A Vitalizing Element!

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

A PHYSICIAN of high standing, and formerly a Professor in one of the Medical Institutions of this country, now retired from active practice, who has been suffering from Pulmonary Disease, discovered, while traveling in South America, a certain cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and General Debility; and being aware that thousands are suffering and dying annually from this most dreadful of all diseases, he is desirous, from the principles of humanity, of making known this most valuable Remedy. Upon receipt of fifteen Cents, in Postage Stamps, or Change, he will send a Recipe, with full directions for making and successfully using it.

The amount required is applied for postage, and the payment of this advertisement only. Address

The Adams Express Company,

Pittsburgh, Rochester and New Brighton Express.

FOR the especial accommodation of the large population along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburgh and New Brighton, whose intimate business and social relations require such an Agency. The Adams Express Company has made such arrangement with the Railroad as to enable them to put a trusty Messenger on the Accommodation Train, who will take charge of all property and business entrusted to him. The Messenger will have an iron safe in the Baggage Car, for the deposit and safe keeping of Valuables, Jewelry and other valuables. He will leave New Brighton at 7 o'clock A. M. and return, remain in Pittsburgh, and dispose of any City during the day to attend to such commissions as may be entrusted to him, and return by the Evening Train, with his Goods and Commissions executed. It will be his duty to receive on his up trip all parcels, packages, orders, money, &c., which may be delivered to the proper party soon after the arrival of the train at the Allegheny City Depot. He will also receive writings, or verbal items as to be delivered in the city—communicate intelligence—obtain information, and return—purchase Tickets, goods, and return them—make purchases, large or small, on a commission of one per cent. All goods, &c., will be delivered or called for in the two cities, within reasonable distance, without extra charge, but to insure such delivery, the directions on packages, especially for private houses, should be explicit.

At Way Stations, all matter will be left with the Station Agent of the Railroad Company, when the proper party is not at the Station on the arrival of the Train, to receive his goods.

The charges for carrying packages, &c. and for services rendered by the Messenger, are intended to be as moderate as reasonable limits. Where the nature of the business is such as to demand a more extended agency will be given.

As the Messenger is required to settle his bills and business daily with the Company, and to pay in full, the patrons of the line will please to see that he has with him next morning all that is to be paid to them, as he has no discretion in the matter.

HENRY WELLS has been appointed Messenger, and will commence his duties on Monday, Dec. 24, 1855.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a State of this Union, with her present free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil strife now raging in her territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that might makes right, embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and dishonor upon any government or people that gave it their sanction.

Resolved, That a railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the whole country, and that the Federal Government ought to render immediate and sufficient aid to the construction, and as an auxiliary thereto, to the immediate construction of an emigrant road on the line of the railroad.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors of a national character required for the accommodation and security of an existing commerce, are clearly authorized by the Constitution, and justified by the obligations of government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and cooperation of men of all parties, however differing from us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared, and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the Constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

The Republican Platform.

ADOPTED BY THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION,

JUNE 17TH, 1856.

THE Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call to the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—to the policy of the present administration—to the extension of slavery into free territory; in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State—of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do—

Resolve, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, are essential to the preservation of our Republican Institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the rights of the States, and the union of the States, must and shall be preserved.

Resolved, That, with our Republican fathers, we hold it to be a self-evident truth that all men are endowed with the inalienable right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and that the primary object and ulterior design of our Federal Government is to grant these rights to all persons under its exclusive jurisdiction. That, as our Republican fathers, when they had abolished slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the Constitution (against all attempts to violate it for the purpose of establishing slavery in the territories of the United States), by positive legislation prohibiting its existence or extension therein. That we deny the authority of Congress, of a territorial legislature, of any individual or association of individuals, to give legal existence to slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present Constitution shall be maintained,

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power it is both the right and the imperative duty of Congress to prohibit in the territories those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and slavery.

Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States was ordained and established by the people in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty," and contains ample provisions for the protection of the life, liberty, and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them.

Their territory has been invaded by an armed force;

Spurious and pretended legislative, judicial, and executive officers have been set over them, by whose usurped authority, sustained by the military power of the government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced;

"The right of the people to keep and bear arms has been infringed;"

"Test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding office;"

"The right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury has been denied;"

"The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, has been violated;

"They have been deprived of life, liberty, and property, without due process of law;"

"The freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged;"

The right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect;

Murders, robberies, and arsons have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished;

That all these things are in full been done with the knowledge, sanction, and procurement of the present national administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union, and humanity, we arraign that administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists, and accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages, and their accomplices, to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a State of this Union, with her present free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil strife now raging in her territ
