THE GREATBAKE CASE—MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL OVERRULED — PRISONER SENTENCED.—During the trial of the Incest Case, yesterday morning, which we noticed elsewhere, Judge McClure announced that he wished to dispose of the motion for a new trial in the case of Com. vs. Wm. A. Greatrake, convicted of the seduction of Mary S. Murray.

The prisoner was then brought into Court, when his Honor proceeded to say that on Saturday last the motion in Arrest of Judgment and for a New Trial in that case was argued by Counsel, and that the Court was now ready to give its decision.

His Honor then proceeded to review the grounds taken by defendant's Counsel. In regard to the motion in arrest of judgment, viz: that the indictment did not set forth that the prosecutrix had given birth to a child, or that it was living, or its sex. In reply; the Jury did not convict Greatrake of Fornication and Bastardy, and therefore there was no reason to arrest judgment therefor.

In regard to the objection that the Court charged the Jury that defendant must prove the marriage, the reply was that the law presumed the prosecutrix to be single and it therefore devolved on the defence to prove the reverse.

The Court then said, the prisoner standing up, that he had been indicted for seduction and found guilty in manner and form as he stood indicted, under the Act of 19th April, 1848. The sentence of the Court was that he pay a fine of 62 cents, and undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for and during the term of TWO YEARS.

The sentence was received by the prisoner with much fortitude. He was about to leave the Court room, when the Court said that this had been a painful duty, when the prisoner interrupted by requesting to say a few words.

The Court granted the request, when he proceeded to say that he was advised by his personal friends, in the event of sentence being passed, to make no remark, but he felt constrained to say that he was as innocent of the seduction of Mary S. Murray, and of a promise to marry her as his Honor.

The remaining remarks were uttered indistinctly.

Judge McClure said that it was very painful to the Court to pass so severe a sentence upon a young man of his personal appearance and standing, but that he had not dealt unmercifully with him would appear when he was furnished that he plead guilty to a most atrocious libel upon that poor girl, of which offence no notice had been taken by the Court, and they did not intend to.

The prisoner acknowledged that he had acted indiscreetly in writing the letter referred to.—He said something further in a low tone of voice and left the Court room in the custody of the officers. The string of strong witnesses on notice had been taken by the Court, and they did not intend to.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, SESSIONS, &c.—Judge McClure and Associates on the Bench.

In the False Pretences case, Commonwealth vs. Conrad Schaad and Esquire Hagemann, reported yesterday, the jury came into Court yesterday morning with a verdict of guilty. The defendants moved for a new trial.

Frederick Miller was arraigned on a charge of Grand Larceny. The prosecuting witness testified that the prisoner stole a coat and pair of pantaloons worth $8,00 in January last. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. As the defendant is an old thief, the Court gave him three years in the penitentiary.

Jones Stokes was brought in and arraigned on an indictment for Incest, to which he plead not guilty. The prisoner is a middle-aged man, respectably connected, and is well known in this city. His daughter, a young woman of about 17 years of age, appeared in Court with a young female infant in her arms, and proceeded to give her testimony in a remarkably cool and collected manner, without the least shade of embarrassment visible upon her countenance. She testified that her father, the prisoner, was the father of the child she bore in her arms.

We cannot of course, give the particulars of this case.

The prisoner was equally unconcerned to all appearances, and uninterested in the testimony of his daughter, and the searching cross-examination instituted by his counsel. The prisoner was convicted and remanded.

Charles Conway was acquitted of a charge of larceny, and was discharged.

Mary Kelly was acquitted of a charge of Assault and Battery, the prosecutrix, Mary Gardner, to pay the costs.

Margaret M'Clelland was arraigned for the larceny of $20 from Hugh M'Dermott. The case was on trial when we left the Court room.

DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Hampton on the Bench.

Arnold and Williams vs. Joseph C. Foster; No. 276, July 1854; Selden for plaintiffs; Shinn for defendant. Action on account for heating furnace for the Theatre. Defendant claimed special contract at a lower sum then the amount claimed. Verdict for defendant.

John Medlarg for use vs. John Brown; No. 998, November, 1854; Selden for plaintiff; G. P. Hamilton for defendant. Action on a bond for $560 with interest for five years. Defendant alleged the payment of part of the interest.—Verdict for plaintiff for $568,77.

S. Barnes & Co., vs. James C. Anderson; No. 138, January 1855; Selden for plaintiff.—Action on book account. Verdict for plaintiff for $208,48.

Thomas Kier vs. Bennett, Glyde & Co., No. 404. Action to recover for a quantity of salt. On trial.

MCKEESPORT NEWS.—The borough is an a state of quietude as far as local news is concerned.—There have been several arrests for selling liquor on Sunday. A day or two since Frederick Walker was fined by Esquire Wampler $50 and costs for selling liquor on Sunday.

On Thursday a man named Peter Raney was arrested while laboring under a violent attack of insanity. He was locked up on Thursday night, but broke jail. He was arrested yesterday morning about a mile and a half below McKeesport, and brought to the city. When he reached here, he refused to walk, and he was accordingly carried by four men to the jail.

POISONED.—We stated some days ago that the wife of John H. Harper, the horse-thief, had died suddenly in Indiana county, and that suspicions of foul play existed. A jury of inquest made an examination of the body, and found that the said Louisa Harper, on the 20th day of November, A. D. 1855, at the residence of John Brown, Jr., in the said township of Wheatfield, came to her death from the effects of Hydrargyri Chloridum Mite, administered by the hands of some person or persons unknown.

Suspicion attaches to the husband, John H. Harper, who is, without doubt, a hardened scoundrel.

