REPUBLICANISM IN THE SOUTH.—The Cincinnati Commercial says that an intelligent gentleman from Mississippi has been for some days past in that city, who is a warm Fremonter, manifesting an interest in the election that warms the bosoms and stiffens the upper lips of some of the faint-hearted of the North. He says the men of the South who favor Fremont are numerous, but they dare not make an organized movement to give force to their sentiments, as the dominant opinion is fiendishly intolerant—He mentioned that he knew, personally, one gentleman in Mississippi, a very wealthy citizen, and the owner of 200 slaves, who is an open and ardent advocate of the election of Fremont.—His wealth and social position protected him in the enjoyment of freedom of speech—giving him the especial privilege of talking as he pleased. The same feeling is growing in Tennessee. Col. Taylor even having lately stated in a speech at Memphis that there were three hundred Fremont voters in that city, Fowler's Financial Express of the 6th inst. says:

"We take no great interest in politics; we leave this for those who want office, and who have more taste, and greater information of politicians and public measures, than we have or profess to have. We believe that we have full five hundred voters who prefer Fremont to either Fillmore or Buchanan in this city and county, and would cast their votes for him, in preference to either of the other candidates for the Presidency, provided there was a Fremont ticket in the State. We think the opinion expressed by Col. J. B. Thornton really below the number of Fremont voters in this city. This is our honest and fixed conviction: and, with the disposition evinced by some to strike down Col. Thornton for the simple statement of a fact, if it be a fact—if not a fact, for an erroneous opinion, if it be an error—we cannot in justice to our senses of duty refrain from the giving of our own opinions upon the subject; and, while we state this conviction of ours as a mere opinion, and not as a positive fact, yet we can give reasons for the faith that is in us on this subject."

GLORIOUS MAINE!—A few weeks ago IOWA and MAINE were paraded in every pro-slavery Democratic paper, as heading the Buchanan column. Now those same papers never have any news from that far West, or away down East. Iowa and Maine are never mentioned by them. They cannot bear to hear the words, and they would doubtless be glad to have them struck off the roll of States. A few weeks more, and there will be other States rolling into line that they will be distressed to hear from. Maine, glorious Maine, continues, as her returns come in, to show triumphantly for Fremont and Victory. For Governor, in 480 towns, Hamlin, Republican, has 67,081, Wells, Democrat, 42,746; Porter, Whig, 6 036, total vote, 115 863. Last year in the same towns the total vote was 107, 978. Hamlin's plurality is 24 335, and his majority is 18,299 The Republican gain is 17,000, Democratic loss, 4 408, Whig loss, 4 262. The 43 towns remaining to be heard from cast only 2,372 votes. To the State Senate, 80 Republicans and 1 Democrat are elected, and to the House of Representatives, 125 Republicans, and 26 Democrats. In the Congressional districts, the Republican candidates have the following majorities: 1st, district, 1 500; 2d, 2,500; 4 h, 7,000; 6th, 4,000; 6th, 1,000. In the present Congress, Maine is represented by one pro-slavery Democrat, and five Republicans. There is thus a gain of one member, which with the one in Iowa, and one in Missouri, makes a gain of three. Well done Maine!

THE PEOPLE FOR FREMONT.—Our late magnificent procession evinced one fact as cheering to the friends of Freedom, as it is alarming to the Buchanite pro-slavery Democracy. It showed conclusively that the masses of the people, the workingmen, the laborers, farmers, mechanics and artisans generally, are for Fremont and Freedom. There were immense coal wagons filled with miners; there were hundreds of farm wagons; there were all sorts and descriptions of the mechanic arts represented, and nearly every description of manufactories. The draymen, the butchers, and the river men, turned out in great numbers, almost in a solid body, and made a grand display. Every thing went to show that the yeomanry of the country are enlisted in the cause of Freedom. They have already signed the death-warrant of pro-slavery Democracy; they will execute it in October, and bury it out of sight in November.

THE BUCHANAN MEETING IN PHILADELPHIA.—Our opponents made a great blast about their late meeting in Philadelphia. It was represented as immense, overwhelming, etc. The Philadelphia Times tells the story as follows:

"The meeting yesterday, in Independence Square, after all the immense preparation which was made, was a sorry failure. It was much inferior in point of numbers to the Democratic mass ratification meeting held there, when Gen Cass and Judge Douglas were present. The American meeting held some time since, was infinitely greater in point of numbers. We have heard the numbers variously estimated at two, three, and four thousand. We should judge that the number in the Square, at no time during the afternoon, exceeded three thousand. We had been led to expect, from the extraordinary efforts made by Forney, and the State and City Democratic committees to make this the great demonstration of the season, that not less than twenty-five or thirty thousand persons would be present.

