Republican Declaration of Principles,

ADOPTED BY THE PITTSBURGH CONVENTION.

1. We demand, and shall attempt to secure the repeal of all laws which allow the introduction of slavery into territories now consecrated to freedom, and will resist by every constitutional means the existence of slavery in any of the territories of the United States.

2. We will support by every lawful means our brethren in Kansas in their constitutional and manly resistance to the usurped authority of their lawless invaders, and will the utmost weight of our political power in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas to the Union as a free, sovereign, Independent State.

3. Believing that the present national administration has shown itself to be weak and faithless, and that its continuance in power is identified with the progress of the slave power to national supremacy, with the extinction of free labor from the territory, and with increasing civil dissension, we hold it a leading purpose of our organization to oppose and overthrow it.

THE ISSUE AS PRESENTED BY MR. BUCHANAN.—There are some persons in Pennsylvania who, out of personal regard to Mr. Buchanan, would like to vote for him; and if it were a mere contest as to men, would do so: but Mr. Buchanan has taken special pains to prevent any such possibility. He disclaims all mere personal support. In his late speech to the Keystone club he said:

"Gentlemen, two weeks since I should have made you a longer speech, but now I have been placed upon a platform of which I most heartily approve, and that can speak for me. Being the representative or the great Democratic party, and not simply James Buchanan, I must square my conduct according to the platform of that party, and insert no new plank, nor take one from it." We are to have a continuation of the Pierce Administration, bound hand and foot to the slave power.

We are heartily glad that Mr. Buchanan has thus early announced his position, and that we are thus enabled to understand, that he accepts the whole issue made by the democracy at Cincinnati, and that he claims no support on account of his own individual views. He fully represents himself as the mere creature of the party which nominated him, as the obedient tool of the Slaveocracy which dictated the platform, and as unable to add a single good principle to the policy of the sham Democracy. Something of this kind, some declaration of this nature was wanted to convince many in our midst of the true character of James Buchanan. There is not an Old Whig, cherishing an affectionate remembrance of the Whig party, there is not an Independent Democrat who has determined to stay the progress of the slave power, there is not an American who cherishes the genial principles of Freedom, there is not a Republican whose heart is running over with the wrongs of Kansas, who does not regard these avowals of Mr. Buchanan as placing him without the pale of his support.—Men who have looked upon Mr. Buchanan as something besides a partizan, turn away with disgust from the subservient instrument of that same Oligarchy which has rendered the Administration of Franklin Pierce a by-word and a reproach. The open avowals of the Democratic Candidate show the boldness and confidence of our adversaries, but we trust that the effect will be a closer union of all their opponents, and a determined and vigorous effort to give success to the Right. If we unite our broken ranks, and strike for Freedom and Humanity, the cause of our Country will be gloriously triumphant.

JUDGE M'LEAN, in Pennsylvania, is the strongest candidate the Republican Convention can take up, particularly in the Southern counties, and the Eastern part of the State. In the Northern counties Fremont is probably equally popular with M'Lean. But to carry Pennsylvania, it is essential to unite the opposition forces. So far as we know public sentiment, Judge M'Lean's nomination will effect such a union. It is also possible that a union can be effected with Fremont, but nothing ought to be left to chance on a subject of such moment, when it can be prevented.

The Harrisburg Telegraph, which represents the sentiment of the opposition in the interior of the State, closes a long article in favor of a cordial union of the opposition to the pro-slavery Democracy, in the following words:

"We cannot forbear, in closing this article, to state our own strong conviction that JOHN M'LEAN of Ohio is the man for the crisis. The signs of the times, in our opinion, point unmistakably to him as the rallying centre, round which the opponents of Slavery Extension should gather in their might. With Judge M'LEAN as our candidate we shall meet the BUCHANAN forces upon the battle ground of the Old Keystone with an assured confidence of success.

In Philadelphia, a powerful movement has been set on foot to concentrate the opposition strength, with a view to unite on Judge M'Lean, as the candidate of all the opponents of the pro-slavery Democracy. The Times, the leading organ of the American party, presses the claims of Judge M'Lean with great zeal. In its last issue it says:

"The Convention which will soon assemble will confer both honor upon themselves and the country by meeting the popular wants, and giving them a formal embodiment. The conventions of the 12th and 17th will but sanction what the people have already decreed. The nomination of Judge M'Lean by both will be only the recognition of their will. They both convene but to ratify what is already enacted. Even today a call is put forth, under the most powerful and auspicious influences, for a meeting, without distinction of party, to pronounce the voice of this city on his behalf, and to demonstrate his great local strength. It is the magical influence his name invokes that has stirred up this great movement in our midst."

