METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE.—The Siavery discussion goes on from day to day, warm, exciting and earnest. There is a constant and earnest struggle to obtain the floor, and many desire to speak who will not have the opportunity. On Tuesday Jacob Young, of Ohio, offered as substitute, which was laid on the table. W. C. Clarke, of Wyoming Conference, in a speech in favor of the majority report, said that when the test quastion had been asked him by Conference, "Are you an Abolitionist?" he had determined that under God he would never rest until that test was removed from the church. But he found that there was but one way to remove it, and that was to strike at the root of the ovil.
