Under these convictions, and in the full persuasion that upon this topic there is but one opinion in Pennsylvania,

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the Senators of this State in the Congress of the United States be and they are hereby instructed, and that the Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States be and they are hereby requested to vote against the admission of any territory as a State into the Union, unless said territory shall stipulate and agree that the further introduction of slavery or involuntary servitude, except for the punishment of crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall be prohibited, and that all children born within the said territory, after its admission into the Union as a State, shall be free, but may be held to service until the age of twenty five years.

Resolved, That the Governor be and he is hereby requested to cause a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution to be transmitted to each of the Senators and Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States.

Laid on the table.

THURSDAY, Dec. 16, 1819.

"Agreeably to the order of the day, the House resumed the consideration of the resolutions postponed on the 14th inst., relative to preventing the introduction of slavery into the States hereafter to be admitted into the Union."

"And on the question, will the House agree to the resolution.
