GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 15, 1856.

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL—INTERESTING EXERCISES.—The High School of Pittsburgh went into operation about one year ago, and notwithstanding the great opposition with which it has met, the average of scholars has been large and the success of the Faculty in imparting information and knowledge has been great. The pupils have been for the most part attentive to their studies and their other duties. The casting up of accounts for the year, the exhibition of the result of this outlay of money, time and attention, occupied the whole of last week, and was concluded yesterday morning.

A philanthropic gentleman having given $100, $20 of which were for prize essays, and the remainder for the best grade of scholarship, and the Board having appropriated $15 to be given to the three best of the pupils in drawing, the concluding hours of the session were devoted to the distribution of the prizes to the successful competitors. Having assembled in the chapel, the pupils sang three pieces of beautiful music under the direction of their instructor, Mr. Critchlow.

The Principal, Prof. McKeown, then read the standing of all the pupils, and announced that the prize money had purchased the following prizes:

Bancroft's History of the U. S.....$10 00
Poets and Post-ry of America and Great Britain,..... 10 00
3 setts of Prescott's Mexico and Peru, each, ... 8 00
Female Poets of America,..... 5 00
Prescott's Philip II, ... 5 00
2 setts Macaulay's England, each,... 4 00
11 setts Guizot's Civilization, each,... 2 00
3 setts Drawing Instruments, &c., all 16 00

He then read the following report:

PITTSBURGH, July 11th, 1856.

The undersigned, appointed by the Central Board of Education, to examine the Essays written by the pupils of the Central High School, in competition for the prizes, which by previous arrangement, were to be given to the authors of the three best, respectfully report that we have attended to that duty, and have unanimously agreed, that the "Two Dollar Prize" be given to the author of "Evening," signed ——Heloise;" and the Five Dollar Prizes, one to the author of "Mother, Home and Heaven," signed "Ivy;" and the other to the author of "Women of '76 and '56," signed "Young Rapid, Esq."

Respectfully submitted by,

JAMES M. PATON,
A. BURTT,
DANIEL C. HOLMES.

Prof. Dixon then read the essay, entitled "The Women of '76 and '56," by Young Rapid, Esq. The author is a very young boy, and deserves much credit for ease of style and command of language. Its tone was satirical, alluding to the fashions, foibles and frailties of the women of the present age, leaving the impression upon the minds of the bachelors present, that matrimony at this day was anything but a desirable institution.

"Mother, Home and Heaven," a prose composition, was read by the authoress, Ivy. She read in a distinct tone of voice. Her subject was well treated, but at too great length.

"Evening," a poem, was also read by the authoress, Heloise. It was greatly admired by all who heard it, as being elegant in its style, beautiful in its fancies, and very correct, for a young poetess, in rhyme and metre. "Heloise," Miss Helen Ekin, was then presented with the $10 prize, beautifully embossed copies of The Poets and Poetry of America and Great Britain.

"Ivy," Miss Myra M'Laughlin, was presented with one of the second five dollar prizes, The Female Poets and Poetry of America.

"Young Rapid, Esq., William H. Moore, received the second five dollar prize, Prescott's Philip II.

Mr. Reuben Miller, moved that the Editors of the daily papers be requested to publish the prize essays, which was carried. We would most cheerfully do so, for our part, if their length permitted; we can only find room for the fine verses of Miss Ekin.

EVENING—BY HELOISE.

The Westward's gates of furnished gold
Have ope'd with rondeverus sway
And through, to bid her distant lands
Hath passed the King of Day.

And as I gazed the fair white clouds,
Which at my coming rose,
Seem angel forms set there to guard
The gateway of the skies.

Almost I seem to see beyond
Th se piles of crystal light,
A world of vast inheritance,
Too vast for mortal sight.

The angel clouds are gathering up
Twilight's soft drapery,
And spreading out its darkening folds
Athwart the azure sky.

And through these folds of sun's soft robe
There in the West star,
A gentle gem is shining forth—
It is the evening star.

And countless stars whose silvery light
We hidden by the sun,
From every part of heaven's high vault
Come smiling one by one.

Lisl Nature's ev-ning hymn ascends
In sweet harmonious,
Ten thousand voices join to swell
The song of fervent praise.

The cricket 'neath the sturdy oak,
The myriad insect's free,
Their gentle tones are mingling with
The sweet psalm of the sea.

Throughout the hour, while all around
Night's shadows are fullest rest,
When memory is free with gentle hand,
The curtain of the past.

And wandering through the shadowy vale
Of swift departing years,
And with each heart she sang touch
Each hymn awakens tears.

She lingers o'e bright pictures drawn,
When childish old'n years were free,
Enjoys the wayward of the soul
A single sometorne knee."

Then tramps on the shades that fill
Our Youth's most joyous hours,
When care came high for childhood's mirth,
As noon tide's bright e the flowers.

Then now the hour i' pause and weep,
Let thought roam wild and free,
As gazing on the sky to dream
Of immortality.

And on imaginations' wing
To rove from star to star
Dreaming of with those glittering gems
To wonder if they are

Worl s like our own where mortals dwell,
And sin as well as sorrow,
Where a thousand woes and blooms must fade
And mingl with the dust.