The procession was also a failure. There was no enthusiasm, no spirit, no life in it. It marched on with the silence and gravity of a funeral train. We have never seen such a straggling, shilly-shally column. The time occupied in its passage past different points was—at the corner of Arch and Tenth streets, forty minutes. There it was more compact than at the corner of Sixth and Chestnut. At the latter point, it was timed by three gentlemen; one gave the time at forty-five, another at forty-seven, and a third at fifty five minutes, including all the stoppages. All agree in placing the time under an hour.

A noticable feature in the procession was, that although there were a good many transparencies bearing devices in the German language, yet there were really but few Germans in the procession.

No one with whom we have conversed estimated the whole procession at over 5000 persons. There were not more than that number in the line of march at any time.

The following anecdote shows the probability of Maryland favoring disunion:

"When a Northern repress ntative took leave of Mr. Bowie, a representative of Maryland, at the national Capitol, he said to him, 'Well, Mr. Bowie, I suppose we have met for the last time!' 'How so?' 'Why,' replied the other, 'before we meet again Col. Fremont will be elected, and the South will not submit to that.' 'I think it will,' said Bowie, 'for my part, I have made up my mind, if he is elected, to give him a trial."

The whole press of Maryland occupies a similar position, and the patriotic stand taken by the Hon. H. Winter Davis is imitated by most of the politicians of all parties. It is, therefore, beyond question that neither Delaware nor Maryland will think of disunion.

☞ We are indebted to Hon. DAVID RITCHIE for a copy of the Patent Office Report for 1855, on the subject of Mechanics.

BUCHANAN AND FILLMORE COALITION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer, says:

"It is no longer doubtful that the Buchanan and Fillmore factions are intriguing for a coalition in New York. I have no doubt that it will be formed If the parties negotiating can agree upon the terms. It is understood that the managers of the various conferences that have been held on the part of Mr. Buchanan, insist upon the electoral vote of the State, and the delegation in Congress, while they offer to the K. N. managers all the State offices and the Legislature, thus securing to Mr. Fillmore's partisans the patronage of the Canals and other public works, and control of the State Treasury for the ensuing two years, and the United States Senatorship for the term following that of Gov. Fish.

Such an arrangement would of course amount to a total surrender of all claims on the Presidency, because if Buchanan carries New York, his election is certain. This, however, would be no great sacrifice, because no Fillmore man, admitted behind the scenes, expects his candidate to receive a single electoral vote—not one. Every sensible person knows that the Fillmore flag is kept flying in the South, solely to deceive his honest supporters, in the North, and by keeping Fillmore nominally in the canvass, to prevent a concentration of the opposition to the Black Democracy and Slavery. This precious scheme of Democratic and K. N. fusion in New York, will tend to open the eyes of the American Clubs in both New York and Pennsylvania, and to make them vote sure for Fremont by immense majorities.

☞ The editor of the Cleveland Herald, Mr. HARRIS, was in this city on Wednesday.—Just see how he talks about our great Convention:

THE GREAT FREMONT RALLY AT PITTSBURGH, September 17th was the Sabbath Day of Freedom in the Iron City and all the region round about. The fires of her numerous manufactories were put out, a grateful Western breeze lifted the smoke cloud from the valley, a golden Autumn sun lit up with radiance the misty dingy street, and invited the toiling masses to worship at the shrine of Free Thought, Free Speech and Free Labor, in the open air. They came out, men, women and children—a multitude no man could number—and united in the grandest pageant ever witnessed in the political contests of the Republic. We have attended many mass gatherings since the memorable Columbus Convention of 1840, but the one in Pittsburgh yesterday is without its parallel. Roll into one the mass meetings in Dayton, Fremont and Sandusky, then add the largest State Fair ever held in Ohio, and you have some approximation to the numbers. We speak the words of truth and soberness

Mr. Harris gives a very eloquent description of the procession, and the display, and remarks that the "sobriety and good order of the people, were the especial comment of strangers."

NEW YORK.—The Republican Convention of New York has nominated the following State Ticket, to wit:

For Governor—JOHN A. KING, of Jamaica, L. I.

For Lieut.-Gov.—HENRY R. SELDEN, of Rochester.

For Canal Commissioner—CHAS. H. SHERRILL, of Oneida.

The Tribune speaks of the Ticket as follows:

The nomination of Mr. King is one which must command general approbation. A man of high character, of substantial ability, with a public record without a blot, few among the eminent citizens of the State are so widely known or so universally respected by the people. He was a member of the XXXIst Congress, and in that capacity his voice and vote were always on the side of Freedom. When the late Whig party was in existence, he was sure in every emergency to prove himself one of its most wise, liberal and popular members. His administration of the office, to which he is sure of being elected, will be marked by integrity and economy. All schemes for using the Government for purposes of private profit will find in him a stern and uncompromising opponent.

