PITTSBURGH:
FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 19, 1856.

EXHIBITION.—The Sixth Annual Exhibition OF THE Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society, WILL BE HELD AT PITTSBURGH, Sept. 30th and Oct. 1st, 2d and 3d, 1856
s23td14 ROBT. C. WALKER, Sec'y

THE PITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE.—This institution was opened yesterday morning with impressive ceremonies, and addresses were delivered by Revs. Cookman, Barrows, and other gentlemen. The Board can take credit to themselves for the completeness of the building and of all the other arrangements, they being on the most extensive order, and the college ranks with the first in the Union.

We strolled through the building, the other day, and were agreeably disappointed in its extent and finish. The appearance of the building outside does not give an idea of its accommodations.

The building is one hundred and ten feet in length on Hancock-st. We have been furnished with the following description of the interior:

The eave cornice of the College Building is supported by corbels, forming a series of cusped arches. The main door of the College is of polished stone, with moulded and fluted jams, surmounted by sunk gothic panel work and transverse moulding. On the second story above the front door, is a large triplet window with open hood moulding and ornamented corbels and finial.

The College Building is entered by front door through vestibule, into a hall 11 feet wide, running through the centre of the Building.—This hall and the one in the Dwelling are connected by a corridor 7 feet wide, having two rooms 15 by 15, on each side. The chapel has two doors from hall. This room is 38 by 31 in the clear, with ceiling 15 feet high, and an apparatus room which is connected with chapel by sliding doors.

Passing through the corridor, or from a front door way on Hancock street, we enter the Dwelling. Turning to the right we open into the parlor, which fronts on Hancock street. This room is 20 by 25, with ceiling 15 feet high; to the left we enter the dining room, which is 20 by 30.—This room connects with the kitchen by a hall 5 feet wide. The kitchen is separated from the dining room by a large pantry. From the kitchen we pass into the scullery, which is 14 by 16.—Returning to the main hall of the College Building, we ascend by a large platform stairway to the hall of the second floor, which is 11 feet wide. This floor to the right of the hall is divided into two school rooms, of nineteen by 31 each, fourteen feet ceiling, and lighted by three coupled windows; to the left is divided into four recitation rooms of fifteen by 15, separated by corridor by which the College Building is connected with hall of dwelling of second story; to the right of this hall, is a green house fronting toward Hancock street, with a balcony and open gothic balustrade front. This green house has two windows, one opening into the levee room, and the other into the museum. The levee room, which is immediately above the parlor, is of the same size. Passing from the levee room along the hall to the platform of the stairs of the dwelling we enter a corridor, which extends the entire length of the back dwelling. This floor has four large chambers and one bath room. These rooms may also be reached by a back stair-way running up from the hall between the kitchen and dining room.—Returning again to the hall of the College Building, we ascend to the third story, which is divided into the same number of rooms as on the second floor, viz: two large school rooms and four recitation rooms. The third story of the Dwelling is very spacious and is divided into quite a number of beautiful chambers and also has a bath room as on the second story.

Part of the Dwelling is four stories high, and is divided into well lighted and well aired sleeping apartments. The attic of both Buildings is well finished and part of it is designed for servants rooms. The rooms are all lighted with gas, and water will be introduced into all the stories, with suitable arrangements for washing, bathing, &c., &c."

MAN INJURED.—Some scoundrel for whose detection a reward of $100 is offered, cut the rope which held the flag on the Fremont pole, Third Ward, Allegheny. A young man named Fischer climbed to the top to put another rope over the pulley, a distance of one hundred feet, but his strength failing, he relaxed his hold and fell to the ground upon some stones. His right thigh bone was fractured above the knee, and his left leg in the middle and at the ankle. His arms and chest were also much bruised.—Dr. Walters dressed his injuries.

SHOULD NOT BE TOLERATED.—Complaint has been made to us that an official on one of the Eastern ferries takes occasion to enter into political argument with passengers, and in the course of it, abuse them in the most foul-mouthed manner, as Fremont liars, thieves, &c. We believe there is a rule on the Portage Road prohibiting employees on that road arguing politics with passengers while on duty—a rule which should be applied to the Central Road, if politics cannot be discussed without vile abuse.