Or worlds of life, and light and love,
Where in their pure abode
Th e are God's ewes, who across and
To the bright throne of God.—

But see, from chambers of the east,
Lone Cynthia doth rise,
Pale Luna, w o hath filled her horn
Fresh from the ocean of light.

How lovely, queenly, she ap ears
Far in the silver sky,
With what rare splendor does she lead
Her starry retinue.

Oh! gentle moon, and like the sun,
I'd be, a h with such might,
Is generous splendor reign-swells,
Then pale in cowardice and slight!

But like to thee, with thr calm face,
Thy mid and gentle sway;
And when Day's glories fade like thee
In brighter light of day.

The following prizes were then distributed:

For Best Scholarship:—

Class A.—Mary Bunn; the first prize, $10, Bancroft's History of the United States

Jno. S. Ferguson, and Wallace Radcliffe, each Macaulay's England, prize $4

Kuno Kuhn, and Wm King, each Guizot's History of Civilization, prize $2

Miss Heppie Wilkins, of this class was honorably mentioned, as the next best in scholarship.

Class B.—Misses S. Young, Emma Willes, Helen Ekin, each copies of Prescott's Histories of Mexico and Peru, prize $8

J. H. Montgomery, Harriott Lewis, Simpson Daft, and Mary Ward, each a copy of Macaulay's England, prize $4

Caroline Dawson, Ellen Radcliff, J. S. Thompson, Martha Ferguson, Jos. L. Miller, Samuel Tagert, Jas. Farker, each a copy of Guizot's Civilization, prize $2.

Prof. Dean made a few happy remarks previous to the presentation.

Miss Caskey, Miss Dannals, Misses J. & L. Shepherd, Frank F. Case and H M Stephenson, of class B, were honorably mentioned as the next best in scholarship.

Professor A. Haddeus of the Drawing Department, distributed eight setts of drawing instruments, paper and books, as follows:

1st prize, to Chas. Lang; 2d, J. S. Read; 3d, Sarah H. Dannals; 4th, A. W. Foster; 5th, H. M Davis; 6th, A. S. Atchison; 7th, Kuno Kuhn; 8th, Josephine Shepler.

A young lad then declaimed Hood's amusing version of the bloody tragedy of Pyramus and Thisbe, in very good style. He closed with a few appropriate words in presentation of a beautiful gold-headed cane to Professor M'Keown whose connection with the school ceases with the term. The Professor replied very happily, affecting his pupils to tears. He addressed his fellow-teachers in conclusion. Professor Dean replied in behalf of the Faculty.

The pupils sang a piece entitled, "Adieu to a Teacher," and with prayer by Rev. A. Cookman, the company dispersed. The examination we are informed was very good, and reflected great credit upon the Faculty—Profs. M'Keown, Dean, Dixon and Miss Maitland and upon the pupils.

BATTALION FORMED.—The Etna Guards of Pine Creek, Pennsylvania Infantry, East Liberty, and the Washington Infantry, of this city, have formed themselves into a Battalion, and elected their officers last week. We give the result below:—

Lieutenant Colonel—Thomas A. Howley.
Major—Capt. McQuaig.
Adjutant—Capt. J. S. Negley.

Over one hundred and forty votes were polled. The first Battalion parade will take place on the 21st of August.

RIOT.—Three young men names Haven, John Walls and Jas. Stuart, were arrested and taken before Mayor Adams yesterday, for assault with intent to kill and riot, upon the oath of Samuel Smith, tavern keeper, Hand street, Allegheny, who deposed that they entered his place on Sunday night, and beat him badly without cause or provocation. Haven gave bail in $1500, and the others were committed to jail for trial.

EXTENSIVE ROBBERY OF SILKS.—About the middle of last week, a young man who registered his name at the Monongahela House as E. Palmer, offered for sale at the Dry Goods house of J. Hasson Love, Market street, about $3,000 worth of Silks and Velvet, at very low prices. The suspicions of Mr. Love were excited, and he deferred giving his decision as to purchasing the goods. He communicated with officer Hague, who telegraphed to New York to various dry-goods merchants, and on Sunday Mr. Harding, of the firm of Sargent, Harding & Co., New York, came to this city, and confronted Palmer, who, he discovered, was a former clerk. He identified the goods. Palmer gave the name of Peabody to Mr. Love. The young man was committed to jail, and yesterday was taken to New York City by Officer Hague.

