House," the members of Congress "shall not be ed in any other place." For a speech in the Senate, Mr. Sumner has been questioned, by member of the House, and has been most out rageously and brutally assaulted for it; and the ratio party in Congress gives its endorsement to the wrong by either openly approving it or refusing to investigate it. Here, then, we find the democratic party open ly violating those provisions of the Consti which secure the liberty of speech, the liberty arms, the right to be secure in their persons houses, papers and effects, and their immunity from trumped-up prosecutions for treason; and as openly sanctioning an attack upon the right of free debate in Congress.
