TONICS WON'T DO!

THEY never did do more than give temporary relief and they never will. It is because they don't touch the cause of the disease. The cause of all sores and blood diseases is the scrofulous poison called Mucous or Malarious. Neutralize this poison by its NATURAL ANTIDOTE, and all disease caused by it must leave the system. Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure is this antidote to Malaria, and moreover it is a perfectly harmless medicine. The certificate of the celebrated chemist, J. R. Chilton, of New York, to this effect, is attached to every bottle; therefore if it does not do as we say, return it.

This is more than can be said of Quinine, Arsenic, or any tonic in existence, as their use is ruinous to the constitution and brings on DUMB AGUE, which never allows a person to feel perfectly well for a single moment. For information of the truth of the above, read the following extracts from a letter just received from a physician:

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 17, 1856.

DR. A. RHODES, Esq.—DEAR SIR: Yours of 24 inst. is at hand. Mrs. Chrisman has had a year and a half ague in its grasp, and you can try it was greatly increased from the fact that a remedy had been introduced which was growing in favor with the public, as being better than the old Quinine—not knowing, I presume, that the remedy they used to cure was taking the life of the very thing itself!

The remedy, (known as "Smith's Tonic,") would invariably break the case, but it did not cure it, and would return with renewed vigor. This one circumstance I learned in your town, (Mt. Holly,) while a boy—connection between it and your CURE. The following is the result:

Three persons took your Cure, all of which were cases of "Cincinnati Intermittent Fever," of many weeks standing. They had tried Quinine, and other remedies, occasionally missing a chill, but it was, (as in all such cases,) slowly wearing them out, and leaving the foundation still more and severer maladies. I did succeed in effecting a radical cure of all three of these cases with your remedy, and they have not had a chill since. In the case of these cases the "Smith's Tonic" had been used, and worked, as before stated, break the chill, but after a period or two had elapsed it would return.

I think there will be no difficulty now in giving to your Cure the vantage ground of only other remedy now in use have to do. Yours, &c. WILLIAM LIGHTFOOT, M. D.

Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, the only harmless remedy in existence, is equally certain as a Preventive as a Cure. Take it when you feel the chills coming on and you will never have a single one.

New Supply of Piano Fortes.

CHARLOTTE BLUME has just received a further supply of Hazlet, Davis & Co's Piano Fortes, with patent Suspension Bridges and Composition bearings, and with the repeating Grand Action.

As a proof of the superiority of these Pianos, is the following extract of a letter, at the late Exhibition in Boston, in competition with the celebrated maker, Jonas Chickering, who was present, and signed the award himself:

"The Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic's Association award this Diploma with a Silver Medal to Hazlet, Davis & Co., for the best Grand Piano Forte contributed to the exhibition of 1858. Jonas Chickering, President," (who had also one of his Pianos on exhibition in competition with Hazlet, Davis & Co.)

The committee, Messrs. Geo. J. Webb, H. K. Oliver, Jno. Lange, etc., say of the Grand "in tone, it is powerful, round, full, and of the most perfect blend. A capital instrument and best of its class on exhibition."

These Pianos are with Bell Iron Frame, circular scales, sliding music desk, etc., and are for sale on the most reasonable terms, and are made to stand in any Climate.

Also, a large assortment of second hand Pianos from Rammagarden & Heinz, Hamburg; A. W. Ladd & Co., Boston; and other good makers at prices from $225 to $1,000. CHARLOTTE BLUME, 119 Wood st.

N. B.—Gold Piano Stools and Covers, rose wood veneer. Another invoice of the celebrated Hamburg Pianos is expected in several weeks.

MELODEONS AND REED ORGANS—Chas. Holte Blume has just rec'd another lot of those unrivalled Melodeons and Reed Organs in every variety of case, of every variety and compass of tone, 4 and 5 octaves portable style, with scroll legs 5 and 5½ octaves, seraphine or Piano style, with carved legs, carved music desk, &c., 5 octaves in size, with 2 stops, and containing 3 sets of reeds throughout, the one tuned an octave above the other; an excellent instrument for use of churches, chapels and lecture rooms. Every instrument is warranted to be thoroughly examined before being sent from the manufactory, and is warranted in every respect. The instruments are manufactured by Mr. Myers, and his Melodeons and Reed Organs are pronounced superior, both in tone and finish, to any others manufactured.

The chief improvements (upon which the makers have secured Letters Patent,) consists in bringing the wind to the direct upon the reed, so as to produce, upon striking the key valve, the quickest possible vibration, and the sound thus obtained is of a soothing, mellow character, by the swell which mellows the tone, and gives it more of melodious, flutelike quality, than is the general property of reed instruments. CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The debate in the Senate continued all night. Mr. Seward advocated his bill for the admission of Kansas with the Topeka Constitution.

