PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6, 1856.

The Sixth Annual Exhibition OF THE Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society,

WILL BE HELD AT

PITTSBURGH,

Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st, 2d and 3d, 1856.

ROBT. G. WALKER, Sec'y.

DISPRESSING CASUALTY.—On Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, an accident of a most shocking nature occurred to a lad named Charles Kimble, aged about ten years, whose parents reside on the corner of Liberty and Hand streets. It seems that a number of boys, among whom was Charles, had been in the habit of watering, at the river, a pony belonging to Felix Laverty, of Smithfield-st. On Sabbath evening, young Kimble started with the horse, and was told by Mr. Laverty to let it roll in a board yard on the bank of the river. While in the yard, a number of boys collected around, and some of them endeavored to take the horse from Charles, and in order to prevent them he wrapped the halter strap tightly round his hand and arm.

Shortly after the pony took fright, probably from the conduct of the boys, and dragged the unfortunate lad at a rapid rate from a point near the Hand street bridge to the corner of Penn and Wayne streets, a distance of several squares. Here the strap became detached from the arm, and the lad was carried into Nichols' tavern, when Dr. Speer was called in to dress his wounds. The body presented a shocking spectacle. The scalp was cut from the centre of the forehead directly back to the nape of the neck; one side of this head was entirely stripped of the skin, and covered with dirt and cinders; on the other side, two severe cuts above the ear, his side, legs and hands were also lacerated and bruised; his lips were swollen and burst open in several places, and he was otherwise badly injured.—While being dressed he exhibited a degree of fortitude truly astonishing in one so young. He uttered no complaint while the doctor sewed up the scalp, but moaned piteously when a sponge was drawn across the naked skull in order to remove the dirt and cinders.

He was then removed to his father's residence, where he was yesterday lying in a very precarious condition.

How he received the cut across the scalp is not known, but it was most probably caused by coming in contact with one of those heavy sharp cornered cinders while being dragged past the rolling mill above the Hand street bridge. His escape from instant death was almost miraculous.

The horse was caught in the lower part of the city, and received no injury.

FREMONT MEETING.—The largest political meeting ever assembled in Chartiers township, convened at the Cumberland Church in Temperanceville, on Friday evening last, for the permanent organization of a Fremont Club. The nomination of the following officers was confirmed:—

President—CHARLES BARNES, Esq.

Vice Presidents—Jos. P. McIntyre, David Robinson, Andrew McCartney, James Colvin.

Secretaries—John Lorraine, Philip Stephens.

Treasurer—N. Ballentine.

Executive Committee—Jno. C. Shafer, Esq., Isaac Heaps, Jas. Richardson, Moses Chess, D. McMillan, N. Ballentine.

Finance Committee—John Smitley, David Robinson and William Perkins, after which a constitution was adopted, and the Club resolved to meet every Saturday evening during the campaign. The meeting was addressed by C. B. M. Smith, Esq., F. Collier, Esq., and Mr. Leech. During Mr. Smith's speech the meeting was interrupted by the arrival of a large delegation from Mansfield, Upper Saint Clair township, with wagons and numerous torch-lights and transparencies of different devices; the delegation was received amid a tremendous cheering and escorted into the house, which was crowded to excess; after a song from the delegation the gentleman concluded his speech. At the conclusion of the speaking a series of resolutions was offered and adopted unanimously. A committee was also appointed to form a Glee Club, and the meeting then adjourned with three cheers for Fremont and Dayton, and the Mansfield Delegation; and three groans for Pierce, Douglas & Co.

FIRE.—On Sunday morning about three o'clock fire was discovered in the spar and steamboat furnishing shop of Mr. G. W. Collin, on Water street, near the Point. The building was but a temporary frame, and being stored with the most inflammable material, was speedily destroyed.—Mr. C.'s loss is not heavy, and we were informed that there was no insurance.

The flames communicated to a one story brick building adjoining, owned by Messrs. Leech, McAlpin & Co., of which nothing was left but the naked walls. It was occupied by Mr. James Charlton, the inventor and manufacturer of an improved corn planter. His loss is about three hundred dollars, on which there was no insurance. Mr. C. is a poor man, and was just about obtaining a patent for his seed planter. His loss will be severely felt.

The Point Forge Works, west of Mr. Charlton, and owned by Mr. J. Bidal, were on fire, and the roof was damaged somewhat—but through the exertions of the fireman, the works were saved. The fire is said to have been the work of an incendiary.

PENNSYLVANIA INSURANCE COMPANY.—The owners of buildings and other property liable to damage by fire and water, are directed to the card of the Pennsylvania Insurance Company, of this city, on the second page of our paper. The corporation is one of the most successful and reliable in the State, and the Directors are men of the highest standing in community. The late severe losses by fire in this city should serve to impress upon property owners the great advantages of the insurance system. By refusing to avail themselves of its benefits, many who to-day are worth thousands of dollars, to-morrow are penniless. A. A. Carrier is the business man of the Company, and can be consulted at the elegant new office, in Jones' building, 63 Fourth street.