EX-TREASURER ROWLAND.—We published in yesterday's paper a statement of proceedings made by this gentleman in the District Court, on Saturday, furnished us by the clerk of that Court, which we are assured by Mr. Rowland is incorrect and calculated to do him injury. The true state of the case as given us by Mr. Rowland, is as follows: He was the holder of a bond which was sued upon, and $1200, the amount thereof, paid into the Court by the maker of the bond.—Mr. Rowland filed his refunding bond for $2600, and drew out the $1200. The motion on Saturday was with a view to have the whole matter settled. This is widely different from the statement given us by our informant, and we cannot see how he could have been so far mistaken.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Sunday evening, about 5 o'clock, the tow boat Billow No. 2, being aground on Glass House Ripple, in sight of the city, the first engineer Alexander Davis, got out on the water level to make repairs. Whilst thus engaged, the engine was started and Mr. Davis was carried round with the revolution of the wheel and badly crushed. One of his legs was broken in two places, his head badly cut and his body severely bruised. He died within a short time.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—A man named Murray made oath before Alderman M'Kennan yesterday, as to an attack upon him by three persons on Pennsylvania Avenue, for the purpose of robbery. They secured $70,00 or $80,00. A man named Schell was arrested and committed on suspicion of being one of the thieves.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—A difficulty occurred at an eating house in the Diamond on Saturday evening between a man named Fairburn, and another named Nebbs. The latter owned a dog which hit the former; whereupon he beat the dog. The owner made an attack upon him, and in the course of the affray cut him under the chin, the knife penetrating into the mouth.

BOGGING ESTABLISHMENT.—We are informed on good authority that there is an Italian in this city who carries on bogging professionally, having more than a dozen journeymen, deformed persons, blind, and children. His workmen are to be found in every section of the city. The police should attend to this matter, and relieve the benevolent from the fear of imposition.

THE KING ESTATE.—We were led into error in yesterday's paper in relation to the report of the Assignee of Hugh D. King. There will be a further dividend, but its amount depends entirely upon the result of suits now pending; so that the Assignee, Mr. Baum, is unable to say how large it will be.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.—The Commissioners intend turning the jail into a kind of House of Industry, and will put the female vagrants to work making mattresses and other bed-clothing for the use of the prisoners this coming winter. The community will heartily approve the proposed action of the Commissioners.

IMPROVEMENTS.—A large force of workmen are engaged in replanking the Monongahela Bridge. The upper planks are laid lengthwise, which we think will be a poor arrangement for icy weather, as the horses will have no way of catching their feet, as they have now.

BREACH OF ORDINANCES.—A drover named Jas. McNeil was fined by Mayor Adams, yesterday, for bringing a drove of cattle to the city on Sunday.

Geo. W. Smith was also fined for driving at a rapid gait through the streets of Allegheny.

DANGEROUSLY INJURED.—An elderly woman named Jarvis, residing in Baldwin township, fell through a cellar way at her residence on Sabbath, and injured herself to such an extent that it is thought she cannot recover.

The editor of the Christian Advocate announces that Rev. W. H. Kincaid will continue to act in the capacity of city editor of that paper, and the initials attached to the local column will be discontinued.

PERSONAL.—Rev. A. Cookman, on Tuesday, the 8th inst., delivered an address before the Pallosetian Literary Society of Baldwin University located at Berea, Ohio.

Dr. BEALE'S Artic Regions attracted a crowded and fashionable audience last evening in Masonic Hall. It popularly holds good; unmingled praise and admiration are highly accorded it.

MEDICINE.

DR. PLEASANT FAMILY PHYSIC—An entirely vegetable preparation, pleasant to the taste, unequalled in its action upon the Liver, Stomach, and general system. As an Anti-Bilious and Alterative Physic, this medicine

HAS NO EQUAL IN THE WORLD.

I have used it constantly in my practice for upwards of 10 years in all cases where a good Physic and Alterative was required, and would not now do without it. It is the

PHYSICIAN'S ASSISTANT,

As well as the safest family medicine in use. Children digest it with pleasure. It will not nauseate the weakest stomach. If you are too anxious, but operates easily, thoroughly, and cures to a certainty. Relieve your system when it is properly taken. Already

THOUSANDS OF LIVING WITNESSES

are ready to testify to its superior virtues, independent of its purgative and anti-bilious qualities. It has cured the worst cases of Scrofulas in a few days. It is a for Headache, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Kidney Complaint, Bilious Fever, Pains in the Side, Back, Breast and Limbs, Colds, Cramps, Worms, Lumbago, Blotches on the Skin, Pimples, Cutaneous, Eruptions, Obstructions in the System Constipation of the Bowels, Dizziness, Mercurial Diseases, Fluxes, Female Irregularities, Bowel Complaints, Chills of all kinds &c. It cleanses by its superior medicinal virtues, the noxious humor from the blood and every impure bile from the stomach, causing it all through the natural channels; IT INVIGORATES AND BLOOD and gives health and vitality. I ask my friends to test the above Medicine, and pronounce a verdict upon it, which will be satisfactory to everyone. Those who know me professionally will not doubt its merits.

NEVER FAILING CURE

Since its first introduction, no medicine has attained such popularity and its sales have increased beyond the most sanguine hopes of its friends, making it emphatically a

UNEQUALLED PHYSIC

Physicians can use it with confidence.

TAKE NO OTHER

after one trial, and parents should use no other in their families. People living in low and marshy countries, subject to unhealthy miasmas, where Fevers, Ague and Fever, and Bilious complaints are more apt to be, will find the Liquid Cathartic the most potent remedy yet tried. Only 25 cents per bottle.

Wholesale by A. B. & D. Sands, C. V. Clickner & Co., and C. D. Ring, New York.

Full directions accompanying each bottle. Price 50 and 25 cents and twenty dozen.
