

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

Published by D. W. WHITE.

PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY MORNING, Sept. 23, 1856.

TERMS.—
DAILY NEWS, 25c per copy; 50c per dozen.
50c per dozen per annum.

For Telegraphic News see 5c page.
City and Commercial News see 10c page.

PAKISTAN.—There will be meetings of the friends of Fremont and freedom in the following named Townships and Boroughs. Eloquent speakers will be in attendance:

W. Newkirk, Beaver County, near the Knob, Steelton, Pa., 7 o'clock, Speakers, Dr. J. B. Chapman and others.

Finnley township, at Cliffton, Sept. 26 at 1 o'clock. Speakers, Collier and others.

Frostburg, Sept. 26 at 7 o'clock. Speaker,
Hon. Thos. Williams and others.

Allegany, Tuesday, Sept. 26, 7 o'clock. Speakers,
Hon. Thos. Williams and others.

Glory Meeting.

At New Haven, Fayette county, on Thursday, had a tremendous outpouring of the people took

The protection of people in wagons, on horseback, and on foot, who had been on the road less than two hours.

Five stands were erected from which speaking was going on at once by Hon. Andrew Stewart, A. Patterson, Esq., E. R. Oliphant, A.

E. Fuller, Judge Irving, and Lieut. Gov. Robert of Kansas.

The meeting was the most numerous ever held, and people demanded a full speech by Gen. L. V. H. Morris.

At Canonsburg, Washington county, on Friday, another large meeting was held, which was addressed by Gen. L. V. H. Morris, and Lieut. Gov.

Roberts. There were between three and four thousand people present.

At Monaca, on Orr, on Saturday, a large meeting was held in the afternoon and evening, the feelings of the people being fully expressed and appearing hungry for speeches. Lieut. Gov.

Roberts made one of his usual forcible and convincing arguments, and J. W. F. Biggs, Esq., delivered one of the most powerful and eloquent addresses of the season.

This grows and spreads the glorious flame of freedom and the cause of Verily in Pennsylvania.

In addition to the above meetings, we select the following account from the Independent Standard:

"Mass. Mass.—The Mass. Meeting at Pittsburg, on Saturday, was well attended, to welcome Gov. Roberts to the head of the State. What was the greatest assembly ever witnessed in the County, except a few Mass. Meetings in the winter, when the people assembled by a few day's notices. No one dreamed of seeing such a mass as there were about three acres of people! In one hour, when the mass, one hundred hundred were counted! Mr. Brasfield and his hospital neighbors had made every possible preparation. Their body was delighted.

A beautiful pul was presented which was suspended by an elegant frame and a bell. Appropriate speeches were delivered by Col. Oliver Veach and E. P. Oliphant, Esq., after which came the great speech of Gov. Roberts. He enterested everybody by the most enthusiastic eloquence.

He engaged that more than one hundred straight cuts for Free Kansas and Fremont were the fruits of that glorious day's labor. On the other meeting was held at Held's saloon, in the evening, when the work was almost as large and fully as enthusiastic as that at Mr. Brasfield's. "The Fremont Hall is rolling, and a rolling, the Fremont Hall is rolling on!"

The Mass. Mass.—By the author of the

"Wide, Wide World," New York, D.

Appleton & Co.

We are sorry to say that this work is

by the author of "My Cousin, Virginie," to secure the copyright of which she has done all she can to do.

It is a very good book, and we hope it will be quite popular.

The author does not make demands upon the public too often to wear out her

com. For sale by M'N & Co., and Gildefamy & Co.

For the Pittsburg Gazette.

Mr. Horrell.—There was to have been a great display of the Anti-slavery cause, and a pole railing on the Steubenville road, at Steubenville, on Thursday last, the day before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

I understand that four or five individuals had the idea of making a display, and finding shady boughs but themselves slept rapidly, without being there at noon. As for the "Anti-slavery" makers, no inquiry can locate them to whom they belong.

What was done was to make a display of the Anti-slavery cause, and a pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—We have had time to announce the death of the prominent man which occurred at the residence of

Gen. George W. Appleton, Esq., at the residence of Mr. C. J. McAllister, Esq., in the City.

He died suddenly, and had been created for the accommodation of the meeting.

The meeting was organized by Col. John W. H. Morris, and Gen. L. V. H. Morris.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

before the meeting, but nobody was there to raise it.

It was a very poor display, and

the Anti-slavery cause, and a

pole railing on the Steubenville road.

Mr. Horrell.—The Anti-slavery cause

is to be addressed by Gen. Black and I.

Mr. Horrell, on Thursday last, the day

</