The name of Mr. Selden will be received with equal satisfaction. A stronger and better man for that office we could not have hoped for.

THE HON. JOHN M. BOTTS, a veteran politician of Virginia, lately delivered a speech at Richmond, Va., in which he repudiated the idea that the South would dissolve the Union if Fremont were elected. He denounced unequivocally the brutal assault upon Mr. Sumner. The Richmond Enquirer denounces this speech as "Black Republican," and trusts that Botts may be arrested and prosecuted under act for the suppression of incendiary language.

THE Newark Daily Advertiser publishes a letter from the Hon. Ephraim Marsh, President of the Convention which nominated Mr. Fillmore, declaring his determination to support Fremont and Dayton, and giving at length his reasons for so doing.

HON. HENRY J. RAYMOND, of the New York Times, challenged Sen-tor Brooks, of the Express, to a public discussion before the people of New York, on the political affairs of the country. Mr. Brooks backed out.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.
THE SHAM DEMOCRACY IN CONCLAVE.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—Yesterday was awful. Yesterday was appointed for a grand rally of the faithful supporters of the sham Democracy in our city. We poor Republicans were looking for a demonstration that might arouse our feelings to combat their might with ours. But with all their drumming, and long list of Southern orators, and money spent in hiring men to come from all parts of the surrounding country, including Ryder's Empire Club from New York City, there was a most meager turn out. At no time was there over 5,000 or 6,000 men on the ground during the assembly to hear speaking in Independence Square, and half of these Republicans. Some of the Ward meetings held by our men here presented quite as imposing an array of numbers. In fact it was a conceded failure by friend and foe. The Democracy looked chop-fallen and disheartened. No enthusiasm was manifested at the speaking. The Southern chivalry fumed and gesticulated and went in for the Constitution, State-rights, &c., &c., but all to no purpose. The HEART of the masses couldn't respond. They listened respectfully but gave no indication of sympathy with the speakers. The procession at night fall was to keeping with the afternoon proceedings. A long and thin, gaunt looking affair—straing out to make a display but with few of the marks of the old democracy about it. No enthusiasm—here and there a weak effort at a hurra but the thunder don't roar. The people filling the side-walks looked on placidly and many expressions of sympathy for the benighted sham-ocrats were heard. Several large bells were mounted on wheels and carried in the procession to make a noise as the people failed to do so. This only added to the sadness of the scene. It was toll, toll, toll, like a funeral knell, sounding the defeat of poor ten cent Jimmy.

Banners abounded, but few contained any sentiments to cheer the people. It was all dark dismal cant. The Union, the Union, must be preserved! The wants it destroyed! One banner was striking—it bore the figure of three bleeding women, and beneath the motto "Kansas"! This was done in mockery and derision of the free State men and women murdered by the Border Ruffians.

Any quantity of Chicken Cocks were carried on sticks; but they WOULD'NT CROW! Poor fellows, they did not see what there was to crow over. DAY-LIGHT HAD GONE OUT FOR THE SHAM DEMOCRACY IN THE EAST!! Maine and Vermont could not raise their ardour to the pitch of a crow! Then a number of Banners with Bucks painted on them, butting their heads against Donkeys (or something like them) were paraded, and one delegation had an old Buck's skin stuffed and standing erect on a rickety platform, for all the world emblematical of their candidate. He is truly an old "Buck" fit to be skinned and stuffed, and laid on the shelf next November. Of such stuff was this Grand Torch-Light Procession of the unterrified composed. It was by count, from 45 minutes to one hour passing different localities and all told, did not count over three to four thousand men and boys; and this too, with the aid of New York and the surrounding country, and the strength of the twenty-four Ward Clubs of our city ALL OUT. You can set Philadelphia down for a good lift for Fremont. She is somewhat divided in her opposition to Buchanan now between Fillmore and Fremont, but the Republicans are daily gaining important acquisitions, and by the time November comes, we will help to roll up the majority of our "Mustang Pony," to the surprise of even our friends.

The Pennsylvanian to day comes out with a lying report—"50,000 Freemen in Council"—"Pennsylvania safe for Buchanan," &c., &c. Its likewise offers an apology for their speakers being all or nearly so from the Slave States. This must be a dreary party in truth, when the freemen of the North can no longer be brought up to speaking in its behalf. Cobb and Johnson of Georgia, Preston of Kentucky, Lowe and Stuart of Maryland, Floyd of Virginia were their chief orators and sub-defenders of the slave-driving Pierce and Buchanan Democracy of the present hour.

