It was universally conceded by the freedem and allower from that quartero the semiphered to the infinite amagement, astonishment is ubject in high quarters is not so sonfirmed as it has a fortule to a so thore. The was a fortnight, ago. The South wills peace, and the South is always listened to. The North might have appealed in vain. We approve of the peaceable settlement of all our difficulties with Great Britain, and have no doubt they have been unnecessarily fomented for elister purpo-sers, but this subjection to sectional dictation is becoming too galling for forbearance. Such bu-millating subservincy cannot has forever then look out for retribution.

then look out for retribution. Cot. Lars.-Col. J. H. Lane arrived at the Barnet Hones yesterday. He had expected to speak here last evening, but notice of his intee-tion to be here had not heen received in time to make arrangements for the meeting. He will Hall Monday night. He speaks to reight at Richmond, Indians, Friday aight at Indianaoplis, Hall Monday night at Madison. He addreesed Isst week, at different points in Indiana, about His old Democratio friends througout the Batts are abandoning the "Border Ruffin" party in great numbers, and coming out in fa-ror of the Free Biste cause.