Pennsylvania, was considered before the Cincinnati nomination, as the battle ground of the Union. The nomination of Buchanan has made our work still harder, but we by no means despair of success. On the contrary the opposition is hopeful and eager. There is also a conciliatory feeling prevailing all ranks, and Judge M'Lean's name has been a talisman of quiet and harmony to our previously distracted ranks. We have reason to believe, that if he is nominated there will be no Fillmore electoral ticket made in this State. We may be mistaken in this, but such is our present conviction. The National Convention will do well duly to weigh this state of affairs before proceeding to nominate.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA POLITICON.—A correspondent suggests the propriety of the Ladies making an appropriate testimonial to the gallant and honorable bully Brooks, by sending him a petticoat. We differ in opinion as to the appropriateness of the testimonial. There is not a petticoat in the land but would deem itself degraded by such a use. No woman would have played the sneak and the assassin, as Brooks did, when he assailed Sumner. Women like fair dealing, and however constitutionally timid themselves, have a perfect loathing of cowardice. They admire the brave, the manly, the fair dealing. Their hearts leap to the brave Sumner, who stood up boldly in his place, surrounded by his foes, and assailed the oligarchy in the seat of its power. They despised the miserable assassin, who hung about the Senate Chamber until Sumner's friends were all gone, and his own friends were ready to aid him, and then with cat-like, stealthy tread, sneakingly approached the victim of his brutality. He did not dare to meet Webb or Wilson, but could lay in wait to attack an unarmed man at such a disadvantage as to put it out of his power to defend himself. Out upon the miserable caitiff! A petticoat would be disgraced by its being used as symbolical of his poltroonery.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE KANSAS POSSE.—The administration papers are now publishing a dispatch from the President to Gov. Shannon, in which he disapproves the proceedings of that individual that led to the sacking of Lawrence. He says:

"My knowledge of facts is imperfect, but with the force of Col. Sumner at hand, I perceive no occasion for the posse, armed or unarmed, which the Marshal is said to have assembled at Lecompton. The instructions issued to yourself and Col. Sumner, during your last visit to this city, must be efficiently executed. Sufficient power was committed to you, and you must use it."

It is remarkable, however, that while this dispatch was dated May 24th, before the sacking of Lawrence, it did not reach Gov. Shannon until after that event. No doubt it was purposely kept back. It was an order to put on the record, but not to be executed; and hence it has never seen the light until the infamy of Shannon's doings have begun to tell with fearful force upon the democratic party. The trick, however, is too stale; many a tyrant has resorted to it before.

HOVEY'S MAGAZINE OF HORTICULTURE, for June is heartily welcome to our table. We delight to turn from the exciting question of politics, to the pure and peaceable pleasures of Horticulture, and to learn of one who has done so much for the cause as Mr. Hovey. Published by Hovey & Co., at Boston, at $2 per annum.

THE delegates and visitors to the Philadelphia Convention will leave, most of them, to-day; and we learn that the Allegheny delegation will make their head quarters at the St. Lawrence House.

The Cincinnati correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin during the time of the late Federal Convention, returned home by way of the Baltimore and Ohio road. He says:

"By taking this route we did not by any means escape the crowd; for we found ourselves among a party of about four hundred, who were generally Southern delegates, Southern members of Congress and Southern government officials, all of whom were wending their way towards Washington. In the course of a somewhat extensive experience, we never recollect to have fallen among so many titled dignitaries. A plain Minister was of no account whatever, so numerous were the Judges, Generals, Colonels and Honorables.

"These gentlemen were all oiliaists, and forgetful of the fact that there was a chiel among them who might take notes, they discuss the nomination and the incidents of the Convention without the slightest reserve. They made no secret whatever of their dissatisfaction with the nomination. The platform, they admitted, was not objectionable, but Mr. Buchanan did not suit them as its exponent. They wanted Pierce or Douglas, and they made no hesitation in saying so that it was only because they could not help themselves that they came to terms with the admirers of the "Great Pennsylvanian." These gentlemen let out something more, to wit: that a regular bargain had been made on the eve of the nomination and that the Pierce-Douglasites had only gone over to Buchanan with the express stipulation that the friends of the latter were to go for Douglas in 1860. These friends of the Little Giant farther evinced the hollowness of their professions of good-will towards Buchanan, by laughing heartily over the speeches they had made in his praise, in and out of the Convention, after his nomination had become a fixed fact."

Two weeks Later from California.

NEW ORLEANS, June 11.

The steamer Daniel Webster has arrived from San Juan, with San Francisco dates to the 21st ult. She left San Juan on the 6th inst.

A most intense excitement has been occasioned at San Francisco by a man named Casey shooting the editor of the Bulletin in the street. This occurred on the 14th ult., when Casey was arrested and put in prison.

On the 16th Mr. King died, and the whole city became a scene of excitement.

The old Vigilance Committee called a meeting, and placards of an inflammatory nature were posted up, calling upon the citizens to take the law in their own hands.

On Sunday, the 18th, an organized force of 3000 citizens divided into divisions and companies, marched from the committee rooms and took possession of the jail.

They took from thence Casey and a gambler named Cora, the murderer of Col. Richardson, and carried them to the committee rooms, where they remained strongly guarded when the steamer sailed.

