BELTING

Patent Riveted and Stretched
LEATHER BELTING,
From the Manufactory of Hoit & Brothers,
NEW YORK.

TO the Belting of this manufacture has been awarded four Gold Medals, Premiums from almost every Fair and Institute throughout the United States the most recent by the American Institute, New York, in which it was awarded the "Gold Medal" for superior quality, every branch of the business being conducted under the personal care of the principals their Belts are selected by themselves at their own receiving house, inspecting from the cuts and scores, tanned at their own tannery, after the bellies and shoulders have been taken out, which are sold to New York clothiers famed for their fine vests, curried immediately, wet and dry stretched on machine with every modern improvement, and finished in the very best manner, copper rivets and burrs which make a perfectly even surface on both sides of the belt, and then, to run truly on the pulleys, and giving a power of more than 20 per cent. over those made in the ordinary manner. To members of all kinds, to cotton and woolen manufacturers, rolling mills, paper mills, saw mills, and planing establishments, grist mills, cotton gins, bleach works, die houses, in short in every establishment where belting is required, for the protection of the life, liberty, and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them.

Their territory has been invaded by an armed force;

Spurious and pretended legislative, judicial, and executive officers have been set over them, by whose usurped authority, sustained by the military power of the government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced over them;

"The right of the people to keep and bear arms has been infringed;"

"Test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding office;"

"The right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury has been denied;"

"The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, has been violated;

"They have been deprived of life, liberty, and property, without due process of law;"

"The freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged;"

The right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect;

Murders, robberies, and arsons have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished;

That all these things have been done with the knowledge, sanction, and procurement of the present national administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union, and humanity, we arraign that administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists, and accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages, and their accomplices, to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a State of this Union, with her present free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil strife now raging in her territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that might makes right, embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and disgrace upon any government or people that gave it their sanction.

Resolved, That a railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the whole country, and that the Federal Government ought to favor immediate action, and lend its aid to the construction, and as an auxiliary thereto, to the immediate construction of an emigrant road on the line of the railroad.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors of a national character required for the accommodation and security of an existing commerce, are authorized by the Constitution, and justified by the obligations of government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and cooperation of men of all parties, however differing from us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared, and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the Constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

JUNE 17TH, 1856.

THE Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call to the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—to the policy of the present administration—to the extension of slavery into free territory; in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State—of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do—

Resolve, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, are essential to the preservation of our Republican Institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the rights of the States, and the union of the States, must and shall be preserved.

Resolved, That with our Republican fathers, we hold it to be self-evident truth that all men are endowed with the inalienable right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and that the primary object and ulterior design of our Federal Government is to grant these rights to all persons under its exclusive jurisdiction. That, as our Republican fathers, when they had abolished slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the Constitution (against all attempts to violate it for the purpose of establishing slavery in the territories of the United States), by positive legislation prohibiting its existence or extension therein. That we deny the authority of Congress, of a Territorial Legislature, of any individual or association of individuals, to give legal existence to slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present Constitution shall be in force.

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power it is both the right and the imperative duty of Congress to prohibit in the territories those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and slavery.

Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States was ordained and established by the people "in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty," and contains ample provisions for the protection of the life, liberty, and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them.

Their territory has been invaded by an armed force;

Spurious and pretended legislative, judicial, and executive officers have been set over them, by whose usurped authority, sustained by the military power of the government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced over them;

"The right of the people to keep and bear arms has been infringed;"

"Test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding office;"

"The right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury has been denied;"

"The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, has been violated;

"They have been deprived of life, liberty, and property, without due process of law;"

"The freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged;"

The right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect;

Murders, robberies, and arsons have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished;

That all these things have been done with the knowledge, sanction, and procurement of the present national administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union, and humanity, we arraign that administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists, and accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages, and their accomplices, to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a State of this Union, with her present free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil strife now raging in her territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that might makes right, embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and disgrace upon any government or people that gave it their sanction.

Resolved, That a railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the whole country, and that the Federal Government ought to favor immediate action, and lend its aid to the construction, and as an auxiliary thereto, to the immediate construction of an emigrant road on the line of the railroad.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors of a national character required for the accommodation and security of an existing commerce, are authorized by the Constitution, and justified by the obligations of government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and cooperation of men of all parties, however differing from us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared, and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the Constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Times.

Highly Interesting from Kansas.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Sept. 6, 1856.

Marshal Donaldson and Deputy Marshal Newsome and Cramer came into town accompanied with one hundred and eighty U. S. troops. Donaldson made inquiries for Gen. Lane, for C. W. Babcock, the members of the Kansas State Central Committee and others. These men were not to be found. To the Marshal's anxious inquiries for Lane, the reply was made, "he has gone to Iowa with a cannon under his arm." The Marshal was greeted with the most provoking inquiries concerning his horse stealing and plundering exploits last May. After marching about town for some little time, he and his troops returned to Lecompton.

By 10 o'clock the Free State army was on its way to Lecompton. The enemy were at that time encamped near the residence of C.W. Clark, Pottawatomie Indian Agent, and murderer of Barber. Our forces took the river road, passing along through the heavy timbers and deep ravines which are found all along the banks of the Kaw. By noon they emerged out on the open prairie near the house of Clark. The smoke was still curling from the fires where the enemy had been encamped—but the enemy had fled to Lecompton two h
