At Way Bills &c., all matter will be left with the Station Keeper on the Railroad delivery, when the proper party is not at the Station on the arrival of the Train, to receive his property. The charges for carrying packages, &c., and for services rendered by the Messenger, are intended to be within reasonable limits. When the nature of the business is such as to admit of it special agreements will be made. As the Messenger is instructed to collect Bills and business only with the Company, and to pay in full the balance of the Line bill on the 15th and 30th of each and every trip for his part, as he has no discretion in the matter, Merchants will find it to their interest to patronize, and will commence his duties on Monday, Dec. 24, 1855.
