THE TWO-STORD CANDERAR.-We have just noticed in the SL Louis Democrat a curious re-velation concerning James Bachanan, which shows clearly the irresistible inclination of that individual to be on both sides of all questions. There are, as. our readers well know, two "democratic" parties in Missouri-the Benton and Asti-Benton, which hate one another with a perfect harted. In the ponding State election they are running separate tickets, both pledged the mads of art being the work about to be pushed to completion at the mask of the southern democrais gener-ally regard Benton with loating and contempt. In view of this ister fact, it would eeem to have been the policy of Mr. Buchanan to appear to side with the general soniment of the South-and ergetic masking was upon the Ben-ton branch; and the southern democrais gener-ally regard Benton with loating and contempt. as his charging fortunes seemed to warrant. Is this a man to make a President of? We put it to the American people to decide whether a fickle, unstable changeling, who has fought on both sides in every battle, is the one they should choose to occupy the diguined place of the Pre-sidency? The interests new at stake are too vant and too important to be entimised to feeble hands; and if a man like Jathes Bachanan has to take charge of them, he will become at once the sport of faction and ihe tool of stronger men. This we feel sure the country will not permit. The solid country will not permit. To the Editor of the Herald as his changing fortunes scomed to warrant.
