THE INQUISITION THREATENED.—Archbishop Hughes and his prelatical coadjutors throughout the land seem so sanguine of the success of BUCHANAN that they are already preparing for the establishment of the Inquisition. M'MASTER, the editor of the Freeman's Journal, is the cool and mouth-piece of the Archbishop, and in his late Jesuitical letter about Col. Fremont, he threatens the Inquisition. He says:

"A man who will LIE about a serious fact in his own history, ought to be denounced, if he pretends to run for President, even of so mean a coalition as Black Republicans and Choctaw K. N's. If Col. Fremont will assert that he has never given himself out as a Catholic, I will clap the hot iron on him, quick and sure."

We have no doubt that the Archbishop and his Episcopal fellows would dearly love to "clap the hot iron" on the back of Fremont and every other heretic, as well as revive, generally, all the tortures of the Inquisition; and the prospect of such a luxury must make the mouth of McMaster water. He and such as he would like a little experience in that line. But have not things come to a pretty pass when an ignorant Jesuit can thus denounce an American citizen, and threaten him with a "hot iron—quick and sure?"

We beg Archbishop Hughes and the other Catholic Bishops, with their emissaries and tools, to remember that James Buchanan is not yet elected President, nor is he likely to be. Their fondness for "HOT IRON," with which to roast the flesh of heretic, "quick and sure," is therefore rather premature in its development. The Protestants in this country have no idea, we fancy, to expose themselves and their fellows to the threatened process, and McMASTER will have to postpone the gratification of his propensities for branding.

The Fillmore men and the Buchaniers all clutch at this Inquisitor's threat of a "hot iron," as the best thing of the campaign. They all unite in threatening "hot iron—quick and sure" for FREMONT. Is this the evidence you bring that FREMONT is a Catholic? Is this the Democracy of equal rights? Americans, friends of freedom, of whatever name, party or sect, will you lend your votes and influence, even indirectly, to give this Jesuit and his intolerance a victory? Can you have any higher evidence that FREMONT is hated by the Freeman's Journal, HUGHES, MCMASTER and others of their kidney—than this fierce, impudent, intolerant, malicious assault?

The "hot iron," the pincers, the rack and the thumb screw, to be followed by an auto da fe—these are the promised results. Protestants, Americans, Freemen! are you prepared to give Buchanan, Hughes and McMaster such a triumph?

THE GREAT TIPPECANOE GATHERING, on the Tippecanoe Battle Ground, Indiana, held on the 1st and 2d of this month, was a grand demonstration of the Fremont strength in Indiana.—Over 60,000 people were on the ground, and manifestations of enthusiasm were of that unmistakable kind for which the west is famous.—Indiana is all right. This Fremont gathering far exceeded in numbers and spirit, the Buchanter meeting held on the same spot a few days since.

FREMONT ENVELOPES.—We have received from Messrs. Putnam & Bros., Boston, a package containing white and buff envelopes and writing paper with a fine vignette of Mr. Fremont upon both. We learn by a note from that house that eight presses, running day and night have been scarcely able to supply the demand.

POLITICAL PREACHING.—The vilest abuse is heaped upon the clergy, because in obedience to the dictates of conscience they denounce and condemn such party proceedings as are at war with humanity and religion. Ever since the wicked Douglas denounced the New England clergymen for the noble stand they took against that measure which has proved the direful spring of woes unnumbered," all his partisan tools have raised the same cry; they have all caught their tone from him and denounce religion because it rises up to assert its office and its dignity against a party policy at which the civilized world stands aghast. A minister of the Gospel should not simply explain and inculcate the points of theology, but in addition to this should enforce by precept and example the external virtues, which are in reality the fruits of an inner life of holiness. No better opiate can be offered to the thriving professor of the faith who is bankrupt in point of possession of it, than cold and unpractical development of the 39 articles in vast tomes of sermonising. How delightedly might a man listen to the explanation concerning the symbolic significance of the cavern on golden candle sticks, who had never in his life given a dime to relieve the widow and the fatherless in their distress.

