GAZETTE—CITY DEPARTMENT.

PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1856.

The Sixth Annual Exhibition

OF THE

Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society,

WILL BE HELD AT

PITTSBURGH,

Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st, 2d and 3d, 1856.

ROBT. C. WALKER, Secy.

Councils.—Owing to the lateness of the hour (eleven o'clock) at which the Councils adjourned, last evening, and the length and comparative unimportance of their proceedings, we leave over the official report until our next issue.

The Councils, after much discussion, appointed Messrs. Miller, Kammerer and Herdman, of C. C., and Wade and Murdock, of S. C., a committee to vote on the stock of the city at the Election for Directors of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, on Wednesday, with instructions to vote for a Board favorable to the election of George W. Cass, Esq., President of the Board.

Stabbing Affair.—Late on Saturday night a German named John Frainhaitz, was walking up street in Lawrenceville in company with a friend and son, Frainhaitz and his friend were met by two drovers, named Alexander Kelly and Thomas McCluskey. The latter party insisted on Frainhaitz and his friend going and taking a drink with them, which they peremptorily refused. On giving the refusal, it is alleged, Kelly, who had in his hand, plunged a knife into the left side of Frainhaitz, inflicting a frightful gash. On inflicting the wound, Kelly and McCluskey escaped by different routes. The wounded man was taken to his residence, and Drs. Robinson and Shields were called in. The wound was ascertained to be about two inches in length, but its correct depth could not be probed. The wound bled profusely despite the physicians' efforts to stop it.

Kelly was arrested on Saturday night, and committed to jail to answer. A man named A. A. Decker was arrested yesterday and taken before Squire Geary, for participating in the affair, and he was identified by the wounded man though he proves an alibi. The matter is under advisement. Frainhaitz is recovering.

Recovery of Stolen Valuables.—On Saturday last a negro named Henry Blakely, or Blakey, was committed to jail by Alderman Johns for disorderly conduct. Officer Wells having suspicions as to his honesty paid a visit to his house above the Hand street Bridge in Allegheny, on Sunday, and there found a bed stolen from Jas. Berger, of Third street. Also a galvanized watch, cylinder escapement, four holes jewelled, No. 22,382, M. J. Tobias, Liverpool, maker.—Also one gold hunting case watch, No. 18,820, detached lever, thirteen jewels, T. F. Cooper, London, maker. Also one gold locket and chain. These articles are in the possession of officers Wells and Parker. They also found a trunk containing eight coats, eight pair pants and four vests. The clothing is at Alderman Donaldson's office.

James Berger made oath against Blakey, for the larceny of the bed, and a commitment was lodged against him yesterday by Alderman Donaldson.

A Murderer in Jail.—The Sheriff of Juniata county, late on Saturday night, deposited in our county jail a man named Stong, charged with murdering a man in the above county about eighteen months since, at a barn raising, by knocking his brains out with a setook. He was arrested in Michigan, and for a few days has not been free from his chains. Stong emphatically denies the murder, and says he was not in the county at the time; but he was seen, we are informed, committing the act by several persons.

Alderman Major visited the prisoner on Sunday, when finding his appearance coinciding with the description of Beers, the murderer of Quigley, in Washington city, some months ago, he addressed him by that name. The prisoner was much confused, and his demeanor confirmed the suspicion, which the magistrate telegraphed to Washington.

Fremont and Dayton Meeting in Temperanceville.—The Fremont meeting in Temperanceville, (Chartiers township,) on Saturday night last was large and enthusiastic. About 300 people were present, and the best of feeling prevailed; and we learn that quite a number of Democrats came over to Fremont.

Charles Barnes, Esq., presided, and Philip Stevens acted as Secretary. On motion of Wm. Perkins, Esq., a committee of five was appointed to report a constitution for a Fremont Club, to an adjourned meeting to be held on Friday night next. The committee consisted of N. Ballentine, Dark Robinson, Mr. Perkins, J. Smilley, and J. Colvin.

Dr. E. D. Gazam then addressed the meeting in a very excellent address, and was followed by T. J. Bigham, Esq., who also made a rousing speech. The meeting was harmonious and full of life, and Chartiers promises to give a splendid majority for Fremont in November.

Deceased.—The Pittsburgh Christian Advocate says:—"We learn, by telegraph, the sad intelligence, that the venerable Mr. Robert Baird, father of the editor of that paper, died at Zanesville, O., on Wednesday morning the 23d inst., after a protracted age of 88 years. His death was caused by an attack of Paralysis.

The June number of the Gentleman's Magazine, published in London, Eng., contains the following:—"Died, April 17, at Stepney Lodge, (near Hull) aged 62, George Cookman, Esq., J. P. He was twice Mayor of Hull, and father of Rev. George G. Cookman, Chaplain to the Senate of the United States of America." Rev. A. Cookman of this city is a grandson of the deceased.

Fremont Meeting.—A meeting was held in Sharpsburg on Saturday evening, July 26th, for the purpose of organizing a Fremont Club. After the appointment of officers for the evening the meeting resolved itself into a Fremont Club. Permanent officers for the Club were then chosen and a Committee appointed to draft a Constitution and by-laws; also a Committee to organize a Glee Club, during the intervals of business. Music was discoursed by the Sharpsburgh band. Adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, Aug. 2d, at 7½ o'clock.

Larceny of a Horse.—A man named Thos. Donald appeared before Alderman M'Master, yesterday, and stated the following case: On the 26th of July, Henry Trade rented a horse to him to Upper St. Clair tp., which afterwards was stolen from the stable from a man named Beatty. Donald traded the horse he got from complainant to a man in this city. A warrant for Donald's arrest for horse stealing was issued by the magistrate.

Arrested on Suspicion.—Two men who gave the name of Adam Beale and George Beth were arrested on Saturday night, by Alderman M'Master's police on suspicion of stealing a watermade shoe, which they were selling on Prospect street at very low prices.

July Term of the District Court.—The July term of the District Court was opened yesterday by the crier, though none of the Judges were in attendance.

Noul.—The proprietor of the fish at the corner of Wood and Fifth st., would confer a favor upon the community by removing them, as the odor is very unpleasant.

Recovered.—The body of Adam Reining, who was drowned on Saturday, was recovered on Sunday. An inquest was held by Coroner Alexander.

We would ask the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column, headed "Flooring Mill and Dwelling for sale." A good investment.

Common Cases.—Alderman Johns disposed of ten common cases on Sunday morning and only one yesterday morning.

The Fremont Club of Birmingham meets this (Tuesday) evening at 7½ o'clock, at Bedford Hall. F. T. Collier, Esq., will address the club.

Sheriff's Sales.—The Sheriff yesterday commenced his sales as advertised. There was a fair attendance.

"A Perfumed Handkerchief.—What lady or gentleman of taste would venture under the cause of a disagreeable breath whom by using the "Bells of a Thousand Flowers," as a destructive agent not only render it sweet and delicate as the teeth white as alabaster? Many people do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate that friends will never mention it. Put a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A little cent bottle will last a year.

A PERFECT COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," it will remove tan, pimples, and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and rosette hue. Use a small piece on two or three occasions, and wash the face first and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY—Wet your shaving brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price 50 cts. per bottle.
