PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1856.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, QUARTER SESSIONS, &c.—Judge M'Clure and Associates on the Bench.

After the jury took their seats yesterday morning, the State's Attorney stated that he wished to have a sol. pros. entered in the case of Com. vs. Jacob Aebe, whose trial for Bigamy, reported in our last, was not concluded at the adjournment of Court on Friday. The reason alleged was that the indictment contained a fatal error, the name of the alleged second wife being wrong.

Messrs. Hampton and Bell, attorneys for the defence, objected, as an unusual proceeding, after they had risked a trial, and all the evidence had gone to the jury. Whether the name was right or wrong was a matter of argument before the Court; if the jury returned a verdict of guilty, &c.

After much discussion, the Court ordered the entry to be made, and the jury discharged. Mr. Hampton desired the whole proceedings to be entered upon the record, but the Court refused.

Sarah O'Neal was brought in from jail, where she has been since the 15th of April, for keeping a house of ill-repute, and discharged, the Alderman having neglected to return the case to the Grand Jury.

In the case of Com. vs. James Walker, Mrs. Walker, Calvin Walker, and Louisa Stolpe, indicted for Conspiracy to extort money from, and force the resignation of, Jas. Kelly, late one of the Directors of the Poor, Mr. McCalmont, counsel for the defendants, moved for a continuance of the case until the next term. It will be remembered that the case was tried at the last term, and the jury were unable to agree, standing eight for conviction and four for acquittal. The reasons urged by Mr. McCalmont were that Mr. Marshall, one of the counsel for defence, was absent, and the witnesses, mostly farmers, had to be home for harvesting. These he said were not legal reasons, but he thought they should be allowed in courtesy. No objection being made by the District Attorney, or the private counsel of Mr. Kelly, the cause was continued.

William Milligan was acquitted of a charge of Larceny.

Richard Robinson was convicted on of an Assault and Battery. Sentence reserved.

John Riley was guilty to a similar charge and was sentenced to pay the costs of the prosecution.

The cases of Jonas Groves, charged with Incest, and James Graham, charged with Arson, were continued until next term.

The calendar having been exhausted, or rather, the parties in other cases not being ready for trial, the jury were discharged.

The Court proceeded to pass the following sentences:

William Kane, convicted of an Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill officer Reed. Mr. M'Clowry, his Attorney, hoped the Court would deal mercifully with the prisoner, on account of his family—and give him a term in the County Jail. The Court said it could not in the face of former sentences on similar offences, and proceeded to sentence the prisoner to a term of one year in the Western Penitentiary.

Daniel O'Brien, convicted of the larceny of a gold watch from Jonas Groves, a prisoner, in the County jail, previous to his escape from jail, was sentenced to the full extent of the law—three years in the Penitentiary.

Valentine Wise, convicted of the larceny of some carpenter's tools from William McClelland, was sentenced to an imprisonment in the County Jail for six months.

The Court adjourned to meet this morning when the argument list will be taken up.

FIRE.—We are under obligations to a correspondent who furnishes us with the following account:

"About 2 o'clock on Sunday morning a fire broke out in the shoe store of Mr. Campbell on Smithfield street.

It consumed the contents of the store and made its way into Mr. Goodall's Piano Factory. Fortunately before the flames had much hold on the quantity of wood about, it was got under, much to the credit of those who assisted. It was not however before considerable damage was sustained to many of the Pianos, both in a finished and unfinished state, and to much of the work required in their construction. Mr. Goodall's damages are at least $2000. He is only insured for $500. It is in the Farmers' and Mechanics' Co. of Philadelphia.

Mr. Campbell's loss is from $500 to $1000, and he is insured for $500 in the State Mutual Company. There is no doubt that the fire was the work of incendiarism.

EPISCOPAL VISITATIONS.—Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. church, left this city on Monday, the 16th inst., for Poughkeepsie, N.Y., for the purpose of presiding over the last conditions of the New York Conference, which meets on the 18th inst., in that city. On the 24 July, the East Maine Conference assembles at Bucksport, Me. of which he is the presiding officer. According to the plan of Episcopal visitation, he is to preside at the newly organized Minnesota Conference, which convenes in Red Wing, Min. Ter.—immediately after its adjournment, the following Conference, will assemble of which he is the presiding Bishop: Aug. 20, West Wisconsin Conference, at Madison, Wis; Sept. 3, Rock River Conference, at Aurora, Ill.; Sept. 17, Wisconsin Conf., at Appleton, Wis.; Oct. 1, Southern Illinois Conf., Salem, Ill.; Oct. 15, Illinois Conf. at Quincy Ill.