Both the prisoners it is supposed would be hung.

The whole city was draped in mourning for Mr. King's death. He was highly esteemed by the whole community.

Casey was formerly an inmate of the Sing-Sing Penitentiary, and a statement to this effect in the Bulletin occasioned the difficulty.

The Committee is fully organized throughout the State, and are said to have $175,000 contributed to carry these measures into effect.

They have resolved to drive all the gamblers out of the State.

The Vigilance Committee were all well supplied with ammunition and its proceedings were characterized with the most perfect order and propriety.

The George Law, from Aspinwall for New York, had nearly $2,000.000 in gold on freight.

NICARAGUA.—We learn that General Walker had removed his head quarters to Leon. There was some sickness among his troops.

All quiet on the Isthmus. It was rumored that a revolution had broken out during Mora's absence, which is said to be by an influential family named Castro.

There had been no arrival of ships from the Atlantic States at San Francisco during the past two weeks.

By Last Night's Mail.

FROM KANSAS.—ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Lawrence letters to Democrat, dated 6th, says: John Upton, sergeant-at-arms to the Kansas Investigating Committee, while going from Westport to Lawrence, was taken prisoner by a party of Border ruffians. But through the interference of Mr. Oliver he was released, after one day's detention.

Gen. Whitfield is said to be in command of a company of about three hundred men, encamped near Prairie City, 12 miles south of Lawrence, engaged in stopping, searching, and detaining travelers.

Sumner went to Prairie City with troops, and demanded Whitfield's company to disperse, which they did; but after going some five miles again encamped and commenced committing depredations upon property of settlers.

Three hundred Free State men encamped near Whitfield's company, watching his movements and ready to give him battle. The presence of Sumner's command has prevented fight up to this time.

LATEST FROM KANSAS.—CHICAGO, June 12.—Persons just arrived from Kansas City, Monday P. M., brings intelligence that Col. Sumner ordered Whitfield's army to leave the Territory on Saturday; whole number, 600 left, and went over to Westport; here reinforced by one hundred and fifty Missourians; determined to return; which they did Sunday; threatened to hang Sumner if they catch him; expected collision of U. S. troops with Marauders Tuesday unless latter change their purpose.

The St. Louis Republican says: Missourians will endure Investigating Committee until "forbearance ceases to be a virtue;" no longer.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Great Blessing to the Afflicted—The number and formidable character of diseases of the Liver have long challenged the attention of medical men. Some of these diseases, classed under the general term of Consumption, have been supposed incurable, and the unhappy patient allowed to die, without medical science to offer him a hope of recovery. Happily this is no longer be the case. A remedy has been found which will cure all complaints, of whatever character, arising from derangement of the Liver. The Pills discovered by Dr. McLane, prepared solely by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa., act directly on the liver; and by correcting its operation and purifying it from disease, cuts off and extirpates the complaints which have their origin in the disease of this organ. Remedies hitherto exposed for liver complaints, have failed to operate upon the seat of the disease; but Dr. McLane's Pill's make themselves felt upon the action of the Livrr, and by cleansing the fountain, dry up the impure stream of disease which thence derive their existence.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of PITTSBURGH, PA. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROTHERS.

Consumption.—How often do we hear the death of a friend by the hand of this fell destroyer, and when we ask the particulars, the answer often is: "They had a humor, it settled on their lungs and then died." Here then it is admitted that humor was the primary cause of their disease. It is these humors upon which we wish to speak. Kennady's Medical Discovery has now been before the public for some 12 years, and in that time its merits have been thoroughly tested; certificates are daily being received by its proprietor from all directions, of persons cured of humorous diseases; now if these humors can be removed these humors to remain in their system they might ere this have been thrown into a consumption or other fatal malady. Delays are dangerous.

Another Instance of the Efficacy of
BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS;

N. M. Poindexter, of the Union office, says:

"Some weeks since, being seriously affected with pain and uneasiness of the stomach, loss of appetite, and at times strong symptoms of Dyspepsia, I was led more to try your HOLLAND BITTERS, and I feel it but an act of justice to the article, as well as for the good of those who may be affected with like derangements of the stomach, to state that the use of one single bottle of this medicine proved of incalculable benefit, having freed the stomach from all sense of depression, and removed every symptom of Dyspepsia. I would also remark, that two other members of my family, who were afflicted in a similar manner with myself, were entirely relieved by the use of a single bottle each.

BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS;

"Some weeks since, being seriously affected with pain and uneasiness of the stomach, loss of appetite, and at times strong symptoms of Dyspepsia, I was led more to try your HOLLAND BITTERS, and I feel it but an act of justice to the article, as well as for the good of those who may be affected with like derangements of the stomach, to state that the use of one single bottle of this medicine proved of incalculable benefit, having freed the stomach from all sense of depression, and removed every symptom of Dyspepsia. I would also remark, that two other members of my family, who were afflicted in a similar manner with myself, were entirely relieved by the use of a single bottle each.
