How this matter will terminate is very doubtful. Bome think it will be given up, while others are of the opinion that Jones will return on the morrow with a large poses and make another attempt to arrest. Perhaps another seige of Lawrence will be the result of the failure of Jones yesterday. If a war is what the administration dealers, it can be accommodated by resorting to United States irrope to enforce Missouri enactments, and by manifesting an aggressive and oppressive spirit. The people of the Territory do not like to fight, but there is a point where forbearance ceases to be a wirtue. And, if driven to that position, a bloody time will be the result. Yours,