SUICIDE.—Mr. John McDougle, an old and respected citizen of Merrittstown, Fayette county, committed suicide by hanging, on Friday, afternoon last. He went out in the rear of the Academy, and having examined an unusual length of time, the suspicions of some of his friends were excited, who started in pursuit of him, and found him hanging to a tree—dead. He took his handkerchief and attached it to one sleeve of his coat, and tied the other around a limb, and in this way made the rope with which he committed the deed. He leaves a large and respectable circle of relatives.

FLAG PRESENTATION.—The Duquesne Greys will present to the Chicago Light Guards, on the 4th of July, at the Dearborn Encampment, a splendid flag, which has just been made in Philadelphia. The staff is surmounted with a gilt eagle, and two silver plates are attached, giving dates, &c. The flag, it is said, will be the largest ever carried by a military company. It might be expected from the character of the members of our tip-top company, that they would do things on the very largest scale, when they undertake them. The flag will be presented by a committee of the company.

THE FAIR.—The June Fair of the Pittsburgh Horticultural Society will be opened to the public this evening. The committee having the matter in charge, have spared neither time, exertion or money, in making the Fair very creditable. The tickets will be for sale at the door.

A full band of music will be constantly in attendance. We expect to see City Hall transformed into a kind of fairy palace during the week, with the rich fruits, rare flowers, designs, wreaths, mosaic and ladies.

A MELANCHOLY CASE.—The Rev. Samuel Taggart, a minister attached to the Associate Reformed Church in West Middletown, Washington county, was taken through this city yesterday, to Harrisburgh, to the Insane Asylum. He was in attendance upon the sittings of the Synod held in this city a week or so ago, in good health; but when he returned, he was seized with fever and ague, and became entirely deranged.

EXAMINE the advertisement in this day's paper headed "Choice Lands for Sale." There are lands in that list—amongst some of the very best in Iowa, and they are only a small portion of western lands what the advertisers, Blakely & Richey, have for sale. Call and examine their register, they have farming lands for sale at prices ranging from $2.50 to $10 an acre, and all near to timber and water.

THE BOARD OF LICENSERS.—The attention of the Board was occupied all day yesterday in hearing remonstrances against the granting of licenses to a man named Hutchison and Noble Lovely of M'Keesport.

PITTSBURGH CONFERENCE.—The annual Conference of the Methodist church of the Pittsburgh district, will be held on the 25th of this month in Salem, Ohio. Bishop Ames will preside.

A MAN SHOT.—It is reported that a young man was shot on Sunday, while trespassing upon the grounds of a farmer in the vicinity of Birmingham. The wound is not of a fatal nature.

PITTSBURGHER KILLED.—A man named Peter McCabe, of this city, was killed in Cincinnati yesterday morning. He was stabbed and died almost immediately.

THE WATER COMMITTEE will meet this evening, when appeals from water assessments will be heard.

A Perfumed Breeze.—What lady or gentleman of wealth cannot answer the query of a disappointed lover, who is courting the "Belle of a Thousand Flowers," with "I am so frowned upon I can only remain a bachelor." Many persons do not know the cause which leads to the "cold shoulder" or "deaf ear," and the subject is so delicate that few dare to speak to lend, and the cost of the remedy, "Jockey Club" Extract of Roses, and the cash inside of the bottle. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A Bouquet Quickening.—Many smile because they have a bouquet of flowers, it will remove the pimples, and freckles from the skin, leaving it as soft and pure as a child's. Many get a frown, pour on two or three drops of "Jockey Club" Extract of Roses, and the frown will vanish from the face, and the lips will smile with delight and surprise.

Restoring the Hair.—If your dressing-brush is either covered with dandruff, or the hair is falling out, pour on two or three drops of "Jockey Club" Extract of Roses, rub the head well, and it will make the hair grow luxuriantly, and restore its original color. Price only fifty cents.
