Republican Declaration of Principles.
ADOPTED BY THE PITTSBURGH CONVENTION.

1. We oppose and shall attempt to secure the repeal of all laws which allow the introduction of slavery into territories once consecrated to freedom, and will resist by every constitutional means the existence of slavery in any of the territories of the United States.

2. We will support by every lawful means our brethren in Kansas in their constitutional and manly resistance to the usurped authority of their lawless invaders, and will give the full weight of our political power in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas to the Union as a free, sovereign, independent State.

3. Believing that the present National administration has shown itself to be weak and faithless, and that its continuance in power is identified with the progress of the slave power to national supremacy, with the extinction of freedom from the territory, and with increasing civil discord, it is a leading purpose of our organization to oppose and overthrow it.

GOV. CHASE.—In less than two months the Republicans must name their standard bearer in the next Presidential contest. In a great political contest such as this, the first thing is, the issue—the principal or measure, or both, at stake—the second is, the MAN, to adequately and definitely represent the principle, and faithfully to carry it out if elected. The issue, as well as the principle and the measure, are clear enough in this case. The principle is, resistance to the further extension of slavery in any quarter whatever—the measure is, to save Kansas from the grasp of the slaveholder. The issue is between Freedom and Slavery—the former resisting the attempted advances and aggressions of the latter.

The names of many gentlemen have been mentioned. Among them all, in our opinion, SALMON P. CHASE, of Ohio, presents more of the requisites to be desired in a candidate, than any of the others. In the first place, his antecedents are such as to satisfy all the opponents of the extension of slavery. There are no fears, no doubts, no hesitation. Mr. Chase has been tried in high public positions, and has always been true to the cause of Freedom,—as true as the needle to the pole. In the second place, he has a National reputation. He has won a character for Statesmanship, for business powers, for a thorough acquaintance with the structure, powers and wants of our government, which has placed him in the front rank of the great men of the age and nation.

Thirdly, Mr. Chase is a cool headed, sagacious, and conservative man. He is as far from being a zealot or fanatic as any man in the country. He would administer the government strictly within the powers granted by the Constitution, and by his great firmness and decision of character, cause the government to be respected at home and abroad. In the Fourth place, he affiliates and sympathises with the masses of the people, and they sympathise with him and understand him. Plain and unobtrusive in his manners, affable and unostentatious in his intercourse with society, easily accessible to all, he wins great personal popularity wherever he is known. Fifthly, on the score of availability, he is second to none, if he is equalled by any, of the gentlemen whose names have been mentioned. His political antecedents have not rendered him obnoxious to either Whigs, Democrats or Americans, while he is warmly admired by all those who have long and earnestly opposed the encroachments of the Slave Power.

Mr. Chase also comes from the great State of Ohio, which has just elected him her Republican Governor, over the Democrats and the Trimble Americans. He is well known throughout the west and north-west. New York, if her favorite son, Wm. H. SEWARD, declines to be a candidate for the honor, as is generally understood, (and if he does not we can support him with the greatest pleasure,) will give Gov. Chase a most hearty and generous support, and so will New England and New Jersey. In Pennsylvania, among the Republicans and Americans in the West and the North, his name is a favorite one, and we believe he is as strong a man as can be nominated. He also comes from the right section, from the heart of the Great West. New England can furnish a candidate for Vice President, and with such a ticket we could enter the field not only with pleasure and enthusiasm, but with the confidence which is the best guarantee to success.

THE ISSUE.—Doughface politicians try hard to hide the true issue which will be tried in the next Presidential election. The South, more candid and more honest, admits the nature and character of the issue in the most frank manner. She does not deny that the issue is between Freedom and Slavery—an issue which has been forced upon the country by the Slave power. The Charleston Mercury, one of the ablest of the Southern papers, says:

"The ensuing Presidential canvass, which will probably determine the fate of the Union, will turn almost solely on the question of State equality. NONE CAN CONSISTENTLY OR EFFICIENTLY CONTEND FOR STATE EQUALITY, who do not hold that the institutions of the South, and the social forms of the South, are equally rightful, legitimate, moral, and promotive of human happiness and well-being, with those of the North. If slave society be inferior in these respects to free society, we of the South are wrong and criminal in proposing to extend it to new territory, and the North right in exerting itself to the utmost to prevent such extension."

