PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 4, 1856.

The Pennsylvania State Fair.

FOURTH AND LAST DAY.

Friday, the last day of the Fair, was very pleasant, and thousands were again in attendance. We think the Iron City may be complimented upon the beauty of the female portion of its inhabitants, if it is deficient in every other kind of beauty. Nearly all whom we saw might with justice set up for beauties of the first class. At nine o'clock thousands of both sexes were seated in the amphitheatre and standing around the extensive ring, witnessing the brilliant cavalcade of horses, which was preceded by Young's Brass Band performing their finest music. The effect was inspiriting, for rarely will there be seen together so many thorough-blooded animals, descended from the choice stocks of Eastern cities—beautiful and high-spirited. Quite a romance might be imagined of some of the proud animals present yesterday—for in their veins runs blood pure and undefiled of the best families of horses, the favorites of princes and princesses and brilliant cavaliers, their pedigree clearly traced through each generation, and recorded in the books which decree a fleet race as the passion for fine horses exists, which, "in short," as Mr. Micawber would say, is forever.

Not only horses "blushed with blood of queens and kings," for there were on exhibition right royal bulls, cows, sheep and swine, whose bearing and demeanor were as different and as distinguishable from the common herd as day from night. "Blood tells," Mrs. somebody, who, we forget, says, and as far as animals are concerned she is right. Most of the animals on exhibition were noble-looking ones, and competing the best breeds known. We could not begin to enumerate them.

At two o'clock Judge Woodward delivered the annual address before the assembled thousands, and when he concluded, Secretary Walker announced the awards of the committees. From this time the crowd began to disperse, and at 6 o'clock the gates closed, and the Sixth Annual Fair of the Society was ended.

THE PLOUGHING MATCH.

At 9 o'clock, the competitors for the Prize offered to the best ploughman, repaired to a field adjoining the fair ground—the spot selected by the Judges for the trial. The following were the competitors:

No. 1. Martin Clearer, jr., of Robinson tp., with Hall & Speer's No. 4, centre lever plough.

No. 2. John L. Welsh, of Peters tp., Washington county, with Hall & Speer's No. 10, iron centre.

No. 3. Walter Grubbs, (boy) of M'Candless tp., with Hall & Speer's No. 5, iron centre.

No. 4. Jonathan F. Garrard, of Indiana tp., with Hall & Speer's No. 5, iron centre, deep tillage and steel surface plough.

No. 5. Jas. Brown, of Upper St. Clair tp., with Hall & Speer's No. 10, iron centre.

No. 6. Alexander Wichel, (aged 18 years,) of Indiana tp., with Hall & Speer's No. 5, iron centre.

No. 7. Clarence Coney, of Lawrenceville, with J. A. Speer & Co's. No. 4, iron centre plough.

No. 8. Robt. J. Boyle, of Indiana tp., with Gibb's (Canton, O.,) cylinder plough.

No. 9. John Bouinson, of Hempfield tp., Westmoreland county, with Hall & Speer's No. 10, iron centre.

No. 10. Alex. Campbell, of South Fayette tp., with Robt. Hall & Co's. No. 8, iron clipper plough.

No. 11. Wm. Stevenson, of Manchester, with J. S. Hall's No. 18, iron centre.

No. 12. John Sleigh, of Indiana tp., with J. A. Speer & Co's. No. 17, iron centre plough.

The Judges made the following report:

"To the President of the State Society:

"Sir.—The undersigned, a Committee to decide upon Harrows and Harrowing, make the following report:

"The 1st premium of a silver medal, for the best Harrow and Harrowing, to R. Hall & Co., Pittsburgh, for their double square hinged harrow.

"The 2d premium of a bronze medal to Rev. John Winnebrenner, of Harrisburgh, for Gourley's Patent Harrow and Harrowing and Clod Crusher.

"The 3d premium of $3 to J. Garrard, for one pair of Harrows and Harrowing.

FREMONT CONVENTION AT GREENSBURGH.—Pursuant to notice, a meeting was held at Fremont Headquarters on Friday evening, relative to attending the Mass Fremont Convention at Greensburgh on Wednesday, Oct. 8. Gen. Wm. Robinson, Jr., was called to the Chair, and John W. Riddell appointed Secretary.

On motion, a Committee consisting of Messrs. Slagle Weaver and A. M. Brown were appointed to confer with the Central Railroad Company and make the necessary arrangements. A motion was also adopted that the Fremont Clubs of the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and of the Boroughs and County, be requested to make immediate arrangements for attending en masse, the Convention at Greensburgh on the 8th of October.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at Fremont Headquarters on Wednesday evening, Oct. 6th, at 7 o'clock.

WM. ROBINSON, JR., Pres't.
JOHN W. RIDDELL, Sec'ty.

