A Vitalizing Element

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

A PHYSICIAN of high standing and Surgery Professor in one of the Medical Institutions of this country, now retired from active practice, having been restored to health in a few weeks, after a severe attack of Pulmonary Consumption, by a simple remedy, while traveling in South America for his health, is anxious for the benefit of others to make known the means of cure. Being fully convinced that the disease is sometimes incurable, even when the lungs are so far gone as to be considered beyond the reach of medicine, he feels it a duty to make known the means of cure to his fellow-sufferers. He therefore will send a copy of the prescription used in his case, (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing the same, and the manner of using it, which he has found by experience will effect a speedy, sure and permanent cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections. Those wishing the prescription will please address the undersigned, inclosing a stamp to pay the return mail, and the same will be sent by return mail. Address

The Adams Express Company.

Pittsburgh, Rochester and New Brighton Express.

FOR the especial accommodation of the large population along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburgh and New Brighton, whose intimate business and social relations require such frequent communication, this Company have made such arrangement with the Railroad as to enable them to put a Freight Messenger on the Accommodation Train, who will take charge of all property and business properly entrusted to him. This Messenger will leave an Iron Safe in the Passenger Car, for the deposit and safe security of Money, Jewelry and other valuables. He will leave New Brighton for the Express in the morning, in Pittsburgh and Allegheny City during the day to attend to such commissions as may be entrusted to him, and return by the Evening Train, with his Goods and Commissions executed. It will be his duty to receive at his up town offices, all parcels, packages, orders, money, &c., which will be delivered to the proper parties on the arrival of the train at that point. Receipts will be given and required for all property delivered. He will also receive written or verbal messages to be delivered in the city on the arrival of the train, and to obtain information and return replies—order goods, and return them—make purchases, large or small, from a paper of pins to a steam engine. In short, he will be delivered or called for in the two cities; within reasonable limits, without extra charge, but by former such delivery, at the discretion of packages, especially for private business, will be required.

At Way Stations, all matter will be left with the Station Agent of the Railroad Company, who will receive and forward the same on the arrival of the Train, to secure his goods.

The charges for carrying packages, &c. and for services rendered by the Messenger, are intended to be within reasonable limits. When the nature of the business in each case is explained, all matter will be attended to.

As the Messenger is required to settle his bills and business daily with the Company, and to pay in Pittsburgh funds or the like will please not ask him to wait till next day, as he has no discretion in the matter.

HENRY S. LEWIN has been appointed Messenger, and will commence his duties on Monday, Dec. 24, 1855.

The Republican Platform.

ADOPTED BY THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION, JUNE 17TH, 1856.

THE Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call to the people of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—to the policy of the present administration—to the extension of slavery into free territory—in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State—of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, and for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, do

Resolve, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, are essential to the preservation of our Republican Institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the rights of the States, and the union of the States, must and shall be preserved.

Resolved, That the Republican fathers, whether they had abolished slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the Constitution (against all attempts to violate it for the purpose of establishing slavery in the territories of the United States), by positive legislation prohibiting its existence or extension therein. That we deny the authority of Congress, of a Territorial Legislature, of any individuals or association of individuals, to give legal existence to slavery in any territory of the United States, while the present Constitution shall be maintained.

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power it is both the right and the imperative duty of Congress to prohibit in the territories those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and slavery.

Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States was ordained and established by the people "in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty," and contains ample provisions for the protection of the life, liberty, and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them.

Their territory has been invaded by an armed force;

Spurious and pretended legislative, judicial, and executive officers have been set over them, by whose usurped authority, sustained by the military power of the government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced;

"The right of the people to keep and bear arms has been infringed;

"Test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding office;

"The right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury has been denied;

"The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, has been violated;

"They have been deprived of life, liberty, and property, without due process of law;"

"The freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged;"

The right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect;

Murders, robberies, and arsons have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished;

In fact all the things have been done with the knowledge, sanction, and procurement of the present national administration, and that for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union, and humanity, we arraign that administration, the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists, and accessories, either before or after the fact, before the country and before the world; and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these atrocious outrages, and their accomplices, to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Resolved, That Kansas should be immediately admitted as a State of this Union, with her present free Constitution, as at once the most effectual way of securing to her citizens the enjoyment of the rights and privileges to which they are entitled, and of ending the civil strife now raging in her territory.

Resolved, That the highwayman's plea, that might makes right, embodied in the Ostend Circular, was in every respect unworthy of American diplomacy, and would bring shame and dishonor upon any government or people that gave it its sanction.

Resolved, That a railroad to the Pacific Ocean, by the most central practical route, is imperatively demanded by the interests of the whole country, and that the Federal Government ought to render immediate and sufficient aid in the construction, and that no sectional jealousy, combined with unfounded constitutional objections, should be interposed to prevent the immediate construction of an enlightened road on the line of the railroad.

Resolved, That appropriations by Congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors of a national character required for the accommodation and security of an existing commerce, are authorized by the Constitution, and justified by the obligations of government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and cooperation of men of all parties, however differing from us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared, and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the Constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.