Will it not be singular and significant, to see orators standing up in Pittsburgh, New York and Boston, enforcing and depicting the rightfulness and the morality of chattel slavery, and endeavoring to convince the independent laborer and mechanic of the North, that Slavery is promotive of human happiness, and of the well-being of society! Unless they do this, they will blink the very issue before the people, and try to hoodwink the voters, by chicanery, subterfuge and deception.

The Pittsburgh Post repudiates and ridicules the idea that every person who is opposed to the extension of slavery, must therefore be "a demagogue of the Garrison, Parker, Beecher and Miss Dutton stripe." Says the Post:

"Anything more idiotic than such reasoning cannot well be imagined. But there is something more than idiocy in such an argument. There is a lie in it—a palpable and intentional lie."

Well, how will the Post stand, judged by its own argument and position. The Republican party is opposed to the extension of slavery.—Whatever private opinions many of its members may entertain concerning slavery, the party, as such, has never taken any stronger position, and yet the Post daily denominates them Abolitionists, Black Republicans, as negro worshippers, etc. Out of its own mouth is it judged. It has pronounced the judgment of idiocy upon itself, and of more than idiocy—of a "lie"—a palpable and intentional lie." We hope its self-accusings may make a complete reformation.

JUDGE WILMOT.—The pro-slavery democrats of Judge Wilmot's district have bitterly assailed him, of late, and prominent among the assailants has been the Montrose Democrat. So extremely personal and vindictive were these assaults that the Judge brought an action for libel against the editor of the Democrat, and the Grand Jury having found a true bill, the editor, in his last number, thus incontinently backs down:

"Judge Wilmot feeling that his official conduct and integrity has been assailed by publications in our paper, we desire to say, in justice to him, to the public and to ourself, that we did not intend to impugn the integrity of Judge Wilmot as a man, nor to charge upon him corruption, partiality or political bias in the discharge of his responsible public duties. We have seen nothing, nor do we know of anything, in the conduct of Judge Wilmot, to warrant such a charge.

"The publications complained of, were hastily and inconsiderately written, and we regret anything therein contained reflecting upon the official integrity and conduct of Judge Wilmot."!!

NEW JERSEY.—A Republican State Convention to nominate an electoral ticket and elect delegates to the Republican National Convention, has been called to meet at Trenton on the 28th of May.

MICHIGAN.—At the recent Spring elections in Michigan, the Republicans carried twenty-three counties and the Hoo-shin democrats nine. The Republican papers are jubilant accordingly.

PITTSBURGH.—An editorial friend from the East, who had never been West before, remarked to us yesterday that he was astonished to find such a business aspect pervading the city. It reminded him, he said, in that respect, of New York and Boston—industry, bustle, hurry and stir noticeable on every hand. The same impression has been made upon our other visitors this Spring; and although we seldom venture into the "complimentary notice" line, our pride in this busy city (dirty as it is) justifies us in saying before our readers the following extracts. The first is from the Massillon (O.) News:

"Pittsburgh is, undoubtedly, the manufacturing city of the West, and is at this moment a more busy place in proportion to its size, than any we know of in the Union. It is a scene of earnest, busy, prosperous life. None can be more so. Every man who will work has enough, and many more than enough to do, exercising every power they have. Smoke is rolling from every chimney, the sparks flying from every forge, every furnace is heated, every mill, every dray and cart is in requisition, and every steamboat in demand. The manufacturers and merchants have all they can do and are pressed to the girth from "early morn till dewy eve," and then have no rest.

We are told that there is more business done in Pittsburgh this Spring than has ever been done before, and we fully believe it, for no more can be done by the same people and the same power. Money is plenty, moves rapidly, and serves its purposes, for they are making for other places more than they consume from others. This is the secret of success in cities as well as individuals."

