MR. SUMNER'S SPEECH.—Persons desirous of procuring copies of Mr. Sumner's celebrated speech, "The Crime against Kansas," in pamphlet form, can procure them at this office.

THE WIRE-TAILED GROG QUESTION.—Some three weeks ago the Lancaster Express published some extracts from the Lancasterian of 1852, a democratic paper of that place, reflecting severely upon Mr. Buchanan for his free use of liquor in corrupting the politics of the county. The Lancasterian was then a Cass paper, and was edited by H. S. Myers; it has since been bought up by Mr. Buchanan's friends. Mr. Myers, in a late letter, acknowledges himself the author of the articles re-published by the Express, and insists that the facts alleged were true. We therefore append these extracts as from democratic authority. They were written by a democrat and published in a democratic paper right under Mr. Buchanan's nose; and it is fair to infer that they were true.

In 1852 there was a warm contest in Lancaster county between the Cass democracy and the Buchanan party. The Lancasterian was then the Cass organ, and opposed Mr. Buchanan. The week before the delegate election this organ of democracy—then recognized as such and since bought by Mr. Buchanan's friends and consolidated with the Intelligencer as a democratic organ—published an editorial article from which we quote the following:—

From the Lancasterian, Jan. 7, 1852.

"Not content with keeping open house during the last year, and with ministering to the mere appetites of those whose influence was to be courted; not content with riding the county and condescending to be 'hail fellow well met' with hundreds who on other occasions he would not notice; he (Mr. Buchanan) and his agents are out among you to cajole, to treat, to bargain and to influence by any and every means. In one place ten dollars are left on the tavern bar to treat all who will condescend to suck the bounty. This man is promised an office, * * * and so on through a catalogue of meanness which would be incredible in the case of any one else."

Mr. Buchanan carried a majority of the delegates of the county—how he did so is graphically described in the next issue of the Lancasterian, from which we quote freely.

[From the Lancasterian, Jan. 14, 1852.]

"To the stranger, residing beyond the bounds of Lancaster county, it may appear impossible, it will at least appear incredible, that efforts so degrading alcohol be made, and means so debasing resorted to, by any man who had once occupied any public position of the least character; particularly so, when it is borne in mind that such efforts were made to increase his desperate chances for a nomination for the highest position in the world. For months past, it is notoriously known, Mr. Buchanan converted his residence into a 'confirmed tavern stand,' where all were invited to call and partake of his liquors, the qualities of which he was by no means modest in extolling, free from any other charge save 'the health of Buchanan!' with probably some extraadditional to tickle his vanity, such as 'the future President,' and so forth. * * * * * * *

"We will say, however, without fear of successful denial or contradiction, that men and boys in our midst, who, on former occasions, were never recognized by the Sage, have been caught by the button, courted and caressed, and repeatedly invited to 'walk in,' from whence they never returned quite the same exalted natures, never returned quite the same mental and physical vigor that constitute out so many of their estimable qualities. On the contrary, they were persuaded, by excitations and entreaties, not only to visit the residence of Mr. Buchanan, but when there, to join in Bacchanalian carousals, and continue to indulge in them, until it became absolutely necessary to take them to their residences in conveyances. In this manner was shaped the conduct of our Lancaster county aspirant to the Presidency, and in this manner, night after night, for months past, he sought, by making men drunk, to secure from them, in their drunken moments, pledges to support him.

"Not only was almost every day and night during entire weeks thus desecrated, but even the sacredness of the Sabbath was violated, to the utter disgust of every member of our community. That he has a right to invite persons to his residence even on the Sabbath, and that they have a right to go, we will readily grant; but common decency, we should suppose, would prevent any man, of the least moral character, from getting his 'demijohns filled' whilst on his way to church; and whilst the last words of an impressive sermon are yet fresh upon his mind, from displaying his glasses and his liquors before his invited guests, who towards the close of the day or at late hours of the night, were but to fill a vehicle with drunken men, to be conveyed to their homes. That these things have been repeatedly transacted Sabbath after Sabbath, we deliberately assert and defy honest denial. They are not known to us alone, but they are common topics of conversation among our people. What must have been the condition of the host, we cannot say.