Mr. Reid replied to Mr. Seward's remarks relative to slavery, saying that when a majority of the people in the North become prepared to enforce the doctrines declared by Seward this Union could not last one hour longer.

SENATE.—Several amendments of a comparatively unimportant character were adopted, and others rejected. Mr. Geyer offered an amendment that no law shall be made, or have force or effect, which shall require a test oath to support any act of Congress or other Legislative act as a qualification for any civil office or public trust, or for any employment or profession, or to serve as a juror or vote at any election, or which shall impose any tax upon, or condition to exercise the right of suffrage by any qualified voter, or which shall restrain or prohibit free discussion on any law or subject of legislation in any territory, or free expression thereon by the people of any territory.

This gave rise to debate, involving the question of squatter sovereignty, and whether Congress ought to interfere as proposed, having left the people to settle their own affairs.

Mr. Cass said that some acts passed by the legislative Assembly of Kansas were disgraceful to the age. How could the people properly pass their laws unless they had the right of free discussion?

The amendment was adopted by the following vote:

YEAS:—Messrs Allen, Bayard, Bell, of N. H., Bell, Tenn., Benjamin, Briggs, Bigler, Bright, Broadhead, Cass, Clayton, Collamer, Crittenden, Dodge, Douglas, Durkee, Evans, Fessenden, Foote, Foster, Geyer, Hale, Iverson, Johnson, Jones, of Iowa, Pratt, Pugh, Reid, Sebastian, Steward, Slidell, Stuart, Thompson, of Ky., Toombs, Toucey, Trumbull, Wade, Weller, Wilson, Wright.

NAYS—Messrs. Brown, Fitzpatrick, Mason.

Mr. Wilson's amendment—(see former part of proceedings—was rejected—yeas 8 nays 35.

Mr. Seward offered a substitute admitting Kansas with the Topeka constitutions. Rejected—yeas 11, nays 32.

Finally the bill passed, by a vote of 30 against 12—as follows:

YEAS—Allen, Bayard, Bell, of Tennessee, Benjamin, Bigg, Bigler, Bright, Brodhead, Brown, Cass, Clay, Crittenden, Douglas, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson, Jones of Iowa, Mallory, Pratt, Pugh, Reid, Sebastian, Slidell, Stuart, Thompson of Ky., Toombs, Toucey, Weller, Wright and Yulee.

NAYS—Bell of New Hampshire, Collamer, Dodge, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Hale, Seward, Trumbull, Wade and Wilson.

Mr. Cass moved that 10,000 copies of the bill be printed, regarding it as of great importance, which was ordered at 8 o'clock this morning.—Adjourned.

SECOND DISPATCH.

SENATE.—The President pro tem. took the chair at noon, but there were no Senators besides himself present. The only persons present on the floor were the secretary, sergeant-at-arms, one doorkeeper, two pages, and in the gallery one reporter and two spectators. The chair announced the signing of several enrolled bills, including the Kansas bill, and then in accordance with previous understanding declared the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—A message was received from the Senate announcing the passage of the Kansas bill. Campbell, in response to the question of Mr. Kunkle, said he intended to call up the report in Select Committee relative to the assault on Mr. Sumner, on Tuesday, but would not then move the previous question if the friends of the parties involved desired discussion.

Mr. Clingham remarked there would be discussion.

Mr. Campbell said he would move the previous question on Wednesday.

The motion of Mr. Barclay to reconsider the vote by which the bill admitting Kansas with the Topeka Constitution was rejected, was then agreed to, yeas 101, nays 99, and the bill then passed, yeas 100, nays 97. An ineffectual effort was made to hold an evening session, to enable members to deliver speeches. The House however adjourned until Monday.

LOUISVILLE, July 3.—The Whig State Convention met to-day; seventeen counties were represented. The Convention adopted the Lexington Whig platform, adding a resolution that Congress should pass stringent laws to prohibit the emigration of foreign paupers and felons, and a resolution in favor of naturalizing foreigners be lengthened. The Convention decided that it would be impossible to make nominations, and recommended to the Whigs of the Union to hold no National Convention or make no nominations, but for every Whig to vote for the candidate whose principles conform the nearest to theirs.

The resolutions expressing the confidence of the Whigs of Kentucky in Mr. Fillmore, and saying that he is as worthy of their support as in 1848, were rejected by a vote of sixteen counties to one. Joshua T. Bell and Judge Kinkead, supported the resolutions. The Convention adjourned sine die.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Passengers from Lexington bring intelligence of the capture of the Ottawa company of emigrants on the steamer Arabia, on Platte river, July 1st. They were robbed of everything, and detained close prisoners. It was resolved by the mob to take the Massachusetts members up the river.
