MR. SUMNER'S SPEECH.—Persons desirous of procuring copies of Mr. Sumner's celebrated speech, "The Crime against Kansas," in pamphlet form, can procure them at this office.

☞ The Pittsburgh Post is trying to make capital for Buchanan, by telling a story of some person who wanted a boat built, who said he would rather pay five or ten thousand dollars more for a boat, than "employ the abolitionist contractors and mechanics of Pittsburgh."—The editor of the Post, in commenting on this, says—"our Pittsburgh mechanics and boat builders had better lay up their tools and vote for Fremont and disunion at once."

We consider the story of the Post apocryphal. Southern capitalists are not such ninnies to throw away their money to gratify a political prejudice. The use the word makes it, however, shows the cowardly, slavish character of the Northern doughface. He would have Pittsburgh mechanics to sacrifice their political independence for a livelihood. He would have them submit to the dictation of Southern customers, and vote for men or principles as they shall desire. It has been the fashion of Southern men to sneer at Northern patriotism. They have boasted that they could always govern us through our interests. The editor of the Post holds a similar estimate of the political honesty of Pittsburgh Mechanics. He threatens them with the loss of business unless they will obey his Southern Masters, and vote for Buchanan. He holds up poverty before them, and says—"vote for Buchanan, vote for slavery extension, give the heritage of free labor, the fair plains of Kansas, to slavery, or starve!" If we have estimated the character of Pittsburgh Mechanics aright, they would rather never build another boat, than yield up their political independence at the threats of any arrogant Southern Slaveholder, or pusillanimous Doughfaced editor.

HON. E. A. PURVIANCE.—It seems to be generally conceded that Hon. SAMUEL A. PURVIANCE will be the unanimous choice of the Fremont men in the 22d district for re-election to Congress. He richly deserves such a mark of confidence and approval; and it is to the credit of his intelligent constituency that they appreciate him to the full.

Mr. Purviance entered Congress at a memorable period in American politics. For the first time in the history of the nation, a nominal majority of men committed to the support of the free principles of the constitution had been returned to the House; but when it met, and entered upon a struggle for Speaker, it was found that the majority was not a reliable one, and that the House was about equally divided on the great question between Freedom and Slavery.—A fierce contest ensued for the Speakership, extending over several weeks. At the outset, Mr. Purviance voted with most of the Pennsylvania delegation for his colleague, Mr. Fuller; but as soon as he ascertained that Mr. Fuller was not to be trusted on the slavery question, he changed his vote to Mr. Banks, and adhered to him throughout, voting on every ballot. He was assigned a prominent place on the Committees of the House, and has been, during the session, one of the most faithful and devoted of the northern phalanx. His speeches, though not many, have been eloquent and argumentative, showing him to be a ready debater and fluent speaker. He commands the confidence and respect of his colleagues, as well as of his constituents; and we are glad to learn that the next Congress is to have the benefit of his experience. He will be re-elected by a very handsome majority, the opposition to him being nearly nominal, and this is the highest compliment that can be paid to a representative in these times of trial.

THE RIGHT OF FREEMEN TO GO TO KANSAS DENIED.—When the Nebraska bill was first passed, the South contended that they were merely obtaining an equal right with Northern men to go into the national territories. Their great anxiety seemed to be to create the impression that they had not possessed that equality of right, previously; and that on the passage of that bill Northern and Southern immigrants could enter Kansas upon the same terms. But their success in the passage of that bill, as well as in the management of the Pierce administration, together with the confidence they possess that Buchanan will be equally pliable in their hands, has emboldened them to take one step further, and deny the right of the people of the North to immigrate to Kansas at all! This has been done. In the debate on the Army appropriation bill, on Friday last, while Mr. Cumback, of Indiana was speaking, he said:

"We too, in the North, will have our rights, and notwithstanding the blockade of the Missouri Rivers, and the high-handed attempt to keep men from the North from settling in that Territory, they will go; who dare claim the right to hinder them? Free State men have a right to go there and settle where they please, and in such numbers as they please, and it has not yet come to pass that they must consult the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. McMullen] or his political party, or the President in the exercise of that right.

Mr. McMullen—I DENY THE RIGHT."