"That means were furnished for purposes of a like character, not one of our citizens has the least doubt. Within our city money has been spent freely, and day after day, we have been treated with the boast that at such a tavern or Spanish-beer house, where persons had assembled to drink, votes were taken for Mr. Buchanan and others, which generally resulted in unanimous declarations in favor of the former. It is not fitting that we should here designate and put upon record all the revolting particulars connected with these transactions. We leave them to be portrayed by the imagination of the reader, well knowing that they cannot be exaggerated. Thus was formed in our midst a band known as the 'Whisky Committee,' whose only business was to dance attendance on the Sage, and unite, by links which must eventually bring nothing but ruin with them, those who fell into the snare to the interest of Mr. Buchanan." * * * * *

—So it would appear, by the Democratic authority above quoted, that the modern debauched democracy, which has now gained the ascendency over the genuine Jeffersonian Democracy, commenced operations at Mr. Buchanan's home in 1852, and the orgies at Cincinnati, so graphically described by Mr. Benton, and which resulted in Mr. Buchanan's nomination, were merely finishing touches to the original programme.

PHILADELPHIA.—Our friends in Philadelphia are doing up their work heartily and well, and are gaining ground rapidly. The Times of Friday contains calls for six Fremont meetings in various parts of the city, on that night. A mass meeting is to be held in Independence Square on Tuesday night next, which will be addressed by several members of Congress, on their way home after the adjournment, and it is expected that it will be an imposing demonstration.

CAMPAIGN LIFE OF FREMONT.—Messrs. Gildemeny & Co., and Miner & Co., have received a supply of the campaign life of Fremont, and persons in want of them can obtain them there.

"THE CHIEF JUSTICE."—Never did a man earn a soubriquet more thoroughly expressive than this, and never did a man deserve it more. It was one of those sententious verdicts of the public will which comprise a world of meaning in a few words. The speech out of which it arose was made in 1840, and it contributed as much as any thing else to the great triumph won in that year over his party. The workingmen of the country understood it perfectly, then, and not only have they not forgotten it, but the memory of it has been handed down to the present generation as a legend of perpetual remembrance among the sons of toil. The following are a few of the paragraphs in which he advocated the reduction of the prices of labor in this country to the low standards of Europe. Let workingmen read:

"In Germany, where the currency is purely metallic, and the cost of every thing is REDUCED to hard money standard, a piece of broadcloth can be manufactured for fifty dollars; the manufacture of which, in our country from the expansion of paper currency would cost one hundred dollars. What is the consequence? The foreign French and German manufacturer imports this cloth into our country and sells it for a hundred. Does not every person perceive that the redundancy of our currency is equal to a premium of one hundred per cent. in favor of the manufacturer.

"No tariff of protection, unless it amounted to prohibition, could counteract these advantages in favor of foreign manufactures. I would to heaven that I could arouse the attention of every manufacturer of the nation to this important subject.

"What is the reason that, with all these advantages and with the protective duties which our laws afford to the domestic manufacturers of cotton, we cannot obtain exclusive possession of the home market, and successfully contend for the markets of the world? It is simply because we manufacture at the nominal prices of our own inflated currency, and are compelled to sell at the real prices of other nations—REDUCE OUR NOMINAL STANDARD OF PRICES TO THAT OF THOSE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD, and you cover our country with blessings and benefits. * * J. HUDDLESON.

"The comparative LOW PRICES of France and Germany have afforded such a stimulus to their manufactures, that they are now rapidly extending themselves, and would obtain possession, in no small degree, even of the English home market, IF IT WERE NOT FOR THEIR PROHIBITORY DUTIES. While British manufactures are now languishing, those of the continent are springing into a healthy and vigorous existence."

