WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS!—The Buchanier speakers and presses continually harp upon the dangers of disunion, if Fremont is elected. On what grounds do they base their assertions? Is Fremont in favor of disunion? By no means. Not a single syllable from a Fremont platform or newspaper; nat a word from a Fremont speaker can be tortured into favoring disunion. Where is the danger then? Why simply here. The friends of Buchanan, in the South, declare they will dissolve the Union of Fremont is elected, and the Buchaniers in this section, knowing the opinions of their Southern friends, raise the cry of disunion, but they have not the fairness to tell who the disunionists are. If Buchanan is elected every Republican will submit, as in duty bound, to the constituted authorities. They are law abiding and faithful to the constitution.—All the threats of disunion come from the friends of Buchanan. The Richmond Enquirer, of Aug. 29th, speaking of Republicanism, says:

"There is, there can be, no peace, no lasting union between the South and the Black Republicanism. Either that political heresy must be effectually and forever put down, or disunion is inevitable. * * We do not believe that any portion of the South will submit to his administration. We are sure that large portions will not. Disunion then, in case of his election, is inevitable. * * It is not too late for treason and Fremont to retreat, nor for the friends of Union to lash them from the field, if we will but combine. But let no one indulge the fatal delusion that Fremont may be elected and yet the Union preserved. There is not one single possibility of such result."

Here treason and disunion stands forth, in all their horrible enormity, in this leading Buchanan sheet. When Hon. Mr. Dawson and Samuel Black and other Buchanier speakers threaten disunion, ask them from whence the danger of disunion comes. Ask them if they intend to join with their southern friends and promote disunion, if Fremont is elected. Will they help to put down their treasonable southern brethren, if they attempt to resist Fremont's legal government? It is time these men were smoked out. They have talked about disunion long enough. Let us know what they mean. Let us see whether they are true to the Union. When they charge the friends of Fremont with being disunionists, they utter a brazen falsehood. It is not the friends of Fremont, but the friends of Buchanan who are the disunionists.

☞ Some few of the Buchaniers are so lost to shame and decency as to deny that the election of Buchanan will promote the cause of slavery, and slavery extension. The Richmond Enquirer has the honesty to tell the truth, which these northern Doughfaces will not do. That of a late date says:

The election of Mr. Buchanan may, and probably will, originate a re-action in public opinion that will encourage the extension of the conservative institutions of Slavery. * * * * * * * * The election of Mr. Buchanan would be a reactionary movement in favor of Slavery and conservatism. The election of Fremont, certain and immediate disunion.

The election of Buchanan "will encourage the extension of slavery"—will be a "reactionary movement in favor of slavery!" "The election of Fremont certain disunion!" This is the issue as set forth by the highest Southern Buchanan authority. To put it in plainer words, it is Slavery Extension or Disunion. Are the people of the North disposed to yield to such a threat? Will they give all the territories of the country to slavery, leaving none to the free white laborer, at the threat of disunion, uttered eby the Buchanan men of the South? We think not. The people of the North are not dastards and will not yield up their constitutional rights at any threat whatever. If Fremont is elected we will see who will try to dissolve the Union.

CALIFORNIA—CHEERING NEWS.—A friend of Fremont in this city received by the last mail a letter from California, written by a Virginian and an avowed Buchanan man, from which we are permitted to make the following extracts:

"The failure of the Buchanan men to insert the railroad plank in their plat form will lose this State for them, and be your gain. It is the all-important question, here, all others—nigger and all—being literally as nothing compared with the road question to this State. Whigs, Southerners and Democrats are splitting on this point.

* * * *

Father, uncle and all of us, except myself, will go in for Fremont strong, and on Southerners and old-line Whigs it has its effect."

The whole family here spoken of are Virginians and Democrats; and we are assured that this instance is a fair indication of political affairs throughout the State.

Col. E. D. Baker, who is said to be the best stumper and most popular man in California, and who at first committed himself to Buchanan, has since given in his adhesion to Fremont, and will contribute all he can to his success. The signs in California are all of the most cheering character.

BRAVE AND TRUE REPUBLICANS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer, speaking of the last struggle of the Republicans in the House, to relieve Kansas from the illegal and tyrannical territorial laws, pays the following tribute to two noble and brave hearted Republicans:

"I cannot but commend the conscientious devotion to duty shown by Mr. Brenton, of Iowa, who had to be helped within the bar, and thence took to a sofa at an open window, in the arms of Wright, as each vote was taken, and Mr. Purviance of Penn's., who came up to the House at the risk of his life, and remained till the last vote was announced."