This is plump, and pithy. Mr. McMullen is a leading democrat of Virginia, and a warm friend of Mr. Buchanan; and speaking in the name of the South, the great reliance of Mr. Buchanan, he bluntly denies the right of non-slave-holders to settle in Kansas, upon any terms. This, Northern democrats, is your Squatter Sovereignty.

"Then go wise saints, behold your light, your star.
To would be dupes and victims, and 'sears.'"

The entire party, so far as regards the popular branch of Congress, acquiesce in the construction of Mr. McMullen, of Virginia. The North has no right there. Emigration from the North is shut out from territory which our fathers dedicated to freedom only thirty years ago, and against which Mr. Buchanan "resolved" and "protested" as a concession too large and liberal to the South.

This is the very consummation of impudence, beyond which it is impracticable for human ingenuity to go. We ask the democrats of Pennsylvania whether they will submit to this construction of the Nebraska bill, or repudiate the party making it?

MORE STRAWS.—A vote was taken on Monday on the train from the West, on the O. & P. R. R. which resulted as follows: Fremont 64; Buchanan 18; Fillmore 7.

On Wednesday, on the train between Lima and Crestline, O. & I. R. R., a vote was taken, which showed for Fremont 52, Buchanan 19, Fillmore 8. On the same day, on the train from Crestline to Pittsburgh, the vote stood, Fremont 58, Buchanan 28, Fillmore 11.

PITTSBURGH, FORT WAYNE AND CHICAGO ROAD.—The newly elected Directors in the consolidated road met yesterday and organized by electing GEO. W. CASS, Esq., of Pittsburgh, as President, and J. K. Edgerton, of Fort Wayne, Vice President. The position thus assigned to Mr. Cass is a high compliment to his energy and ability.

This road is now one of the largest and most important roads in the country. Its early completion through to Chicago will be urgently pressed forward, and we shall then have the most magnificent through line in the West.

THE ALLIANCE POLE RAISING.—The statement made in our paper, the other day, about the paucity of the attendance at the Alliance Buchanan Pole raising, was derived from a gentleman who was on the cars at the time. We know nothing of the affair ourselves. We thought the authority for the statement good, and therefore made it. It appears that it has been contradicted, and we give the party the benefit of the contradiction.

The Lowell (Mass.) Citizen hauls down the Fremont and Johnston ticket, and puts up Fremont and Dayton.

BUCHANAN AND FILLMORE CO-OPERATION.—There are many men in Pennsylvania who are supporting Fillmore honestly, under the conviction that they are so best combatting the Buchanan men; but the interested leaders of that party have no such honesty to boast of. We have no doubt that at this moment the Buchanan men are contributing material aid to these leaders, and that the latter have a perfect understanding with the former, by which they agree to throw the State into the hands of Buchanan. In the vote on every political question in the House at Washington there is a perfect and understood coalition between the Administration and the Fillmore men of the House; and every opportunity that now offers for the two parties to act together shows that the Fillmore men stand pledged to carry forward the schemes of the Administration. The following paragraph from a Washington correspondence will give some clue to the new-found sympathy of the Know Nothings and the "Democracy":—

"In order to preventany co-operation between the divided interests, in opposition to the Cincinnati platform and candidate in Pennsylvania, the Democracy are raising large sums of money for the purpose of keeping up the Filler Thorough papers and organization. They feel confident of conviction that a union of the forces would be attended with the certain fall of their unworthy chieftain, and the entire thousands of dollars will be put to this object, and the honest raised to send be upon their guard against the designs of venal and desperate politicians."

But will the "honest masses" be upon their guard? If they were half as wide awake as they might be, they could see these things, plainly; but mercenary politicians know how to blind the eyes of unsuspecting partisans. Nevertheless, let us hope that light will strike in, even against the extra precaution of the guilty conspirators.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE ON TUESDAY.—The following proceedings of the House on Tuesday did not reach us by Telegraph:

On motion of Mr. Dunn, the House re-considered the vote by which the bill to annul certain acts of the Legislature of Kansas and to secure to the citizens of that Territory their rights and privileges, was referred to the committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

Mr. Dunn then submitted a bill for the re-organization of Kansas and providing the usual territorial machinery. The bill makes provision for the freedom of speech and of the press; test oaths of whatever kind are prohibited, nor shall cruel or unusual punishments be allowed. All criminal prosecutions pending in any of the courts of Kansas, imputing to any persons the crime of treason, and all criminal prosecutions for alleged violation or disregard whatever, of what are usually known as the laws of the Legislature of Kansas, shall be forthwith dismissed, and every person restrained of his liberty released. It restores the Missouri restriction and provides for the encouragement of settlement and education. The bill repeals all parts of the Kansas-Nebraska, or other acts in conflict with this bill

Mr. Sneed moved to lay the bill on the table. Disagreed to—yeas 77, nays 93.

