Cottage Grand Piano.

SPECIALLY adapted for use in STEAMBOATS, COTTAGE HOUSES, &c. and in all places where a neat and compact size of instrument is desirable. They occupy but very little room, their length being five feet, height four feet and depth two feet, and are much superior to the square horizontal Piano, in power and sweetness of tone. The style of furniture is unsurpassed for elegance and tastefulness; and their durability cannot be doubted, being from factories established, and many of the most substantial manufacturers in the country are from one of the first manufactories in Europe, where they have sent specimens of other styles of Pianos. Purchasers and the public in general are invited to call and examine.

CINCINNATI, June 4.—The Convention met at 10½ this A. M.

Mr. Stuart, of Maryland, asked that the special order of the day, be immediately taken up.

B. F. Hallett, of Mass., from the committee said:—We are ready to present the resolutions, when will the convention receive them?

Many voices—"Now!" "Now!"

Mr. Hallet—The Kansas-Nebraska part of the platform has been adopted with perfect unanimity by the committee. We did not have perfect unanimity upon the foreign policy suggested, but they recommend it heartily.

The first part of the report embraces the general principles of the last Convention, and then proceeds:

AND WHEREAS, Since the foregoing declaration was uniformly adopted by our predecessors in the National Conventions, an adverse political religious test, a secretly organized party, has sprung up, claiming to be exclusively American, it is proper that the American Democracy should clearly define its relations thereto, and declare a determined opposition to all secret political societies of whatever name:

Resolved, That the foundation of this Union of States having been laid in its prosperity and expansion; furnishes a pre-eminent example of a free government built upon entire freedom in matters of religious concernment. We respect person without regard to rank, place or birth. No party can justly be deemed national constitutionally or in accordance with American principles, which bases its exclusive organization upon religious opinion, and accidental birth place. Hence the political crusade of the nineteenth century in the United States against Catholics and foreign born, was neither justified by past history or future prospects of our country, nor was it in union with the spirit of toleration and enlarged freedom which peculiarly distinguishes the American system of popular government.

Resolved, That we reiterate our renewed energy of purpose and the well considered declarations of former Conventions upon the sectional issue of domestic slavery concerning the reserved rights of States. (See last Convention proceedings numbered one two three and four. The report then proceeds.) And that we may more distinctly meet the issue on which the sectional party subsisting exclusively on the Slavery agitation now relies, fidelity to the people of the North and of the South and to the Constitution and the Union.

Resolved, That, claiming fellowship and desiring co-operation with all who regard the preservation of this Union under the constitution the paramount issue, repudiating all sectional parties and platforms concerning slavery, which seek to embroil the States and incite treason and armed resistance to the laws of the territories, whose avowed purpose, if consummated, must end in civil war and disunion.

The American democracy recognize and adopt the principles contained in the organic laws establishing the territories of Kansas and Nebraska, as embodying the only sound and safe solution of the slavery question, upon which great national idea the people of the whole country can repose its determined conservatism—Union and non-interference by Congress with slavery in State or Territory, or in the District of Columbia.

Second, That this was the basis of the compromises of '50, confirmed both by the Democratic and Whig parties, and the National Convention, ratified by the people at the election of '52, and rightly applied to the organization of territories in '54.

Third, That by the uniform application of this democratic principle in the organization of territory and in the admission of new States, with or without slavery as they may elect, the equal rights of all the states will be preserved intact, the original compacts and the constitution maintained inviolate, the perpetuity and expansion of the Union insured to its utmost capacity, embracing in peace and harmony every future American State which may be constituted or annexed with a Republican form of government.

Resolved, That we recognize the right of the people of all territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through a legally and fairly expressed will of the majority of the actual residents, and whenever the number of inhabitants justifies it, to form a constitution, with or without Slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with other states.

Resolved, Finally, that the condition of the popular institutions of the old World, exhibit dangerous tendencies to sectional agitation, combined with an attempt to enforce civil religious disabilities against the rights of acquiring or enjoying citizenship, in our own land, the high and sacred duty devolved with increased responsibility upon the Democratic Party of this country as the party of the Union, to uphold and maintain the rights of every State, and thereby the union of States; and to sustain and advance among us constitutional liberty by continuing to resist all monopolies, exclusive legislation, for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many, and by vigilant and constant adherance to those principles and compromises of the Constitution, which were broad and strong enough to embrace and uphold the Union as it was, the Union as it is, and the Union as it shall be in full expansion of the energies and capacity of this great and progressive people.

Resolved, That questions connected with the foreign policy of this country, is inferior in no domestic question. Whatever time may come, the people of the United, States declare themselves in favor of free seas, progressive free trade throughout the world, and by solemn manifestations place their moral influences side by side with their successful example.

Resolved, That our geographical and political position in reference to other States of this continent, no less than the interests of our commerce and the development of our growing power, requires that we hold the sacred principles involved in the Monroe doctrine; their bearing, import, admit of no misconstruction. They should be applied with unbending rigidity.

Resolved, That the great highway of nature, as well as the assent of the States most immediately interested in it, make it a right to claim it. No power on earth should be suffered to impede or clog its progress. Any interference with our relations may suit our policy, establish our governments of States within whose dominions it lies. We can, under no circumstances, surrender our preeminence in the adjustment of all questions arising out of it.

Resolved, That in view of the commanding interest of the people of the United States, we cannot but sympathize with the efforts which are being made by the people of Central America to regenerate that portion of the continent, which covers the passage across the Oceanic Isthmus.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will expect of the next administration that every proper effort will be made to insure our ascendancy in the Gulf of Mexico, to sustain the paramount protection of the great outlets through which are emptied into its waters the products raised on our soil, and the commodities created by the industry of our people, our western valleys, and the Union at large.

Mr. Machlin, of Pennsylvania, moved the adoption of the platform and resolutions without the dotting of an i or the crossing of a t.

Mr. Conway, of Virginia, asked a division of the question.

Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, moved the previous question.

Mr. Garnet, of Virginia—I demand a division of the question. I object to the introduction of any new doctrine.

Mr. Phelps, of Missouri—The case of the New York delegates has not been settled, and I am opposed to considering the matter further until it is.

North Carolina inquired whether the Committee meant to incorporate the post road resolution as a part of the platform?

"No! No!" from every quarter.

The previous question was sustained.

Mr. Breckenridge called for a vote by States.

Agreed to, and the vote taken on the report of the Committee on resolutions. Submitted, except the last five resolutions, to votes by States. Unanimously in favor; New York not taken.—Ayes 261; nays, none.

On the five remaining resolutions Mr. Ingersoll, of Conn., demanded that they be taken up separately.

Mr. Wickliffe, of Ky., advocated the adjournment till 3 this afternoon. The chair decided that such motion could not be read, while a vote was pending.

Mr. Phelps appealed from the decision.

Mr. Richardson, of Ill., stated that a motion to adjourn was in order, when vote was not actually being taken.

The Chair reversed his decision.

A motion to adjourn till 4 P. M. was negatived; also, a motion to adjourn till three P. M. The vote by States was then called, and the Convention refused to adjourn—noes 183, ayes 78.

Mr. Mead, of Virginia, moved to take a recess for one hour. Negatived.

The Virginia delegation was permitted to leave to consider the remaining resolutions.

Adjourned till 2 o'clock.
