GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 14, 1856.

THE BOARD OF LICENSERS.—The Board, upon its organization, yesterday, took up the order of the day—the remonstrances against certain applicants, founded upon convictions for selling liquor on Sunday—which the Board had decided was sufficient proof of immorality.

The Chairman, Mr. Hawkins, gave notice that in some wards and boroughs there was an excess of applications. The Board would hear counsel hereafter to show the necessity for such houses. There was an excess in the First Ward.

The remonstrances were then taken up. Col. Foster, of the Carson Ledger, having made his appearance with two formidable dockets.

Mr. Hawkins.—I understand Mr. Hampton wishes to say something in reference to the decision of the Board in regard to Sunday liquor selling.

J. H. Hampton—I wish to raise a question of law, and that is, whether one particular act shall discredit an applicant; or two, or three specific acts; or whether the testimony must embrace the general reputation. The Carson League attacked Mr. Seeley by proving that in 1853, when the Sunday law was not observed, he was convicted for a violation of it. Suppose this case were in the Quarter Sessions, more than two years have elapsed, and the charge could not be tried. It would be proper to show that after due notice the applicant continued to violate the law, and that would show malice. In the case in 1853, the proclamation of the Mayor was issued on Friday, and the arrests were made on the following Sunday. The spies were about and those men were brought in and tried. Seeley was arrested once afterwards, but was acquitted.

Col. Foster.—The record does not show that.

Mr. Hampton—The record does show it. The Board should frown down this fanaticism that wishes to run everything to the extreme. In making the proper discrimination, the Board will not allow itself to be carried away by private opinions. Col. Foster knows as a lawyer he ought not to offer this in evidence.

Col. Foster.—It is scarcely necessary to argue this point, as the Board decided two or three days ago that convictions for violating the Sunday law was proof of immorality. I pretend to no knowledge of law more than any citizen may acquire whose business as an editor or reporter leads him frequently to the Court room.

Mr. Hampton—Why, Colonel, you practised law in California?

Col. Foster—That's true, and I made a pretty good thing out of it. But the authorities are not the same there, and would hardly be received here. [Laughter]. The Board have made their decisions two days ago and though I can not see how the act of selling liquor before twelve o'clock on Saturday night is not immoral, and selling after that time on Sunday morning is; or how selling to a person 20 years and 11 months old is immoral, and selling to the same person two months later is not, I will not argue the questions. I now offer the record of Alderman Steele to support my remonstrance against C. C. Seeley.

Mr. Hampton.—I object to proceeding until the Board decide the point raised.

Mr. Hawkins.—I see no reason to change the decision of the Board. If you (to Col. Foster) can show that the applicants are in the habit of selling on Sundays, or to minors, we will regard the applicant as immoral. The remonstrance against Seeley will be proceeded with, and we will receive the record in evidence.

Alderman Steele called and affirmed.—These two dockets are records of cases tried and untried before me. The general character of Seeley's house in the community as a drinking house is bad.

Cross-examined.—Have heard the house talked of repeatedly for three or four years. Have heard of a shooting affair in his house. Have heard of his house chiefly through police officers, but also through others, who called to make information against Seeley for selling too much liquor to their friends.

By the Board.—Have heard of a back alley leading to Seeley's house, in connection with selling liquor on Sunday. Never heard of women going in that way.

Col. Foster then read in evidence the record of Seeley's conviction for selling liquor on Sunday the 17th of July, 1853.

Alderman Steele was called by Mr. Hampton.

Jonas W. Horner was the complainant. He was one of the Mayor's police. It was reported that Horner went around to liquor sellers and induced them to sell liquor to him on Sundays, in order to earn half the penalty. Jos. Justice was the witness in the case. Seeley was afterwards brought before me. A watch was put around his house, and those who were going in and out were summoned; it was a trap of the Captain to catch the officers.

The remonstrance against Abraham Greenwood was taken up.

Mr. Foster read the record of Alderman Steele showing that the applicant was convicted of selling liquor on Sunday, the 4th of February, 1855.

Mr. John Mellen said that applicant had gone to the country, and that his assistant sold liquor to a sick man, and David Dodds, the latter of whom divided his fees with a lawyer to bring suit.

Alderman Steele was called by Mr. Mellon, and stated that the above was the defence made at the time of the trial. Have heard from police officers that applicant kept a hard house.

By the Board—Can't state any particulars against applicant—suppose the general charge originated from the character of the people going there.

