It is well known that Mr. Benton, strange and inconsistent as his course is, supports Mr. Buchanan do when he had nownistent as his course is, supports Mr. Buchanan, while he assails the Pierce administration, with all its acts, with the fercest denuclation. His speech at the Buchanan Batification meeting, at St. Louis, was one of the meeting, as all to prison; was scathing assaults upon Pierce and the Democracy we have ever read. We copy from the speech the following curract on the violated Missouri Compromise, which is worthy of the attention of every reader. It shows up the wickedness of that treason to the American Union in the most glaring colors:
