JOSEPH WHITE'S CARRIAGE REPOSITORY!

JOSEPH WHITE now carrying on business in his spacious premises, (now lately enlarged,) between Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, near the Two Mile Run, respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c., and he particularly informs gentlemen purchasers, that one price only is made. Fourteen years experience in the business enables him to place before the trade the same choice collection of Carriages, which so many years past it has been his particular department to select from the various and well talented Eastern Manufactories. The success of his new system is complete, the economy of his arrangement will supply the best and most fashionable Manufactures at moderate prices.

Unencumbered by those heavy expenses, which the season for vacating Houses of business has heaped upon the price of Goods, (owing to large rents,) Joseph White will sell on ready money only, at much less than the usual quotations.

N. B.—Carriages repaired in the best manner, with despatch. mh8

The Adams Express Company.
Pittsburgh, Rochester and New Brighton Express.

FOR the especial accommodation of the large population along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburgh and New Brighton, whose business and social relationships centre in Pittsburgh, The Adams Express Company have made such arrangements with the Railroad as to enable them to put an Express Messenger on the Accommodation Train, who will take charge of all property and business properly entrusted to him. The Messenger will also have an Express Safe in the Baggage Car, for the deposit and better security of Money, Jewelry and other valuables. This new branch, in connection with its other branches, will remain in Pittsburgh and Allegheny City (where the Company have a large office) as heretofore, and may be entrusted to him, and return by the Evening Train with his charge. Persons residing on the line will find it to their advantage to apply at the Express Office in the city to receive on his up trip all parcels, packages, orders, money, &c., which will be delivered with proper party soon after the arrival of the train at the Allegheny City Depot. He will also receive written or verbal messages to be delivered in the city—communicate intelligence—obtain information, and return replies—order goods, and execute commissions—make purchases, large or small, from a person or firm to a steam engine. All goods, &c., will be delivered or called for in the two cities within reasonable distance, without extra charge, but it insures such delivery, the direction on package, especially for private houses, should be explicit.

At Way Stations, all matter will be left with the Station Agent of the Railroad Company, when the proper party is not at the Station on the arrival of the Train, to receive his goods.

The charges for carrying packages, &c. and for services rendered by the Messenger, are intended to be within reasonable limits. When the nature of the business is such as to admit of it special agreements will be made.

Should the Messenger be required to settle bill[illegible] and business daily with the Company, and to pay in full, the patrons of this line will please call him by that title, next day for his pay, as he has no discretion in the matter.

HENRY E. HOWD has been appointed Messenger, and will commence his duties on Monday, March 24, 1856.

Umbrellas and Parasols.
JOHN I. SMITH,
WHOLESALE MANUFACTURER,
234 & 235 Broadway, New York.

THE most extensive in the world.

THE late fall in the price of materials, consequent upon the stringency of the money market, has enabled me to manufacture largely for the Spring trade; and to offer to merchants, at very low prices, the largest and most complete assortment of

to be found in Europe or America. Merchants visiting New York to buy their goods, are respectfully invited to call and examine the stock before purchasing.

N. B.—Please cut this card out and put it in your Pocket Book for reference. JOHN I. SMITH, Manufacturer.