We learned, not long since, that during a visit made to this city by Mr. Buchanan subsequent to this speech, he was waited upon by a delegation of work ingmen to know if he had ever advocated the reduction of wages to ten cents a day. This he denied, of course; but he entered into a long explanation of his speech, the amount of which was that the wages of labor ought to be reduced. The delegation heard him patiently, of course, but were not convinced by his logic. Time has since scattered its several members; but one of them is still a resident of this county, and, although a life long democrat, he refuses to support Buchanan, and puts his refusal solely upon the sentiments advanced in that interview. He is now a warm Fremont man, as are the working men of the country generally.

THE PRIMARY ELECTIONS.—Our friends throughout the city and county will not forget that the primary meeting for the election of delegates to the Union County Convention will be held today. In the townships, the meetings will be held between the hours of 8 and 5 P. M., and in the cities and boroughs from 7 to 9, P. M. In this city, the meetings will be held at the following places:

1st Ward—Mrs. Little's corner Ferry and Fourth
2d " Fremont Stand, on the old Oregon lot.
3d " Ald. M'Master's office, Fifth st.
4th " School House.
5th " Freeman's Hall.
6th " School House.
7th " Fremont head quarters, adjoining School House.
8th " School House.
9th " School House.

In Allegheny city and the boroughs at the usual places of holding such meetings.

WATER CURE.—We refer the reader to the advertisement of the Messrs. FRASER, whose popular Hydropathic Institution is situated at Hayville on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad.—This institution is well established, and has given much satisfaction to the large numbers who visit it for the benefit of its treatment.

The Nominations in California.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

The nominations of the Philadelphia and Cincinnati Conventions, received but a few days since, seem to give unbounded satisfaction to both parties. The Democrats were and are for Buchanan, but they do not like and can hardly struggle against the rejection of the Pacific Railroad plank from their platform. This, taken in connection with his public assertion that he is no longer James Buchanan, but the nominee of his party, whose platform he can neither add to nor take from, fell like a ballstorm from a clear sky on their otherwise buoyant spirits. If there be one thing more than another which every true Californian desires, it is the commencement and speedy construction of that road. It is engrafted on their political record, and cannot be rooted out. No sophistry or party names, nor party pressure can force them to forget it. Yet the politicians are at work trying to befog and explain away the course of the Democratic Convention upon it. And they may and will to a certain extent be successful. But the working men, who have opinions of their own and dare assert them, and who think more of the welfare of California and of the nation than of the extension of Slavery, cannot be led off to the support of the Democratic nomination.

In gloriously refreshing contrast to the action of the Democrats in this subject do we turn to that of the Republicans. Without hesitation or equivocation, and with a warmth and cordiality which inspires enthusiasm, did that body, with entire unanimity, indorse the Pacific Railroad. Nor is its nominee inkwarm upon the subject. From a free intercourse with Col. Fremont in years gone by, while residing in this State, as well as while he was one of its Senators, and since do I know him to be earnestly devoted to this great measure. His interests, too, are here, and no man would be more benefited than he by its completion; hence all things tended to bind him to the enterprise. The Republicans, therefore, and, indeed, all the solid men of the State—farmers, the value of whose lands would be enhanced—merchants, whose business would be extended—holders of city property, whose wealth would be doubled—proprietors of stages and inland steamboats, upon whose lines travel would be increased—miners, who at a small expense of time could every week visit their early homes and renew old associations—mechanics, for the products of whose labor and skill demand would be stimulated by the construction of this intercoeanic communication uniting the East and the West, and grasping with its Briarean arms a continent and a world—gladly welcome the platform and the nominee of the Philadelphia Convention.

The Know Nothings are in statu quo. It expected the two next steamers from the East will bring us the news that the organization in the Atlantic States has fizzled out, or is doing so with all becoming haste; in which case the Councils here will be closed, and the members thereof will enroll themselves under the banner of Fremont or Buchanan, according as they are for the Pacific Railroad or against it, or for or against the extension of Slavery.

In a fair field, with the State properly canvassed, and the campaign made spirited, there is strong hope of carrying it for Fremont. The greatest of an old party organization, official influence and an unscrupulous press are against the Republicans. These have to be fought against, but the battle is not always to the strong David, having "God and my right" on his side, may be able to slay the besotted Goliah of Corruption.