John Flynn testified that he and applicant went out to the country on the 4th of February, 1855. Never saw any liquor sold there on Sundays. Have seen dominoes played for a glass of liquor, or ale, or cigars within six months.

The remonstrance against the application of Henry Vierheller was taken up. The applicant, a German, appeared for himself.

Col. Foster read the record of Alderman Steele against applicant. The date was Sunday, the 6th day of August, 1853.

The applicant afterwards engaged Mr. Stewart, who proceeded to make a lengthy speech on the present and past laws.

The remonstrance against the application of James Shannon was the next one called up.

Mr. Foster produced the record of his conviction before Alderman Steele, for selling liquor on Sunday. Date 6th September, 1853.

Mr. T. B. Hamilton counsel for the applicant said that this charge was founded upon the fact that late on the Sunday night referred to a sick passenger by the railroad was furnished with a glass of liquor, free of charge, when the latter man rested in, seized the bottle, took a drink, and then drew his money.

The remonstrance against the application of Alexander Cupples, was the next in order, and the last case. The record of Cupples' conviction before Alderman Steele, of selling liquor on Sunday, the 6th of November, 1853, was offered.

Alderman Steele testified that the applicant's character was good, and his house, (kept on the bank of the river) was orderly.

Mr. Foster said he had nothing against Mr. Cupples, except this one case; he believed him to be as worthy a man as was in the business.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, QUARTER SESSIONS, &c.—Judge M'Clure and Associates on the Bench.

In the case of Com. vs. Major Blackmore, reported yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

An Irish fight occupied the attention of the Court for some time. On one side were John M'Cune and Edward Walker, and on the other were Bridget Maloney and Rose Mullen. The cases were divided into Assaults and Batteries and Sureties of the Peace, and we will not waste paper in giving the legal style of each suit. The difficulty arose as to a partition fence on Strawberry alley. All of the defendents were acquitted, but John M'Cune, Rose Mullen and Bridget Maloney were sentenced to pay costs of the suits.

Jacob Aebe was arraigned on an indictment for Bigamy, on oath of his brother, John Aebe. The parties are all Germans. The prosecutor testified that the defendant was married to Elizabeth Sprinsler seventeen years ago, and lived with her in Germany twelve years, as man and wife. On the 10th of January, 1856, the defendant was married to Anna M. Dreistbaugh.

EXCURSION TO CHICAGO AND RETURN.—We would remind our readers and especially those who intend visiting the great National Military Encampment to be held at Chicago, on the first week of July, that they will have an opportunity of doing so for the comparatively small sum of $12 for the round trip, by taking either of the trains on the O. & P. R. R. to Cleveland; there they connect on the same evening with one of the Michigan Central Railroad Company's splendid Floating Palaces, which run through to Detroit without landing and connect with the Lightning Express for Chicago, making the time through from Pittsburgh to Chicago in 26 hours, without loss of sleep. For further particulars see bills of the Great Northern Pleasure Route, F. Knowland is the Agent, and he will be glad to furnish any information required gratuitously.

EXCESS OF LICENSE APPLICATIONS.—There being an excess of applications in the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th Wards over and above the number of licensed houses allowed by law, the Board will be obliged to select those from among them that will seem to present the strongest claims. They will therefore convene to-day to hear the applicants, or their counsel, in reference to the conflicting claims of applicants.

The whole number of applications for the city, is 113 for Taverns, and 42 for Eating Houses. The number allowed by the law is—93 Taverns, and 23 Eating Houses—there being an excess of applications of 20 for Taverns and 19 for Eating Houses.

INQUESTS.—Coroner Alexander yesterday held an inquest upon the body of a farmer named Kennedy, residing in West Deer township, near Bakerstown. The verdict found was that the death was caused by disease of the heart. The deceased was 50 years of age, and leaves a family.

An inquest was also held upon the body of a woman named Frances P. McClure, who was found dead in her bed at her residence in Lawrenceville. Verdict—died from the visitation of God. The deceased was over sixty years of age.

THE APPROACHING FAIR.—The June exhibition of the Horticultural Society, to be held next week, in City Hall, promises to be more than usually attractive. Our large growers will be well represented, and the display of rich, luscious strawberries will be very extensive. Our citizens are under many obligations to the Society for furnishing them with so elegant an entertainment as these fairs are, and they will doubtless signify their appreciation of it by turning out in large numbers.