We suppose that a more unexceptionable preacher than the Rev. Cream Cheese never addressed a snoring audience which was no longer an audience except in dreams. He was such a gentle man so redolent of perfume, and talked "so sweetly."

An example is given in the Bible of a man who when he heard of a great sin committed, went straightway to a king, told him the story, excited thereby the royal indignation, extorted the wrathful inquiry as to who the culprit was and received from the faithful preacher the answer—"Thou art the man."

It is preaching which touches the sore spot that makes the wincing. If men will urge upon the attention of professors and preachers of religion open and bold sins against common morality, how can they blame those professors and preachers whose duty it is to condemn wrong wherever it may exist, for speaking in good Saxon their opinions? We advise those who are so exceedingly sensitive about "political preaching" as it is falsely called, to adopt such a policy as shall reason them from a position where they consider themselves hit every time a preacher inculcates the common moralities of life. Let them cease the defence of bludgeon philosophy, of bowie knife squatter-sovereignty, of common denunciation of free speech in all the Slave States, and we shall hear less complaint about "political preaching."

THE OSTEND MANIFESTO.—This has been a potent weapon in the hands of the Republican party, as it deserves to be, against the Buchanan party. Many of the friends of that gentleman have declared that we put a false construction upon it; that the declaration in relation to our duty under certain circumstances to take Cuba by the strong arm away from Spain was only the "declaration of an abstract principle," just as that contained in the Nebraska Bill was the "declaration of an abstract principle." Now however, the champions of Mr. Buchanan begin to speak out a little more boldly. The Pennsylvanian the "home organ" said on Saturday last:

"The whole idea of the Ostend Manifesto is contained in many of the acceptable and favorite documents of the Whig party. It is by no means so startling or so new as to entitle a public man to damnation who utters it now. It is the great doctrine of self-preservation, which is, we are told, "the first law of nature." Cuba lies almost upon our borders. It may become a magazine of insurrection to our Union. It may become a depot for the foreign enemy. It may indeed, be the grand basis upon which Great Britain and other powers will plant their full forces by which to unnest our whole political system. All our best statesmen have seen this in every age."

Mr. Keitt of South Carolina spoke as follows in Virginia the other day:

"We have before us a great country. We have two races—the Latin and the Anglo-Saxon; and with such elements composing the population of our country, our destiny must be a noble and exalted one. They love progress, and the first step is that direction is the acquisition of Cuba. [Loud and enthusiastic cheers.] Standing on your southern shores, the key-stone of your water towers, it must be ours, or the South is exposed to invasion. Yes, it must be ours, and I have no objection to the fillibusters taking it [Loud cheers.] Take it, and we will pay for it afterwards [Tremendous cheering.] Take it—I care not in what manner—and then we will roll into it a gulf stream of Southern population that will make it truly the gem of the Antilles. Externally guarded, by nature protected, roll into it your Southern population, and the navies of all the earth may thunder around its shores, and they will thunder in vain. [Loud cheers.] Yes, controlling the commerce of the West for three thousand miles, and controlling also the commerce of the East, through the greater enterprise and commercial spirit of our population, Cuba would be what Palmyra was in ancient times, if it controlled throws off the despotism of Spanish rule. [Loud cheers.] The Democratic party can and will take it. [Cheers.]

MR. BUCHANAN REPUDIATES SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.—The following is the celebrated "Sanford Letter" of Mr. BUCHANAN, in which, it will be seen, he clearly and distinctly repudiates Squatter Sovereignty. It was written in 1849. Since then he has repudiated the letter itself, and so has occupied both sides of that question, as he has every other question that has excited the American people in his day:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21, 1848.

