflest moment practicable.

E. D. MORGAN, Chairman.

Mr. McGowin, the City Regulator, requests us to say that in consequence of the condition of a part of Seventh street, it will be closed against the passage of horses and vehicles, between Fountain street and Webster street, until the smaller will permit the said street to be repaired.