ELECTION OF WARD TEACHERS.—The School Directors of the Eighth Ward, last evening, made the following appointment of Teachers for the Ward School for the ensuing year:

Mr. R. H. Kelly, Principal.

Miss Mary J. Proudfoot, Assistant in Grammar Department.

Misses M. J. Palmer and Hughes, Intermediate Department.

Misses C. Sebastier, Mary Garvin and Anna Moffat for the Primary Department

School No. 2—E. H. Spooner, Principal.

Miss A. M. Bratt, Assistant.

Primary Department—Miss M. A. Bratt.

WARM AND COOL.—A day or two since a couple of men named Joseph Bernert and Fred. Roll, of Sharpsburg, got into a fight, during which the former was struck on the head twenty times by the latter, knocked down, and dreadfully abused. He instituted suit before Alderman Parkinson, and Roll was arrested. It seemed that although Bernert was well whipped, he had been the aggressor, and a cross suit was entered. They finally cooled down, agreed each to pay his own costs, and give bonds in $200 to keep the peace for one year.

DUFF'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE.—No labor nor expense is spared in keeping this splendid establishment in its long acknowledged position in advance of all others of the kind in the country. The staff of professors and lecturers, are men of experience and ability, and the whole plan and details of the course of instruction is perfected and matured by sixteen years unremitting application of the Principal. All the business forms of the establishment are sanctioned as the best in use by the most eminent business men of the day.

PATENTS.—In the list of patents for the week ending July 29th, 1856, are the following:

Thos. B. Atterbury and Wm. Warwick, of Pittsburgh, Pa., assignors to Warwick, Atterbury & Co., of same place—for improved face plate for locks.

A. & T. Copeland, of Pittsburgh, Pa.—for improvement in sawing machinery.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.—A man named Jos. O. Brennalli has been arrested and held to bail by Mayor Bingham, charged on oath of Edwin Shaw, opolan, Fifth street, with the larceny of a watch worth one hundred and fifty dollars, and twelve dollars in money, which we mentioned as having been taken from his store a few days ago, while he was absent at dinner.

THE CAMP MEETING AT TARENTUM.—Excursion tickets will be issued on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, for the round trip—fare from the city, sixty cents. The Company will furnish freight cars to carry the tent-loggage, &c. The regular trains will leave at eight o'clock, A. M. and five o'clock, P. M., and an extra train will be run, if found necessary.

PITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE.—The Board of Trustees of this Institution, on Wednesday afternoon, unanimously elected Rev. L. D. Barrows, of Cincinnati, Ohio, President of the Faculty, in the room of Rev. S. L. Yourtee, A. M., resigned. The fall term will commence about the 15th of September.

A BIRD FANCIER.—Some admirer of the canary species stole an excellent singer and cage from the front of Alderman Wilson's office, on Saturday evening. He is requested to return them, and save himself from being caged.

MESSRS. TAMM & ALTON'S loss, by the late fire in Manchester, is estimated at between $5000 and $8000.

SIXTH WARD FREMONT CLUB.—The Fremont men of the Third and Sixth Wards met last night on the vacant lot beside the Good Intent Engine House, to form a Fremont Club. A large crowd was in attendance—calculations varying from 500 to 1000; but it was by far the largest meeting ever held in the Ward. The following officers were chosen:

President—Capt. WM. WARD.

Vice Presidents—James D. Kelley, Wm. B. Scalfe, Wm. M'Candless, Graham Scott, A. W. Foster, jr., R. A. Cunningham, E. H. Meyer, Charles Thumm, F. A. Finance Committee—A Gordon, Dr. A. G. M'Candless, John Harper, W. K. Hart, Henry McGeary.

The meeting was addressed by W. M. Shinn, F. C. Collier, T. Howard, C. S. Eyster, T. J. Bigham, O. H. Rippey, and Dr. Gazzam, and adjourned at a late hour.

LARCENY OF COAL.—Maria Ann Hubbles was yesterday committed to jail by Alderman M'Kenzie, in default of bail, to answer a charge of larceny of a quantity of coal, from Francis O'Reilley.

MEETING.—A special meeting of the Board of Managers of the Pittsburgh Conference Tract Society, will be held in Smithfield street M. E. Church, on Wednesday, 6th inst. at 10 A. M.

JOHN C. SCHAAD, Librarian of the Mercantile Library Association of this city, was a passenger on the ill-fated Empire, at the time of the explosion, but fortunately escaped all harm.