The next is from the Connelsville, Pa., Enterprise:

"We have just returned from the city of smoke and soot, and we might most emphatically say the city of business. Pittsburgh is in every sense of the term a business city. It is not simply the din of wheels and the rattle of drays that give her the life appearance she bears, but it is the wealth of her "eternal hills," and the energy of her people. They have the on-driving principle ever before them; and it is this spirit, with the natural resources she possesses, that has enabled Pittsburgh to become what she is. She has not been inaptly styled the "Birmingham of the new world." Her ten thousand stacks, that give forth volume after volume of dense smoke, literally enveloping the city, are but the evidences of the great wealth she is amassing, the great arteries whence flows the trade that not only makes her people busy, but gives vitality to the business of the surrounding country. The iewe during the past week, seemed like a vastly extended bee-house; perfect streams of goods, and chiefly of her own manufacturing, were flowing on to the steamers bound for western ports. We love to see Pittsburgh busy shipping her goods; it is ominous of good times for us in the country. For while our market our great depot of trade, and when her customers are busiest, and reaping rich harvests, we of the Youghiogheny and Monongahela valley live best."

THE TRUE ISSUE.—Mr. PENNINGTON, a member of Congress from New Jersey, in a letter to the late Republican Convention of that State, thus fairly and squarely puts the real issue now before the people:

"I indulge no sectional hostilities. I have no desire to see the organization of sectional parties. I acknowledge most cheerfully, and, as a patriotic American, in all time, will defend every constitutional right of the South. I will unite with no party which proposes any assault upon those rights. The question now before the country involves no Constitutional right of the South, and has been forced upon the North by the bad faith of the South. It is an issue in which the South, with the Democratic party as its ally, are united on one side, and the opposition in the North must be united on the other or yield. I counsel no surrender on the part of the North; and as there is no alternative but to unite, I would say to Republicans, Americans, Whigs, and all, of whatever party designation, everywhere, who would resist the great wrong inflicted by the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, who favor the admission of Kansas as a Free State, and who desire to rescue the Government from the hands of the Democratic Party, the common enemy of them all, and to restore to the administration of our public affairs the application of the great principles of the Revolutionary period—unite! unite!!"

PHILADELPHIA MAYORALTY.—Mr. HAND having declined the Fillmore American nomination for Mayor, Hon. HENRY D. MOORE has been substituted. Mr. MOORE was a member of Congress from '49 to 1855. He is spoken of in all the papers as the Fillmore and Donelson candidate. So be it. We shall see how much strength that faction has.

DREADFUL MORTALITY FROM CHOLERA AT ZANTE IONIAN ISLANDS.—Recent advices from Zante state that the Cholera has ceased to rage at that place; but while disposed to rejoice at this cheering news, we must not overlook the fact that quite a large number of persons were carried off by this fatal disease. The statistical report exhibits the startling fact that from the 8th of October to the 26th of December, 1855, out of a meagre population, there was 1,082 cases of cholera, and 611 deaths.

FOR KANSAS.—A party, among whom will be M. S. Grant, G. W. Whipple, A. Coggeswell of Ontario, and Hiram D. Jennings of Walworth, Wayne Co., will start from this city May 1st. The whole company will comprise some thirty persons; it is expected.—Rochester Democrat.

A LETTER from California states that the delegates from that State to the Cincinnati Convention have instructions to urge the nomination of Ex-Senator GWIN for Vice President, on the ticket with Mr. BUCHANAN for President.

MARRIED—On the 15th inst., at Christ's church, St Louis by the Rev. M. Schuyler, SAM'L PALMER, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and S. REBECCA, youngest daughter of the late Samuel Bryan, of Bohemia Manor, Cecil county, Md.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

McLane's Vermifuge in Texas.—Hear what the proprietor of the "Star Hotel" has to say of the wonderful effects of M'Lane's Vermifuge:

"STAR HOTEL, CASTROVILLA, Texas, Aug. 4, 1854.