"AT ITS LAST GASP."—This is what the Louisville Journal says of the Buchanier party, to wit:

"The Cincinnati platform party is evidently in its death-struggle. Week after week, day after day, and hour after hour, it has seen its "fondest hopes decay," until it is already reduced to a state of almost utter hopelessness and helplessness. A few weeks ago, the managers of the party machinery of this sham Democracy held a caucus at Washington and rested all their hopes of success on Pennsylvania, although they then acknowledged that it would take ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS of their electioneering fund to save it to the squatter sovereignty candidate. They have since discovered that all the money in the treasury will not be sufficient to help them in this hour of their great distress. They have no principles worth fighting for. The people have repudiated their platform and rejected their candidate, and they hoped to be able to buy enough votes to elect the old Lancaster Federalist, or at least to throw the election into the House of Representatives, where his well known aptness at bargain and intrigue might be once more brought into play. They impudently propose to BUY the votes of the independent people of this country with the people's own money, the public treasure. Even this won't save them from disastrous defeat. A highly respectable gentleman of this city, just returned from Washington, informs us that he was told by some of the leading Democrats in Washington that THEY HAD ABANDONED ALL HOPE OF SUCCESS IN NEW YORK AND EVEN IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND HAD NO EXPECTATION OF BEING ABLE TO CARRY A SINGLE NORTHERN STATE, unless John C. Breckinridge, their candidate for Vice Presidency, could save Indiana or Illinois by making stump speeches throughout these States.

Accordingly we find Maj. Breckinridge accepting invitations to address mass meetings in Indiana and Illinois. What a melancholy spectacle! A party reduced to the pitch of degradation and despair! It is unparalleled in the annals of our political history! A candidate for the Vice Presidency, the second highest office in the gift of a great nation, compelled to take the stump to last resort in the death struggle of his party! This last resort will be unavailing. This simple fact of itself will be sufficient to make honest people everywhere forget the persuasive eloquence and ingenious arguments of the Sag Nicht candidate for the Vice Presidency in their step Jehpart for the degradation to which a candidate for the Vice Presidency has thus been subjected by his party.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS IN OHIO.—The Republican nominations for Congress in Ohio are now complete. All the present Congressmen have been renominated except BALL, MOORE and HARRISON. These three men, it will be remembered, all exhibited great want of backbone, and will therefore be left at home in the next Congress.

The nominations since the declination of MR. DAY, stands as follows:

1st District—Alphonso Taft;
2d—Jno. A. Gurley, of Cincinnati;
3d—Lewis D. Campbell, of Hamilton, Butler county;
4th—Matthias H. Nichols, of Lima, Allen, co;

6th—Jonas B. Emrie, of Hillsborough, Highland county;

10th—Ripley C. Hoffman, of Jackson, Jackson county;
11th—Valentine B. Horton, of Pomeroy, Meigs county;
12th—Samuel Galloway, of Columbus;

19—Edward Wade, of Cleveland;

21st—John A. Bingham, of Cadiz, Harrison co.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION OFFERED TO FREMONT.—At a meeting in Detroit, lately held, Hon. George Bates, of California, made the following statement, to which we call the particular attention of Republicans and Democrats:

When he (Mr. Bates) was expecting to sail for California in August, 1855, he was persuaded by Mr. Palmer, of the firm of Palmer, Cook & Co., bankers of San Francisco, to remain until October, when he and Col. L. Fremont would accompany him thither. Mr. Bates postponed his departure as desired. But when the time of departure arrived, Col. Fremont, although his trunks were packed, did not go, but ordered his baggage to the Metropolitan Hotel instead. This was in consequence of the following letter. Gov. Floyd of Virginia had just arrived in New York city for the special purpose of having an interview with Col. Fremont, and the result of that interview was an offer made to Col. Fremont, by Governor Floyd, in behalf of the Democratic party, he having advised with its leading men in North and South, of the nomination for the Presidency. He said that party wanted a new man—a man of integrity and well won distinction outside of politics.