Mr. Dunn's substitute was then agreed to, and the bill thus amended passed—yeas 88, nays 74.

The Gathering at Dayton!

One Hundred Thousand Young Men in Council!!

DAYTON, Wednesday Morning, July 30.

The morning breaks with promise. The skies are slightly overcast, just enough to check the violence of the sun, without indicating rain.—Though it is yet early in the morning, still the people are already pouring along all the roads leading from the country. The principal streets of the city are already thronged. The people come with Banners and Music and enthusiasm. Hundreds of banners and lettered canvasses are also hung out by the citizens of Dayton, from their public buildings, private residences, and across their streets. From the multitude of sentiments emblazoned upon the banners and canvasses, we copy these: "Fremont and Dayton, Freedom of Speech and of the Press;" "Fremont and Dayton, Free Kansas and Liberty;" "Free States, Free Kansas, Free Men, Fremont and Dayton;" "Free Speech, Free Labor, Free Kansas, and Fremont," "For Fremont, the Ragged Boy;" "No More Slave Territory;" "The Pathfinder, Our Choice;" "Fremont and Dayton, and the Union Forever."

To make mention of the hundreds of appropriate and often cute pictures and sentiments displayed upon the banners swinging from the carriages and horses that are pouring through the streets, would take altogether too much room.

The indications are that this is to be a very triumphant meeting, in all particulars. Men are here from all sections of the country. The Cincinnatiagame came in on the night express from Columbus. Cassius Clay spoke in Butler county, last evening, and will come in with the delegation from that county, this morning. Other distinguished speakers have arrived—and several speeches will be going on at the same hour, in both English and German from different stands that have been erected at different points.

12 O'CLOCK, NOON.

All the promise of the morning has been more than realized. It is estimated that at least ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND people have come to this gathering—mostly Young Men! "Young America" was never out in such might before—and it could not really be a cause more worthy of its young and generous enthusiasm. The Procession, miles in length, is now marching and counter-marching through the streets. It is led by THREE HUNDRED YOUNG MEN on horseback, from the County of Green. They bear at their head the Stars and Stripes, with the inscription—"Young America goes for Fremont and Dayton!" In a large carriage were thirty laughing Buckeye Girls, each bearing a Banner with the name of one of the States. A young man on horseback carried the banner inscribed KANSAS, draped in black. On a large platform drawn by six horses, were Mechanics, at work at their general trades—and aloft a banner, inscribed—"We do not work for ten cents a-day!" But I have not time, before the leaving of the train, for details.

Everybody is astonished at the overwhelmingly triumphant character of the first gathering of Young Men of Ohio. No man who is in Dayton to-day, will longer doubt of Fremont's election. Never before were the American people so earnestly determined upon any purpose. The glorious YOUNG MEN have taken hold of this work, and they will put it through! When Freedom and Fremont can marshal One Hundred Thousand Young Men, at the first call, the time for Border Ruffianism to make its Will, and send for the Sexton.

We have the Cincinnati papers of Thursday, which bring us full accounts of the speeches, &c. They confirm the calculation as to numbers above given. The afternoon, however, was rainy and disturbed the arrangements for out-door meetings. Speeches were made at convenient points by Mr. Burlingame, Cassius M. Clay, Gov. Bingham, C. D. Smith, and other, during the day time, and Mr. Burlingame spoke again at night. The enthusiasm was very high, and Dayton is said to have presented a splendid sight—the streets crowded with people, houses overflowing with guests, every accessible place for a pubol meeting filled up and music playing and flags waving at all points.

Mr. Burlingame was the hero of the occasion, and attracted general attention. His speeches were eloquent and he was ilonized to a point that must have proved uncomfortable to him.—He seems to have roused up the most intense admiration, out West, by his backing Brooks out.

Altogether, this Dayton demonstration was the most eventful one of the present campaign.

