Institut. Immediately after the sojournment of the Carvention, says the M. Y. Tribune, the New Jersey Delegates proceeded to Trenton, the reai-dence of Wim L. Dayton, the nominee for Vice President, and ware met at the estation by a large number of clitzens. A procession was formed headed by the Trenton Brass Band, and bearing the National Flag, with the names of Fremont and Dayton incribed on its folds. The Dele-gation proceeded to Mr. Dayton sppeared on the portico, and was received with immense enthusiasm. Terms: For Telegraphic News see 3d page. For City and Commercial Hews see 4th page.