Messrs. Fleming Bros:—I feel it my duty to make the following statement; several of my children have been afflicted the last year, as I called it, with the Bilious Mortar" to set some Oil of Wormseed and other trash, to give them for worms. The unjustifiable nauseating Anthelmintic, prepared by such, but having heretofore, tried every Vermifuge, to my knowing, without advertising, told them it was not worth while to give my children opperated proof against them all. He said to take a bottle, and offered if it does no good or refund the money. To satisfy him I do so, and the effect was so much better than expected that, I got another bottle, and my result was most astonishing. Three of my children discharged a gill at number of the largest worms I ever saw. To a young man, my self, Carter, who was Territorian and poor as a snake, for a month or so. I gave two doses, which brought from him at least a pint of worms called stomach worm! Strange as this may appear, yet is as true as preaching." To say my self stood it, would be to say did, with ten thousand "Bots" gnawing at old stomach. The greatest wonder to me, that I am living, and now doing well. No doubt the lives of ten thousands of children have been saved by the timely use of this extraordinary medicine. Don't fail to try it.

THOS. B. THURMAN.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else, as other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr M'Lane's Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States, and Canada.

"Kennedy's Medical Discovery."—It can now be said with truth that the great remedy has been found for the "healing of the nations," for during the 15 years that this medicine has been before the public, it has cured enough persons to people a good sized state and a healthy one too, for not a particle of humor would be found in all their veins. There are many persons who, to use their own words, are "never well" and yet they will not believe that it may be humor that causes their feelings, because they have not so much as a pimple on their body. All this may be true, and yet the vile humors be concealed in their veins. None need remain in suspense on this account however, for a bottle of the Discovery, we can assure them will make it appear if there is a particle of humor about them.

What Hollanders think of Boerhave's HOLLAND BITTERS.—J. QUINTUS, Ed. of the Amsterdam Nieuwsbode, in a letter dated September 6th, 1854, thus remarks—You will observe that I have published several certificates lately. These are not mere "puffs," but literally true, and should you continue advertising with us, you may expect to secure large orders from every Holland settlement in the United States."

This is an extract from one of the many letters received from the Holland settlement. Surely when Hollanders recommend the Holland Bitters so warmly, Americans may not hesitate in testing its virtues for themselves.

A Human Life Saved!

BOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq.: Dear Sir:—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its merits as represented to me by three brothers who live in this place and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received.

W. S. COMLIN told me:—"I had taken nine bottles of Comlin's Agne Balm, and continued to grow worse. Hearing of it only my limbs and liver was. Concluded to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, that all the physicians could do for me was of no benefit. I got Rhodes's Fever and Ague cure, which at once removed the pain in my side, and in a few days the tumors and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. S. DANIELS says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of different medicines without any benefit, from 25th August to the 17th December. But seeing how much it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES'S FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which had the permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."

Mr. DANIELS was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to the same man from whom I got my pocket, in a speedy manner than the small quantity, and I might do so again.

Yours with respect, A. HONTINGTON.

The above was the letter of "Good print" as the writer had no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and he still awaits another which is continually pouring in to me.

Dr. Rhodes has left me but a short time, and I take occasion to Caution the public in three words—

"Beware how taken one of my general counterfeiters, substituted the name of their medicine for mine, and then with brazen impudence and their accomplice with the assistance, "Let the proprietor of my Liver Medicine say so much of his cure." &c.

I have a circular in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Agua Balsam" that is mentioned in the above letter.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Liver and Ague Cure, even to the Analysis, except the Certificates of Cures, and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James B. Guilton, of N. Y., in favor of the perfectly HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to the bottle. Still as the eyes serve to distinguish my medicine from imitation.

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health has caused it to be pronounced and acknowledged to be

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tone and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been extolled to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS from the Continent as follows:—"I have all over Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal. I am with truth say that, in point of purity, it excels the spurious sauce so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations; therefore to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

The Satisfactory Remedy.—From all parts of the country, north and south, the proprietors are almost daily in receipt of such flattering testimonials as the following, relative to B. A. Fahnestock's unequaled Vermifuge:

GREENSBOROUGH, Ala., April 18th, 1854.

Messrs. B. A. Fahnestock & Co.—I have been selling your Vermifuge in this place for 8 years, and take pleasure in stating, for the benefit of those in want of it, to the public, that it has been, so far as I know, one of the most satisfactory remedies in the market, and one of the most saleable medicines we have. I have also personal knowledge of its good effects, having used it in my own establishment of our physicians, all of whom use it regularly, and always found it to be safe and reliable as a worm specific. It can recommend it as the best and most reliable one in the market. A. STOLLENWERCK.
