Farm and Coal for Sale.
THE subscriber offers at private sale the Farm on which he resides, situated in Ninevah township, Allegheny county, 9 miles from Pittsburgh, and immediately at the head of the Monongahela Slack Water.
The farm is 192¾ acres, of which about 150 are cleared. The soil is fertile, springs of water numerous and permanent, and a full allowance of the best quality of timber. It is easy to mine and convey over the place and to the river. The coal is also of excellent quality, and the money arising from the sale of such coal, and all the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repaying the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.
SECTION 3. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.
SECTION 4. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by or on behalf of the state.
SECTION 5. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, as its first session after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other funds or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and no loan in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.
SECTION 6. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.
SECTION 7. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township, unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend itself in war, or to assist liberate in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.
SECTION 8. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by vote of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; nor to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution, or party.
SECOND AMENDMENT.
There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows:
ARTICLE XI.
OF NEW COUNTIES.
No county shall be divided, or line cutting off over one tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or to be added to another county) without a majority of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.
THIRD AMENDMENT.
From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "by the city of Philadelphia, and of" each county," and insert in lieu thereof the words, "the state" strike out the words, "by Philadelphia and of the several counties," and insert in lieu thereof the words, strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in lieu thereof the word "no" and strike out section four, of said article, and in lieu thereof insert the following:
SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives shall be apportioned among the several districts, according to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing at least three-fourths of a ratio more than a different apportionment; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district. Any city now taining a sufficient number of taxables to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into representative districts, in the manner aforesaid, and shall be divided into convenient districts, of equal taxable population as near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative.
FOURTH AMENDMENT.
To be SECTION XXVI, Article I.
The legislature shall not, by special law, revoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under the authority of this commonwealth; but in every opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth to annul such charter, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.

IN SENATE, April 21, 1856.
