SENATE.—A message was received from the President, returning with his objections the Bill making an appropriation for the improvement of St. Mary's River, Michigan.

Mr. Wilson briefly detailed the circumstance strongly the cases! attending the assault upon Mr. Samner, yester-day, by Mr. Brooks, of South Carolina, representing it as not only against the rights of man, but the Constitutional privileges of the members

ment in the preamble is a gross falsehood, but he did not mean that Campbell had intontion-ally made this untrue declaration; the gentleman The Speaker decided the proposition to be in rider as a question of privilege.

Mr. Clingman appealed from the chair.

Mr. Craige was satisfied that Mr. Kelit was not concerned in the matter in the way stated.

Mr. Campbell replied if that should be proved which was not concerned by the decided by the concerned by the concerned friendship.

Mr. Paine enquired: is this Resolution the result of a preconcert of action outside of this Hall, Mr. Campbell replied not one word had be enty party in a false position, but merely wished to ascertain facts there being so many rumors prevalent, Mr. Haven appealed to Mr. Campbell to omit the name of Mr. Kelts from the preamble.

Mr. Campbell assented.
Several genilemen wanted him to strike out the names of other members but he refused, saying that he had reason to retain them.
Mr. Kelts remarked that as his name had been withdrawn, he would say he did not know the time nor place when the sot would be committed, and when it was committed, he was behind the chair of the President of the Smate with gentlemen from his own State, and he did not see the beginning of it. Therefore, he had not the slightest preconcert with his colleague.
Under the operation of the previous question, Mr. Campbell's proposition which was adopted, yeas 93, nays 68, vis:—The Bpeaker appointed Messra. Campbell, of Ohio, Allison, Cobb, of Ga., Greenwood and Spinner, a Committee.
Mr. Alison was excused on request.
Mr. Stanton offered a resolution directing the arrest of Judge Lecompte and Marshall Donaldson of Kansas to answer for contempt and breach of privilege.
Mr. Stanton withdrew his resolution.
Various reports were made from standing committee, and the House adjourned until Monday.