COUNCILS.—A special meeting of Select Council was held last evening, but we are compelled to delay the publication of the proceedings until to-morrow. The only item of interest was the following:

Mr. Murdoch, stating that an impression existed that the lease of the Steubenville road differed from that approved in May last, offered the following:

Resolved, That the President of the Select Council be requested to call upon the Board of Directors of the Steubenville Railroad Company and request a copy of the lease entered into between them and John S. King and Ambrose N. Thompson, and also a copy of all modifications, additions and alterations (if any) in said lease.

Read three times and passed.

THE meeting house of the 1st Baptist Church, corner of Third and Grant sts., will be re-opened for divine service to-morrow, October 5th.—The Pastor, Rev. D. G. Yerkes, will preach in the morning at half-past 2 o'clock, Rev. T. B. Taylor in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, and Dr. Estup in the evening at 7 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

FLORAL.—Messrs. Holmes & Collins, Wood st., have made arrangements with J. S Negley & Co., Florists, whose extensive display in Floral Hall, at the Fair, was so universally admired, by which they will be able to fill you with orders in the Floral line. Messrs. J. S. Negley & Co., were very successful at the Fair, they took the silver cup and $196 in cash.

CLEANING OUT.—The Board of Health deserve much credit for doing what the Councils neglected to do—cause the sewer on Carson st., Ninth ward, to be cleaned out. The work was accomplished last week under the direction of the energetic officer of the Board, Mr. George Fortune.

A meeting of the friends of Fremont will be held in Roby's Hall on Ohio street, Allegheny, on Saturday evening, 4th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., to make arrangements to attend the Convention at Greensburgh on Wednesday the 8th inst.

Rally, Friends of Freedom, and let us prepare to go in our strength.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Gen. Thomas L. Price, of Jefferson City, was robbed on Tuesday evening at the Allegheny depot as he was leaving the cars of $600. $300 were in eastern money, and $300 in Missouri Bank notes, of the denomination of $100 and $50 dollars. The General was left $2,50 for expenses.

A BIBLE CLASS, conducted by Rev. Dr. Jacobus, is held every Sabbath afternoon at half past four o'clock, at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association on Fifth street. All persons interested in the study of the Bible are cordially invited to attend.

HOUSE DEMOLISHED.—The boys of the neighborhood of Scott and Clarke streets, 6th ward, demolished a house on the corner of said streets, (with the consent of the owner) several days ago. It is quite a relief to the neighborhood, as the house had become a nuisance.

TO STRANGERS.—John Murdoch jr., of the Oakland Nursery, has on hand, and will receive orders for, all varieties of fruit and shade trees. A letter to the Pittsburgh Post-office will reach him.

RESIGNATION.—Mr. W. D. Patterson, the Superintendent of the City Poor Farm, has resigned his position, and yesterday the Directors elected Mr. John Derickson to supply his place.

FOR A GREAT BARGAIN in the way of a Saw and Grist Mill, call at the office of S. Cuthbert & Son, No. 50 Market street. —

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

WOOL—It is now very apparent that the stock of Domestic Fleece and Pulled Wools is very small, and the supply with which the required wants of mills as well as consumers, are to be supplied, is scanty, and, as a consequence of the meagre stock and the various prices now asked. Speculators will no doubt still hold a fair amount of the Ohio, and are holding on for high prices; but it is evident from the present state of the goods market that manufacturers cannot with safety pay any higher rates, for the finished fabrics bring no better prices. Since our last quotations of fine fleece, X and XX, are nearly all up round, while others ranging from XXX to full blood Merino, are entirely neglected. Several descriptions have advanced 2@3c. In the east for the past week have been limited in consequence, but holders seem confident in the maintenance of prices and exhibit no disposition to sell.

HIDES—There has within a day or two been more activity as an improvement or ½ @ 1c. in Buenos of 10,000 (4,000 to-day,) at 22c, 6 months usual selection; 1,000 Cayenne, part Hide thing, Buenos Ayres, a 7½; 3 green salted Montevideo Horse, 33 lb, at 24c, 6 mos; 216 Charcas, 17 lb, at 24c, 6 mos, 1a 4 ⅝ cent; 1,200 Rioneo Ayres, to arrive per Civilian, at 27½c, in bond for Canada; 3,028 Texas at 25c; 150 Peru Cabello Hairy, at private terms. We notice no marked change in Money negotiations—If anything, the want of borrowers with father more ease than on Monday. The Banks are doing somewhat, but not sufficiently to produce any distress. There is more active in stock circles than during the merchants, who get free accommodations at their banks. The receipts of these institutions in October are very large, which will enable them to discount freely. In some instances very nearly one half the discount line falls due in October.—N. Y. Tribune.

In the money market there is only a moderate amount of paper offering, and the rates are easy. Best names go at 10@12 @ 1%. The local banks are doing a liberal, and what is esteemed a safe business. Their quarterly statements, the last made that we shall first see, will be made up in the beginning of the coming month, and we presume some care will be taken to make a good show. The semi-annual dividends will be made at the same time. The usual amount of profits, it is expected, will be divided.—Phila. Ledger.