The Republican State Central Committee met in this city yesterday and agreed on a call for a Republican State Convention to be holden here on the 27th day of August next. The Republicans of this city have determined to establish a morning journal to advocate their cause. The first number will be issued in about ten days.—The Republicans of San Francisco held a public meeting last evening, but I have not heard what was done thereat.

It is a significant fact that all the law and order or anti-Vigilance papers, The San Francisco Herald included, have hoisted the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention. Even The Globe, (Dem.) which whilom was among the most rabid Vigilant organs, has turned with all its venom upon the Committee. All the other journals have less or more to say against the Democratic platform, and particularly because it does not countenance the Pacific Railroad question.

In this city, San Francisco, Marysville and Coloma, the Democracy have tried to hold meetings to ratify Buchanan's nomination. Here the meeting was a great failure. The people did not turn out. None but a few bar-room politicians attended. The speakers were all professional politicians, and as it happened, would like to be candidates for Congress. At San Francisco and Marysville, about the same; and at Coloma, but eight men attended, and no meeting was held. The Railroad and Vigilance questions are at the bottom of all this, and may yet strangle that party.

FILLMORE AND BUCHANAN.—Every day gives evidence of the union and sympathy which exists between the leaders of the Fillmore and Buchanan parties. The Fillmore organs in New York and Philadelphia spend their time and strength in traducing and slandering Fremont and the Republican party, while the Post in Pittsburgh, and the Pennsylvanian in Philadelphia, kindly pat the Fillmore men on the back, publish their notices, and make loving appeals to them. Does not all this show that the real contest is between Buchanan and Fremont, or rather between Slavery and Freedom, and that the Fillmore leaders are understood to sympathize with the slave extension party. The following appeal of the Harrisburg Telegraph, speaks the unvarnished truth, and should be soberly considered by every voter who is opposed to the extension of slavery, and the establishment of the dominancy of the slave power in our political affairs:

"Freeman of Pennsylvania! we appeal to you in this perilous emergency. There is but one way to avert the threatened calamity, and that is by the election of John C. Fremont. Mr. Fillmore is utterly out of the question. His presence in the canvass can only serve to aid the enemy. Every vote cast for him, within the limits of this Commonwealth, will assist in the election of Mr. Buchanan. Are the masses of the people prepared for this result? We do not believe it. Certain self-constituted leaders are seeking to beguile you into the belief that there is a chance of Mr. Fillmore's election. We tell you that the sole object of these men is the defeat of the People's Candidate, and this they are determined to accomplish at all hazards. The probabilities now are that Fillmore will not receive a single electoral vote, as even the South, upon which his friends relied, is deserting him. Fremont will sweep nearly all the Free States, and Pennsylvania must decide the contest. Her electoral vote will be given either to Fremont or Buchanan. Which shall it be? This question you have full power to decide, and in your hands we leave it

LANCASTER.—A letter from Lancaster in the Philadelphia Times says that the news of the Southern elections has brought over nearly all the Fillmore men of the county to Fremont. It says:

"Fremont and Dayton Clubs are rapidly forming all over the county, and in two weeks the organization will be complete. We hear the most cheering intelligence from all the rural districts. Many of them will run up the majority far above that given for Pollock in 1854, and in some township one-third of the Democratic vote will be cast for Fremont. A series of mass meetings, to cover the county, are being arranged, which will be addressed by eminent speakers as soon as Congress adjourns. Dr. Elder of your city, has also been invited to canvass the county, and his acceptance will be hailed with delight in every section.

Thus far the Buchanan meetings attempted in the county have been grand fizzles, and distinguished chiefly by a total absence of enthusiasm. His friends, who understand the range of politics in the county, are very much discouraged. And well they may be, for an inglorious defeat in his own county most surely awaits him."