Col. Fremont, after listening patiently, and even submitting to two separate interviews, and knowing the platform that was expected to stand upon, replied: that while deeply sensible of the high distinction of the proposition made him, and flattered by the promises it extended, yet with his opinion of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise it would be impossible for him to entertain the proposition. He considered the repeal an infamous breach of plighted faith, and should never desist denouncing the act and its authors. Col. Fremont planted himself impregnably on this position. Mr. Palmer being cognisant of these facts, communicated them forthwith to Hon. N. P. Banks and Hon. Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts, and they came and saw Col. Fremont, and to state in brief the result of that interview, he consented to lead the hosts of freedom in this campaign if the people should call him to that position. All this happened late in September, 1855, if we correctly recall Mr. Bates' statement. Half and this is given, time, names and places, and vouches for the entire accuracy of the above statement; and although it did not come to him with the injunction of secrecy, he stated he would not have revealed it had the facts not already been partly disclosed in last Saturday's N. Y. Herald. Any statement made by Mr. Bates commands implicit reliance in this community, where he has been known for years, and is universally respected.

BUCHANAN AND FILLMORE FUSION.—The facts concerning the project grow fast. The Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday says:

"The evidence of the fusion between Buchanan and Fillmore wings of the pro-slavery party, are multiplying every day. The Fillmore men held a meeting at Dayton last week, which was presided over by a gentleman who occupied a conspicuous place on the platform when Chas. Anderson, of this city, addressed the Buchanan Club of Dayton a week or two after the adjournment of the Cincinnati Convention. Among the signers of the call for the Fillmore meeting were the names of several persons who had united in inviting Mr. Anderson to make a Buchanan speech. The Postmaster, and we learn a prominent Buchanan fugleman of Dayton, attended the Fillmore demonstration, and were particularly bolsterous when the speakers said anything in disparagement of Colonel Fremont. The game in fact became so transparent, that several Fillmore men determined not to be used for the purpose of electing Buchanan, and will vote for Fremont.

As evidence of the deep sympathy existing between the Buchanan and Fillmore men here, we can state, upon good authority, that one of the prominent Buchanan politicians of this city contributed one hundred dollars towards defraying the expenses of the Fillmore demonstration last week. Similar contributions were undoubtedly made by other politicians of the same stripe."

We learn that the Buchanan State Central Committee of this State has subscribed for large numbers of the Philadelphia News, the Fillmore organ, for circulation in the West.

The N. Y. Tribune of Wednesday says:

"We have trustworthy advices from a consultation held at Elmira last week between some leading managers of the Buchanan and Fillmore parties respectively, in which it was agreed that all the disposable Fillmore vote of Pennsylvania should be thrown for Buchanan on condition that the movable Buchanan vote of this State should in like manner be concentrated on Fillmore. We have never doubted that such an arrangement would be made before the election, but we give the contrivers notice that it cannot win. It will only precipitate and intensify the general stampede of both Americans and Democrats to the standard of Fremont and Freedom. We beg the managers to remember that the Telegraph is in existence, and that their maneuvers will be closely watched and promptly reported. The people like a fair stand up contest, and they who undertake the game of "truck and dicker" will find it a losing one. Wait and see!"

The Bedford, (Pa.) Inquirer, says that during the late visit of JAMES BUCHANAN to that place, he called upon the Catholic priest and held a long interview with him. The Protestant preachers of the place, however, were not deemed worthy of a visit from him, and he failed to give either of them a call.

PATRIOTISM.—Gen. HOUSTON, in an eloquent speech, made in the Senate, last week, gave utterance to this truly patriotic sentiment:

"They tell me," said the brave old man, "if Fremont is elected, forty thousand bayonets will bristle about the Capitol—that the South, in fact, will secede. Mr. President, I scorn the suggestion! There will be neither bristling bayonets nor secession. If Col. Fremont shall be elected by a majority of the people, though I am not his supporter, I shall respect the majority of the people, and to Colonel Fremont, as the Chief Magistrate of their choice, I shall pay my respectful homage."

It is downright treason for any class of men, North or South, to intimate that in the event of the election of a candidate to whom they are politically opposed, they will take the ground of hostile resistance. The voice of the people, deliberately expressed through the ballot box, must and will be respected by good, law-abiding citizens, whatever part of the country they inhabit. If Mr. BUCHANAN shall be called to the Presidential chair, it will be by the voice of the people. That voice, by the citizens of the free States, will be respected. If Col. Fremont is called to this high office, it will also be by the voice of the people, and that voice will be respected by the citizens of the Slave States, with the exception of a small, insignificant band of conspirators and disunionists.

