PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

Published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the paper is five cents per copy, and in advance for three months, one dollar and twenty cents per annum. The paper is published at No. 107 Broadway, New York.

Political Items.

The following items were clipped from the Louisville Journal of the 15th: Henry Clay's Oration of JAMES DOUGLASS. "He (Clay) has quite as much ability, quite as much courage, and, I think, much more energy than Mr. Buchanan."—Private correspondence of Henry Clay, p. 20.

Advances Payments.

Advances payments—Heretofore no such thing has been known in the history of the Union. The advances payments are made to the candidates for President and Vice President, and are made in the form of a check on the Treasury, and are made in the name of the President-elect.

Southern Common Sense—A Rational View of the Disunion Threat.

When a journal like the Richmond Enquirer, a paper of the highest standing in the South, publishes an article in which it advocates the disunion of the South from the North, it is a clear indication of the state of mind of the South.

The Republican Platform.

The Republican platform, as announced by the National Convention, is a platform of peace, union, and justice. It is a platform that is in harmony with the principles of the Constitution.

The Wonder of the Age.

The wonder of the age is the discovery of a new method of producing electricity. This method is so simple and so cheap that it will revolutionize the world.

100 DOLLARS.

A reward of 100 dollars is offered for the discovery of a new method of producing electricity. This reward is offered by the Government.

Interpolated Philadelphia Steamship Line.

The Philadelphia Steamship Line has been interpolated into the regular schedule of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Orders for Cannon Coal Will.

Orders for Cannon Coal will be issued by the Government. This coal is of the highest quality and is used for the Navy.

Disunion.

The disunion of the South from the North is a matter of great importance. It is a matter that will affect the future of the United States.