We are gratified to see that while the Shamocracy were showing their weakness here you of Western Pennsylvania were out in grand array, marching to victory. Yours, &c., S.

THE Richmond Enquirer arraigns the city of Baltimore as unfaithful to Slavery, and denounces the Know Nothing party for coming into the field when the only issue is Slavery. The Enquirer says:—"Brethren, e if ah' goes along with the North, must take the consequences and not be benefited by the patronage of the South." We must not make "fish of one and flesh of another."—The latest accounts from Baltimore do not state that the Merchants of that city were frightened.

THE Norfolk Argus, a Buchanan paper, says that "Southern men have long known that the Union is worthless to the South," and makes the following suggestion:—"Surely we can have no better time than the present, when we are at peace, and when we can calmly and amicably contract for a dissolution of the copartnership. The public property can easily be estimated, and as equally as may be, divided among the respective partners."

ANOTHER FIRE IN FRANKFORT—ARREST OF THE INCENDIARY—NEGRO EXCITEMENT.—The State capitol was visited with another very severe and destructive conflagration on Monday night. About half past nine o'clock the blacksmith shop in the rear of Newell's building was discovered to be on fire, the flames at the time enveloping the entire house. The two large three story buildings belonging to the Newell estate were consumed. These were occupied by a carriage repository and the grocery of Michael Joyce.—Above stairs was a Masonic Hall, and various rooms—the entire contents of all which were destroyed.

It was with great difficulty that the Capitol Hotel was saved from destruction, the new wing erected last year being on fire several times.—The Railroad depot was also in great danger and the livery stable of Mr. Graham, on the opposite side of the street from the fire, was preserved only by great exertions.

The large market houses on the corner was also destroyed, involving a heavy loss to the city. It is supposed that the total amount of property burned was worth $40,000. Just after the fire broke out, a negro was discovered under suspicious circumstances, and it is thought that he was the incendiary.

This is the second fire in Frankfort, within a couple of days, both of which originated from incendiaries. There having been recently very strict regulations enforced relative to the negro population, it is thought that, in order to have revenge for a curtailment of privileges, they have resolved on destroying the town. As may be imagined, there prevails in Frankfort a very great degree of excitement growing out of these bold attempts to destroy the place.—Louisville Democrat.

ARRIVAL AND RECEPTION OF MR PEABODY.—Mr Peabody, the eminent American Banker of London, arrived in New York by the steamer Atlantic. He was met on his arrival here by a Committee of Merchants, consisting of Messrs. Tileston, Colt, Souther, Sherman, and R. Bell, and escorted to the St. Nicholas Hotel, where a suite of rooms had been engaged. During Monday the distinguished stranger was visited by a large number of his friends, and was waited on by a Committee of Merchants from Boston, consisting of Messrs. Lawrence, Whittney, Blake, Daniels, Sutton, and Abbott, who tendered him an invitation to that city. Subsequently he received deputations from Danvers, Massachusetts, his native town. There were two distinct deputations representing North Danvers and South Danvers, the old town having been divided within a few years by an act of the Massachusetts Legislature. Mr. Peabody was eloquently addressed in words of welcome, by these, his townsmen, and responded in a manner which showed that his heart was deeply touched by these tributes of esteem and respect.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS that "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to the use your Sauce is accessible, and I think medicinal.

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "tell LEA & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and is a universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

Frostwort or Rock Rose.—For the cure of Scrofulous Diseases.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1, 1852.

My son Charles has been afflicted with a tumor on the hip joint. At the age of 5 he was first attacked, inflammation increased until the hip was very diseased, and the joint seriously affected his leg. Drawing it up so that it was impossible to straighten it; a professor of surgery gave it as his decided opinion that the leg would never heal, and that the young man would never walk again—The disease increased so rapidly that for two and a half years he only walked with a crutch, and his efforts to exercise the limb were attended with great pain, so that he could not sleep. I watched him as attentively, that for 6 months, did not have one full night's rest. He had been treated by distinguished medical practitioners, by leeching, blistering, &c., he had also been before the Medical Colleges of Yale College. The remedies they recommended were most faithfully tried, but without avail. This was his disease and dreadful condition 18 months since when he commenced taking Myers' Rock Rose. One bottle was purchased, when he was much better, continuing until three bottles had been taken, when a cure was effected, and he is in excellent health. This is the testimony of and can be corroborated by addressing Mrs. Catharine McGill, 91 Wallace st., New Haven, Conn., or can be fully substantiated by hundreds of witnesses, or by addressing a line to Rev. W. W. Holden, New Haven, Conn.