GLORIOUS VERMONT! THE STAR THAT NEVER SETS!—On Tuesday last the glorious little State of Vermont gave a piercing "shriek for Freedom." Byland Fletcher for Governor, with all the Republican State Ticket, Justin S. Morrill, Ezekiel P. Walton and Homer E. Royce for Congress, and a Legislature ten to one Republican in both branches, have been elected by an aggregate majority of at least 20,000. Never before was so clean a sweep made, so large a majority given, at any State Election there. The North Star is still the steady beacon light that points the oppressed to Freedom.

We understand that William T. Porter, Esq., for twenty-five years the editor of the New York Spirit of the Times, intends, during the first week in September, to commence the publication of a weekly journal bearing the above title. It will be of the same size and character of the old paper, and he has the assurance it will be contributed too by that brilliant circle of correspondents and writers who have so long given to the "Spirit" its distinguished position among the literary journals of America. We wish Mr. Porter a wide list of good paying subscribers, and all manner of good luck.

The Onondago (N. Y.) Standard, heretofore supporting Buchanan, and one of the most influential sheets in the State, has come out for Fremont. It is the long-established and widely-circulating organ of the Democracy in the large and rich county of Onondaga. Its editor, PATRICK H. AGAN, was a State candidate on the "Soft" democratic ticket last fall. The accession is an important one, and shows how futile the attempt at fusion will be between the Fillmore and Buchanan men.

THIRD WARD RALLY.—The friends of Fremont must not forget the meeting in the Third Ward, Pittsburgh, to-night, at the corner of Seventh and Grant, when addresses by eminent speakers, in English and German, may be expected. We hope to see a large audience on this occasion.

LT. GOV. ROBERTS, of KANSAS, arrived in town last night, and is stopping at the Monongahela House. He will, we understand, address the meeting to-night in the Third Ward, Pittsburgh.

FIZZLE AT ERIE.—The great Mass Convention which was to take place at Erie on Wednesday week turned out a perfect fizzle. None of the "distinguished speakers" were present, and the affair indicated a total want of enthusiasm.

A Boston correspondent of the Anti-Slavery Standard says "it is useless to deny that the Garrisonian Abolitionists are all going to vote for Buchanan for President, next November."

MARRIED—On Wednesday, the 3d inst., by the Rev. E. M. Van Deusen, AUSTIN LOOMIS to ELLIE, daughter of Mr. Matthew Hodkinson, all of this city.

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 2d, by the Rev. C. P. Krauth, Mr. SAMUEL CARR and Miss. HANNAH WARD.

DIED—August 4th, of Typhoid Fever, in Baltimore, Md., formerly of Allegheny City, Pa., Mrs. HALENA ROCKABAUGH, (formerly Helena Green.)

HUNTSVILLE, TENN., April 9, 1855.—"Having sold Hoofland's German Bitters for two years past, in this community, and having witnessed their effects upon weak and debilitated constitutions, and those much troubled with Torpid Liver, I have no hesitancy in saying they are the best thing such people should use."

Frostwort or Rock Rose.—For the cure of scrofulous Diseases.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1, 1853.

My son Charles has been afflicted with inflamm' on of the hip joint. At the age of 5 he was first attacked in the inflammation increased until the leg was very diseased, and the joint seriously affected his leg. He tried it, so that it was impossible to straighten it; a professor of surgery gave it as his decided opinion that the leg would never heal, and that the young man would never walk again.—The disease increased so rapidly that for two and a half years he only walked with a crutch, and his efforts to exercise the limb were attended with great pain, so that he could not sleep. I watched him so closely, that for 6 months, did not have one full night's rest. He had been treated by distinguished medical practitioners, by leeching, blistering, &c., he had also been before the Medical Clinique of Yale College. The remedies they recommended were most faithfully tried, but without avail. The was his disease and dreadful condition 18 months; since when he commenced taking Myers' Rock Rose. One bottle was but partly taken when he was much better, continuing until three bottles had been taken, when a cure was entirely completed, now he is in excellent health. This is the testimony of and can be corroborated by addressing Mrs. Catharine McGill, 91 Wallace st., New Haven, Conn., or can be fully substantiated by hundreds of witnesses, or by addressing a line to Rev. W. W. Belden, New Haven, Conn.

Truth is mighty and must prevail.—

Helmbold's Highly concentrated Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla, one bottle of which equals in strength one gallon Syrup Sarsaparilla. The Extract of Sarsaparilla is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the public. The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, for their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the First Sauce in the World.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its natural use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS that: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; poor Spain is stomachless, and I think medical men with truth say there is nothing in a traveler's baggage so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, as medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.