STAMPEDE OF THE DEMOCRACY.—Sanford Harrison, Esq., a prominent Democrat of New York, has issued an address to his fellow Democrats, in which he states that he has just returned from a tour of the central counties, and finds that the leaders of the Democracy have all gone over to Fremont, and that there is no hope of carrying the State for Buchanan. In this condition of affairs he urges his political friends to vote for Fillmore, and thus save the State from Fremont. This he thinks, will throw the election into the House of Representatives, when he is confident Buchanan will be elected, or, if not, Breckenridge will be the President.

Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 3 years past we have constantly worn the Washington Suspender Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood st., in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspenders, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to continually tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. He particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the brazes sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood st, sign of the Golden Mortar.

M'Lane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. From the unsolicited testimony continually offered from all quarters of the country it is impossible to resist a conviction of the great excellence of these Pills in all diseases of the Liver and Stomach. The following letter from Toronto, Canada, is one of the many the proprietors have received:

TORONTO, April 27th, 1854.

MESSRS FLEMING BROS., SIRS,—I take this opportunity of informing you of the benefit I have derived from Dr. M'Lane's valuable Pills. I have for two years past been afflicted with a severe pain over the eyes, accompanied with a nervousness and a sense of dizziness a malady beyond the power and skill of our physicians to relieve and cure, caused, as far as I myself could judge, by a diseased state of the liver and stomach. Some of the doctors tried bleeding, and various other remedies were tried, but all in vain, for the despirated disease still stuck fast. At last I procured a box of your valuable Liver Pills from a Druggist here, and, feel after taking a portion of them that the disease and painful sensation over the eyes has almost entirely left me. I will close by advising all those afflicted as I have been, to procure the valuable Pills, be patient, and save much time and pain, with the cure is certain. With sincere gratitude and respect, I remain, yours respectfully, GEO. W. JUSSEL, Toronto.

Personal observation permits us to speak with the greatest confidence in regard to this popular medicine. A member of our own family was cured of a most aggravated case of Scrofula, after years of standing.—In addition to this, we have perused the certificates of many of the most esteemed citizens of the state who have been cured of various diseases more or less connected with humors. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.—The great and principal characteristics of DALLY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR are these:

1st. Of its never failing and unique property, as soon as applied to any external injury, to cause inflammation instantly, and rapidly to subdue it. This desirable result arrests its great power to alleviate the pain of burns and scalds, and of other painful diseases, in so incredibly short a space of time, and so will appear from the evidence, as to be harmless and unequalled. Every intelligent mind is fully aware that in all cases of external injury, the pain accompanies the inflammation of the injured parts; and, therefore, if you remove the cause, the effect must cease.

2d. Its pacifications properties neutralize the poison that may lurk in the system, and will, when applied to the sores, draw rapidly all impure matter to the surface, and speedily cause the sores discharges to proceed, and become cessioned by nurse—and when applied to old and inveterate sores, fails like a charm, or other cutaneous diseases.

Frostwort or Rock Rose.—For the cure of Scrofulous Diseases.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1, 1852.

My son Charles has been afflicted with inflammation of the hip joint. At the age of 5 he was first attacked; inflammation increased until the hip was very diseased, and the joint seriously affected his leg drawing it up so that it was impossible to straighten it; a professor of surgery gave it as his decided opinion that the leg would never heal, and that the young man would never walk again. The disease increased so rapidly that for two and a half years he only walked with a crutch, and the efforts to exercise the limb were attended with great pain, so that he could not sleep. I watched him so attentively, that for 5 months did not have one full night's rest. He had been treated by distinguished medical practitioners, by leeching, blistering, &c., he had also been before the Medical Clinique of Yale College. The remedies they recommended were most faithfully tried, but without avail. The case his disease and dreadful condition 18 months; since which he commenced taking Myers' Rock Rose. One bottle was but partly taken when he was much better, continuing until three bottles had been taken, when a cure was entirely completed, now he is in excellent health. This is the testimony of and can be corroborated by addressing Mrs. Catharine McGill, 61 Wallace st., New Haven, Conn., or can be fully substantiated by hundreds of witnesses, or by addressing a line to Rev. W. W. Baldon, New Haven, Conn.

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or Foreign-Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, of whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell LEA & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the label and wrapper.
