Stone Breaking.—About four o'clock yesterday morning thieves broke into the clothing store of Mr. Rammel Gray, on St. Clair street, under the hotel, and stole therefrom broadcloths, exacimerse and vestings, to the amount of $700$800, with which they escaped. Entrance was effected by boring a large hole in the front door, and forcing the lock with a dray-pin. It is very singular that such an affair could be perpetrated on so public a thoroughfare without detection.
It devolves upon the Mayor to enquire into the whereabouts of the watch on that beat at that
