

GAZETTE CITY DEPARTMENT.
PIETSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 16, 1866.

Fremont and Johnston.
RATIFICATION MEETING IN ALLEGHENY.

In pursuance of the arrangements made by the Committee of Correspondence, Mr. J. C. Fremont and Mr. F. Johnston, for Vice President, were assembled in mass meeting at the Market House, Allegheny, on Wednesday last evening. There were about two thousand men and people present. Cannon were fired from Seminary Hill, and shots of muskets were present. The officers of the meet- ing were:

President—Dr. William Woods, Scrivener.
Vice Presidents—M. B. L. Childs, W. G. McDowell, B. L. Moore, Dr. John C. Conley, J. H. Elliott, Jas. Bar, Jas. C. Eddie, Duncan Hunter, Jas. C. Gandy, Jas. H. Hamilton, Jas. McNaughton, Jas. McNaughton, Wilson Stewart, Jas. Roberts, Geo. F. Readell, Capt. Robt. Greene, Jas. Sanderson and P. D. Smith.
Secretary—J. A. McLaren, Jas. F. Farmer, Jas. A. Brown, N. Patterson, H. E. Michael.

B. P. McDowell, Esq., moved that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions.

The chair approved Messrs. J. H. Sewell, Edward S. Hall, F. McDowell, J. W. Eddleman, and Jas. Ford, of Ohio, were then introduced, and proceeded to address the audience, half an hour every four years, and the speaker invited to speak to public affairs. In religion it was referred to each man to worship at different times. The speaker then said: "I am not but one, who has not some sacrifice; that ambition, pride, aspiration, to the law, and the altar was the consolation of the country, and the example of Jesus to the people, and referred to the perpetuation upon the altar of liberty in Greece, and the care with which it was preserved, and the going, while an American speech, At this point the platform gave place to the reporters, who were in with candles, water, and forty or fifty spectators. After order was restored, the speaker concluded his speech.

He then gave a history of the secession from the New York National Council, the introduction of catholic delegates to the and the committee's resolution to submit to the convention. He also said that the honor of the first session from a national party on the question of slavery belonged to the party.
"The party can only restrain the slave representation to be spread into territory large enough to give it a seat in the Senate. The speaker referred to the Missouri Compromise, and the bold faith of the South stated that the South would be and could not be enslaved."

He then proceeded to say that his association party had nominated J. C. Fremont.
His report in the Tribune, and the effort made to win him to the Catholic. The speaker commented on the moment Fremont was led an applause, and followed him into the hall explaining his motives, and all until the present time. He was fresh from the people and uncontaminated.

The speaker then referred to the coming election, and urged upon the South, to make moral, "Forget, Forget, Us." The political party had aids for the present.

The Committee presented the following resolutions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political influence. We did not call them to the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles, and the cause of
the slaves must present but one electoral ticket.

We have given the heads of the Government a able and witty speech. He was
frequently interrupted by loud applause.

The Committees presented the following resolu-
tions:

"WHEREAS, The American party, which met in
New York on the 12th day of June last, by their
action, and every word they said, have given the heads of the Government, and every man in America;
we are not to be satisfied, the impulsion
of papers and criminals, and a foreign political
influence. We did not call them to
the threats of disunion, and treated them lightly.
On the subject of the Vice Presidency,
said that nothing could be done, but to wait
for the result of the success of free
men. We would sacrifice Fremont, Dayton and Farrar to those principles