That is all true. We count them as units, of humanity and civilization. So long as the but do we own them and vote for them as property? Do our farmers vote for three-fifths of oxen ? Now this representation of men who have a position however humble or unhap- sink bouesth the sentiment of the Pagan poet, py among us is, in our view, a very different thing from that where so many thousand dollars come forward and deposit a vote in the ballot hor. The grand difficulty is after all that our neighbor cannot see any difference between a free black and a slave. The Bichmond Enquirer cannot see any difference between laboring men white or black, and says "Slavery, white o black, is right and necessary." KILLED. The Editor of the Charleston Mer. my was killed on the afternoon of Beptember 0, in a duel. The next duel will be between the son of Jno. M. Botts and Mr. Pierce's who has a life to live in this nineteenth century.

meditated and spontaneous as the meeting was, it gave elequont attorance to that irrepressible devotion to liberty which is the grand cardinal idea of all true Democracy. This effort must have numistakeably a wide-spread influence, for it inangurates a movement which thousands of honest Democrats are already eager to join.

honest Democrats are already cager to join. Is his speech at Fremont the other day, Hon. Josiah Quincy, Jr., of Boston, asserted that, of his own knowledge, Mr. Filmore, while at Rome, was a constant worshipper in the Catholic Church, and very frequently received the benedistion of the Pope. The Boston Telegraph understands that Mr. Quincy's statement on this point will soon be printed in an authentic form.