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY.—Hon. David Wilmot addressed about 1,000 citizens of Susquehanna county, at Susquehanna Depot, on the 8th inst. He spoke nearly three hours, with surpassing power and eloquence. At the first mention of the name of FREMONT, the audience rose to their feet with a wild hurrah. Susquehanna county is put down at 1600 majority for Fremont over Buchanan.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Good Comparison.—The Rev. William Reulatt, a well known Methodist clergyman, residing at Napoe, draws the following amusing but apt comparison between Dr. McLane's celebrated Vermifuges, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and a ferret:

"A ferret, when placed at the entrance of a rat hole, enters the aperture, travels along the passage, seizes upon the rats, exterminates them, and drives from the premises all the animals deemed carcass to the light. And in like manner do Dr. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge operate upon worms, those dreadful and dangerous tormentors of the human species. Scarcely has the first dose been taken, before the work of destruction commences. The powerful energies of the vermifuge, travels down the gullet, hunts round the stomach, lays hold of the worms, shakes the life out of the reptiles, carries off the dead, and expels them by the easiest clear out of the system. This, at least, has been the effect of Dr. McLane's Vermifuge upon my children."

A neighbor of Mr. Reulatt, Mr. John Briggs, adopts the simile of the reverend scribe, thus both giving their testimony to the general approval of this great specific, after having witnessed its operation upon their own children. Let others try it and be satisfied.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS. au16:d&w6t

Frostwort or Rock Rose.—For the cure of Scrofulous Diseases.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1, 1852.

My son Charles has been afflicted with inflammation of the hip joint. At the age of 5 he was first attacked; inflammation increased until the hip was very diseased, and the joint seriously affected his leg, drawing it up so that it was impossible to straighten it; a professor of surgery gave it as his decided opinion that the leg would never heal, and that the young man would never walk again.—The disease increased so rapidly that for two and a half years he only walked with a crutch, and his efforts to exercise the limb were attended with great pain, so that he could not sleep. I watched him so attentively, that for 5 months, did not have one full night's rest. He had been treated by distinguished medical practitioners, by leeching, blistering, &c., he had also been before the Medical Clinique of Yale College. The remedies they recommended were most faithfully tried, but without avail. The's was his disease and dreadful condition 18 months; since when he has commenced taking Wyeth's Rock Rose. One bottle was but partly taken when he was much better, continuing until three bottles had been taken, when a cure was entirely completed, now he is in excellent health. This is the testimony of and can be corroborated by addressing Mrs. Catharine Ingalls, 91 Wallace st., New Haven, Conn., or can be fully substantiated by hundreds of witnesses, or by addressing a line to Rev. W. W. Baldwin, New Haven, Conn.

Hoofland's German Bitters—Certificate of RALPH LUTZ, Esq., Editor "Spirit of Times," Ironton Ohio:

IRONTON, Oct. 30, 1854.

Dr. O. M. Jackson—Dear Sir—The Bitters are in great demand here. In addition to the quantity sold by Dailey & Barber, your agents, the two other stores sell more of them than any other medicine. I find they are much used for the debilitated fever patients to rebuild their broken constitutions. I have used during the last summer, three or four bottles. They were recommended to me first by a neighbor, at a time when my system was much debilitated from the effects of a severe Bilious Fever. They gave me an appetite, and restored my tone and vigor to the whole system. I am one of the Sept. numbers of my paper I published my experience of the good effects of the Bitters, since which time they have had a large sale, and have now become the standard medicine in this vicinity—in conclusion, I would say to all I feel great pleasure in giving you this testimony of the value and success of your preparation. Respectfully, yours,

RALPH LUTZ.

Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittsburgh Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than 3 years part we have constantly worn the Washington Suspender Brace, manufactured by Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood st., in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all who are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked, in calling attention to its merits, it answers for a brace and suspender, the weight of the pantaloons being so placed as to constantly tend to bring the shoulders to their natural position and expand the chest. Women, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of enormous "skirts," should also procure these braces. Be particular in procuring the kind mentioned, as many of the braces sold are humbug. Sold at Dr. GEO. H. KEYSER'S, Wholesale Druggist, 140 Wood st., sign of the Golden Mortar.
