to scours union was to have their basis strin. Mr. John Scott approved the documant as a whole. He would willingly units on this basis the day of all christians was to confers Christ plainly; the form, whether historical, dogmati-told by a gentiemany who had read the accounts of yesterday's proceedings in the daily papers, that some of the sentiments expressed were no better than the Popiah creed. Mr. Murray most fully concurred in the state-ments of Mr. Scott. writing: He was well pleased with the Testi-mony. Mr. Commins thought the article on Commu-nion too short; and disapproved of the Testimony guerally. Mr. R. W. Fronch feared there never could be soordial union; until he saw some prospect of reserve. He never expected to see the Gosput Church one body; there was a mistaken idea of what constituted the good of the Church; may people supposed it to be in union. Mr. Triss, thought that members should re-flect that the Testimony was not for this only but for the-next generation. The articles on the Fall of Man and Saving Faith were not so plain as these articles dight to be. Mr. Harper was willing to unite on this basis. He did not feel able to agree with everything in the Testimony, and instanced sentences con-tained jn the arguments under the various heads. On motion the members of the Associate Re-