NEW CASTLE NEWS.—An act has passed both branches of the Legislature to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor of Lawrence county.....On Sunday morning last, Mrs. Satterfield, wife of Mr. Elijah Satterfield, of West Middlesex, Mercer county, committed suicide by strangulation. She was found sitting on a stair-step, with a comfort tied to the banister, and drawn tightly around her neck. The cause of the act is unknown, without it arose from hereditary melancholy, her father having ended his life in the same hasty manner.

MERCER NEWS.—Mercer escaped the tornado of Saturday night.....On the 10th inst., the dwelling house of John Organ, on the Butler road, took fire, and was entirely consumed, and also a barn. Loss, building was also destroyed. An adjoining brick building was also destroyed.....We learn that in the Rev. Marsh, Professor of Languages in Westminster College, has resigned his station in that institution.....We learn that it is the intention of Mr. Brown, the Superintendent of Common Schools of Mercer county, to resign at an early day.

FRENCH NEEDLE WORKED COLLARS AND SLEEVES.—The most splendid assortment of French needle worked collars and sleeves offered in the city for a long time, is now opened at A. M'Tighe's, corner of grant and Fifth street. Here all tastes can be accommodated in price and style from six and a fourth cents up to ten dollars. Those who wish to buy cheap should call and see the beautiful collar M'Tighe sells for fifty cents, and for one dollar a collar can be procured which will make the fortunate wearer the envy of all her acquaintance.

DROWNED.—Mr. John Geisinger, a stonemason, residing near the Sharpsburg Ferry, was drowned on Thursday evening, by the upsetting of a skiff. He leaves a wife and four children.

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.—There will be a partial eclipse of the Moon on Sunday morning. It will commence at Philadelphia at 2-35 and end at 5:38 o'clock.

SENTENCED.—George Howard, convicted of the robbery of Mr. Samuel Gray's clothing store, was sentenced by the Court yesterday to three years' imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

LARCENY.—A man named Frederick Dodbrick was committed to jail by Alderman Wilson yesterday for larceny, on oath of C. B. Schmidt.

THE Courts meet to-day for argument, motions, &c.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The New York papers note that freights on flour to Liverpool had declined to 1s@1s 3d, and quilt and add that this decline, with the additional decline in flour, had given an impetus for shipping which would immediately be improved.

The Boston Traveller has the impression that the Cotton market is losing ground. It says:

"The appearance of the market at this time indicates the progress of one of the greatest speculations which has been contemplated for many years. There is good reason to believe that parties at the south, in New York, and in England, and possibly also in France, have combined to control the cotton markets, and carry up prices to a high figure. These parties have no doubt been influenced to this course by the expectation that the cessation of the Russian war, cheap freights, &c at this time, would result in Europe, will produce an active demand for cotton and that prices must necessarily rule high. The appearance of the loans of the New York and the Southern banks, the large purchases of cotton already in Liverpool, Mobile and in transit, with various other minor circumstances, render it not unnecessary to enum rate, convince us that the ownership often passes from hand to hand, and that it has been transferred to the cotton crop, and that it is the design of the speculators, who must have been attracted by the New York banks as well as by those in the southern states, to make a corner on the article. The present demand has increased and a better feeling prevails, which has had the effect to advance 1-8c cash, for the week. Present quotations in Liverpool: Merchant bar 5 6 lbs, Fair 5¾, Middling 5¼, Inferior 4¾ a 4¾; Arrivals, Pelham, stock 4 cc; 18 bales hemp, 3100 bbls flour, Bingham 4 cc; 20 bbls eggs, east.

I have used it constantly in my practice for upwards of 10 years in all cases where a good Physic and Alterative was required, and would not now do without it. It is the best purifier of the blood.

J. S. HAYES, M. D.

Children drink it with pleasure. It will not nauseate the weakest stomach. It produces no griping, but operates easily, thoroughly, and is sure to eradicate all impurities from the system. Try it.

Already

are ready to testify to its superior virtues, independent of its purgative and anti-bilious qualities. It has cured the worst cases of Scrofula in a few days. It is a for Headache, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Kidney Complaint, Bilious Fever, Pains in the Side, Back, Breast and Limbs, Colds, Cramps, Worms, Lumbago, Blotches on the Skin, Pimples, Cutaneous Eruptions, Obstructions in the System, Constipation of the Bowels, Dizziness, Mercurial Diseases, Pleurisy, Female Irregularities, Bowel Complaints, Ulcers of all kinds, &c. It cleanses by its superior medicinal virtues, the ulcerous humor from the blood and corrupt bile from the stomach, carrying it off through the natural channels; it invigorates the blood and leaves the system healthy. I ask my friends to test the above Medicine, and pronounce a verdict as they shall be impressed by the evidence. Those who know me professionally will not doubt its worth.

Since its first introduction, no medicine has attained such wonderful popularity and its sales have increased beyond the most sanguine hopes of its friends. Nothing has ever been recommended as a sure and safe remedy for Dyspepsia, which has received such unqualified testimony of its virtues as this article, as well as for the good of those who have used it. Its mild and searching power is felt from the first dose, and its use for a short time restores the digestive organs to a healthy action, and the patient is soon pronounced cured. Those who know a remedy will use no other. Those who know it not, should not condemn it unheard.

TAKE NO OTHER

Physicians carry it with them. CHILDREN will

TAKE NO OTHER

after one trial, and parents should use no other in their families. People living in low and marshy countries, subject to daily miasmas, where Fevers, Ague and Fever, and bilious complaints are more apt to be, will find the "Liquid Cathartic" the most potent remedy yet known to give it a trial.