THE PROCESSION.—We are in possession of many incidents connected with the great demonstration of the 17th, which we do not publish,—as they should have appeared in the account printed yesterday.—The procession was the general topic of conversation throughout the city, and the utmost satisfaction is expressed by those who had the most sanguine anticipations.

HOTEL HORSE.—Those of our readers who wish to get a good lunch can be supplied at Steinrauh's Eating House, Wood street, near Fifth. He is constantly supplied with the best the market affords.

COMPLAINED OF.—The political poles and platforms on North Commons, Allegheny, have been complained of as a nuisance by Joseph H. Scott. He made an entry to that effect in the Complaint Book of Mayor Adams.

GREAT RUSH FOR PAPERS.—We presume yesterday was almost without a parallel as regards the rush for papers. Large editions of all the city papers were printed, but at an early hour they were exhausted, and not one-half the demand supplied.

FIRE.—A fire broke out yesterday afternoon, in Geo. Singer's furniture warehouse, Fourth-st, but was speedily extinguished. This was fortunate, as the wind was high enough to have destroyed the city again.

FREMONT MEETING.—Dr. G. P. Smith, who was lately mobbed at the Fremont meeting in Wheeling, will address the friends of Fremont in the 9th ward this evening—come and hear what slavery will do.

COAL HILL ON FIRE.—About eight or ten trees were on fire on Coal Hill, opposite the Point, yesterday. We do not know how the fire originated.

DESERVES MENTION.—Mr. Johnston, the iceman, deserves honorable mention for his generosity in supplying all the ice used on the streets on Wednesday, gratuitously.

[From the Boston Saturday evening Gazette.]

A Fortimed Breath.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," as a dentrifice it would not only render it sweet, but whiten the teeth white as alabaster! Many persons do not know their breath is bad—the sense is so much vitiated their friends will never mention it. Put a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A few cent bottle will last a year.

A SEATING CAPTAIN may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove sunburn, tan and freckles from the skin, leaving it as soft and pure as a child's. It is the only sure remedy for chapped hands, and wash the face night and morning.

LADIES' MILK BATH.—Worth more than a dollar when used as cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the hands and face with a beautiful lather, and then finish by moistening the operation of shaving. Price only Fifty Cents.

Prepared only by BERRY & CO., Druggists, New York.

Warren's Improved Fire and Water Proof Composition Roofing.

HAVING been for the last eleven years exclusively engaged in the manufacture of the above Roofing, and having used in all the varied climates of this Union, during which time it has been tested under every possible circumstance, and has given entire satisfaction wherever experience showed that it could be done; and having recently opened my Asphaltum Railroad Company to a bed in the city of St. Louis, which is now the Supreme Court in 1854, for both of which jobs they have given me certificates of the most flattering character, they have been induced to go on a branch of our business in which we have had much practice, and to which our system was confidently offer our roofing to the patronage of the public, as being superior to any other in use, durability and perfect protection against both fire and water, from the effects of which it is entirely free.

The best pitch for this roofing is from one-half to one inch thick—but we can under favorable circumstances apply it to a less thickness with safety, and at less cost to the foot. Those having leaky roofs of any kind can apply it to them, and make a perfect job with it, both certainly of having good tight roofs. We append the testimonials of a few gentlemen for whose buildings we have done work, which may be seen on the following buildings:

Duquesne Depot, Liberty street, Fourth Ward. Public School House, on Penn st., Fifth Ward. Public School House, new building, Smithfield st., above Fourth. Capt. Rumsey's new building, Smithfield st., above Fourth. Capt. Market. Alger's new building, Wood st., below Smithfield. Mitchell, Herron & Co.'s Foundry Building, Penn st. Auction Rooms, in Allegheny City—R. H. Davis' Dwelling, Ohio st. Mrs. Ihmsen's Dwelling, Peter Paterson's new Warehouse, Federal st., above Robinson, all of Allegheny.