ARITHMETIC AND ITS APPLICATIONS TO BUSINESS.—A science of the greatest importance to business men of any profession—a correct knowledge of which will enable all to arrive at results by the use of a few figures, and in shortness of time that appear almost incredible to the mass of even educated business men—for facilities for acquiring this art, call where upwards of 300 Students have attended within a few months, at the Iron City College.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The new Trinity M. E. Church, Ninth Ward, to the erection of which the Rev. De Hass has devoted so much time, will be dedicated on Sabbath day, the 15th inst. Bishop Simpson, Rev. A. Cookman, and others will be present to aid on the occasion. Service in the morning at half-past ten, and in the afternoon at three, and in the evening at half-past seven. All seats free.

PITTSBURGHER MURDERED.—A man named Appleby, late of Pittsburgh was murdered on Thursday in Chicago. He has a brother residing here. Yesterday a dispatch was received in this city containing the information that two young men named Barry and Kelly, were arrested on suspicion. They have been in Chicago only about ten days. We have learned no particulars of the murder.

PAINTING.—Our readers are referred to the advertisement of Mr. William Clayton, House, Sign, and Ornamental Painter, &c., No. 107 Fourth street, which appears in the Gazette.—Mr. C. devotes his personal attention to all work, ensuring, from his long experience in the business, a satisfactory job. Those who are about to contract for anything in his line, should give Mr. Clayton a call.

PITTSBURGH AHEAD.—Messrs. Wardrop, Stout & Williams of this city received a dispatch from Nashville yesterday, informing them that their cam power mowing and reaping machines took the first premium yesterday, at the contest at Nashville before the Tennessee Agricultural Society, over a number of competitors.

TWO HORSES KILLED.—Two horses were killed near Braddock's Field several days ago by being run over by a train of cars on the Central road. They belonged to John Mitchell. The owner has been quite unfortunate, as he lost two horses in the same manner about two years ago.

THE DUQUESNE GREYS, the crack company of the city, paraded last evening, preceded by Young's Brass Band. After their return to the Armory, an elegant sword was presented to Sergeant John H. Kennedy, by Mr. W. E. McLaren, on behalf of the Company.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The New York Post says:

There is an uneasy feeling in commercial circles, which is likely to continue until the course of action of the Russian government is ascertained upon the dismissal of her ambassador. Many persons here think Mr. Dallas will be recalled. This we think will not be; but the sooner that it is known that he will not, the better it will be for our market. Money is superabundant. The demand for it is no longer active, and rates rule still on the decline.

Call loans are easy at 6 per cent., and many are making 5 per cent. Discounts are easily negotiable at 7 to 8 ₩ cent. for good endorsed paper. Foreign Exchange is steady, with a fair but not large business doing. Sterling at 109¾ to 110 and francs $5.17½@5.15.

A Human Life Saved!

DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856.

Mr. Johnston, Esq: DEAR SIR—I took your medicine to mill on consignment, "no sure no pay." I take pleasure in stating the effects as reported to me. I have a brother who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received.

Mr. Cossett told me—I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Agne Balsam, and continually run down with a cough and pain in my breast and side. Concluded to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels. I had given up, but if it benefited me, I would try another bottle. The doctors too did all they could for me, but they failed. I made up my mind that nothing did me any good until I got Rhode's Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me from the difficulty, and in a few days restored me to my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

Mr. Wm. Lowry says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and expected the fever and ague from 25th August to the 15th December. Not seeing how I could be relieved, I concluded to try Dr. Curtis' RHODES FEVER AND AGUR CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."

Mr. Cornelius Hall says: "I have tried the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to Mr. Hart Parker, and the next day he was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so speedily.

Yours respectfully, HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and I am still under the necessity that is continually pouring in to me.

Price of Rhode's Fever and Ague Cure, 50 cents. Call at the Depot Room, Last year I had occasion to Caution the Public in these words:

CAUTION.—Many who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the names of their neighbors for my medicines, and then with brazen impudence and effrontery, palmed off on the unsuspecting public any other medicine they saw as much of the done." &c.

Now I believe in saying that the Caution reserved to the same "Dr. Christie's Agne Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to Lodi purchasers that they have Dr. Rhode's Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, accompanied by the Certificates & Cures, and the Certificate of the existence of the Depot, James Rhodes, M. D., in favor of this perfectly HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to the Bottles. These will always be found to distinguish my genuine from imitations.

Sold by JAMES RHODES, Proprietor, Providence, R. I.

For sale by John Mitchell, Geo. Orden, Geo. H. Keyser, S. N. Wickersham, L. Stim and Druggists generally.
