The Adams Express Company,
Pittsburgh, Rochester and New Brighton Express.

FOR the especial accommodation of the wire pavilion along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburgh and New Brighton, whose business and residence will require such accommodation, the Adams Express Company have made such arrangement with the Railroad as to enable them to put a trusty Messenger on the Accommodation Train, who will take charge of all property and business property entrusted to him. The Messenger will have an iron safe in the Baggage Car, for the deposit and be ter security of Money, Jewelry and other valuables. Packages left at the office by the Morning Train, remain in Pittsburgh and Allegheny City during the day to attend to such commissions as may be entrusted to him; and return by the Evening Train, with his Goods and Commissions executed. It will be his duty to receive on his up trip all parcels, packages, orders, money, &c., which will be delivered to the proper party soon after the arrival of the train at the Allegheny depot. He will also receive written or verbal messages to be delivered in the city—obtain intelligence, and obtain information, and return replies—order goods, and execute commissions of any kind, from a pen knife to a piece of pins to a steam engine. All goods, &c., will be delivered or called for in the two cities, within reasonable distance, without extra charge, but to insure such delivery, the directions on packages, especially for private houses, should be explicit.

As Way Stations, all matter will be left with the Station Agent of the Railroad Company, when the proper person is not at the Station on the arrival of the Train, to receive his goods.

The charges for carrying packages, &c., and for services rendered by the Messenger, are intended to be within reasonable limits. When the nature of the business is such as to admit of it special agreements will be made.

As the Messenger is required to settle his bills and business daily with his Principals, the Company and its patrons of the line will please not ask him to wait his next trip for his pay, as he has no discretion in the matter.

HENRY R. IRWIN has been appointed Messenger, and will commence his duties on Monday, Dec. 24, 1855.

LEATHER BELTING,
From the Manufactory of Hoit & Brothers, Lynn, Mass.

TO the Belting of this manufacture has been awarded the Gold Medal and Diplomas from almost every State and Institute throughout the Union, the highest premium awarded by the American Institute, New York, and their unvarying testimony is to the Fact of its superior quality, every branch of the business being conducted under the personal care of the principals; their hides are selected by themselves—they are tanned in vats, insuring freedom from cold and sorrow, tanned at their own factory, and not sent out to be finished, as is the practice of most, returned to New York thoroughly tanned, there finished, stretched, and prepared immediately, wet and dry stretched on machines with every modern improvement and invention, and by a peculiar process, patent copper rivets, burrs which make a perfectly even surface on both sides of the belt, enabling them to run close to pulleys, and giving a power of more than 20 per cent. over those with the old fashioned rivets. In addition to the above, to cotton and woolen manufacturers, oil cloth manufacturers, sawing and planing establishments, owners of grist mills, and in fact, every branch in which belting is in use, every consumer, this Belting is specially recommended, the best of city references given to the quality of this Belting.