T. SANFORD, Esq.—DEAR SIR: I have just received yours of the 11th instant, in which you submit to me the following paragraph, and ask whether it contains an accurate version of the conversation between us concerning my Berks county letter, on the occasion to which you refer:

"Happening to meet Mr. Buchanan at the President's levee, on Friday evening, I called his attention to this letter, and asked him if he intended to be understood as claiming that the people of a Territory in an unorganized capacity had the right to control the question of Slavery in such a Territory. He declared that no such idea had ever been entertained by him; that the construction put upon his language by Mr. Yancy was a perversion of its plain and obvious meaning; that in his opinion, the inhabitants of a Territory, as such, had no political rights, (although they possessed all the private rights of American citizens;) that they had NO POWER WHATEVER OVER THE SUBJECT OF SLAVERY and they could neither interfere nor establish it, except when assembled in Convention to form a State Constitution. He further authorized and requested me to make any public use of these declarations that I might think proper, to correct any impressions which Mr. Yancy's construction of his language in the Berks letter might have made."

With the addition which I have inserted between brackets, this statement is substantially and almost literally correct, according to my recollection.

Yours, very truly,
JAMES BUCHANAN.

THE GREENSBURG MEETING.—We learn from Greensburg that our friends there have made great preparations for a full turn-out there tomorrow. The people have arranged to accommodate all that they possibly can in their houses, and, in addition a public table will be spread on the ground for those who cannot be otherwise provided for.

We are pleased to learn, also, that large numbers are going from here. A special train will leave the depot at 9½ o'clock, in the morning, and return in the evening, at half fare. Let every body go that can. It will be a brilliant demonstration.

The "Democracy" called a meeting for the same day on which Mr. Banks was to speak in Philadelphia. That is what they are doing every where. They bring up the Southern orators to tell the people of Pennsylvania that the question in the present campaign is whether "capital shall hire its labor or own it." That is what Gov. Johnson of Georgia said in his speech.

In referring to the Jesuit M'MASTER, in our paper of Saturday, we inadvertently got his first name wrong; it is JAMES A. M'MASTER, and not GILBERT. This fellow was once a Protestant; and in his recreancy to Catholicism has vindicated the truth of the old saying that "one renegade is worse than ten Turks."

☞ The communication on our first page from Louisville was written by an old personal friend, who has for many years been true to the cause of freedom in Kentucky. His letter is a pertinent reminder of the great blessing of free speech to a free people, and of the vast interests at stake in this campaign.

DOCTORS DISAGREE.—The National Intelligencer republishes an article from the Missouri Democrat, "indulging in a vein of pleasantry" about the threats against the Union of the States, and makes the following sensible strictures upon what it calls—

SOUND SENTIMENTS.

In the strife and din of the Presidential contest the calm voice of reason is in every quarter so drowned, and so few men in either section have the courage to oppose themselves to the madness of party zealots, that it is quite a rarity to witness the avowal of an ordinary national political sentiment. This feeling prompts us to celebrate and to copy, for the admiration of our national readers, the annexed remarks from a Southern Democratic Buchanan journal, which has had the independence to condemn the mischievous habit which the fanatics of each section have fallen into of threatening to subvert the Government, and bury the whole country under its ruins, if the antagonist party should succeed in electing their candidate to the Presidency. We are glad to be able to reproduce remarks so sound and judicious from the particular source where we find them, and the more so as they do not inculcate, in a tone of pleasantry, sentiments which we have ourselves lately undertaken to enforce. Such opinions, avowed by a southern journal and supporter of Mr. Buchanan, are worthy of the greater respect at this time, when so many of its political colleagues—the official organ of the Government among the number—are predicting, if not counseling, the dissolution of the Union as one of the issues depending on the result of the approaching Presidential election. The idea is too monstrous for grave argument, and is indeed hardly worthy of being treated seriously. To make the existence of the Government dependent upon the result of a regular periodical election, would be reducing our institutions to the level and the precarious tenure of a Mexican or Buenos Ayrean pronunciamento. But the man who laid the foundations of the Constitution, and of the Union which rests upon it, knew what they were about, and laid them too deep to be shaken or subverted by any tempest of party passion or transient excitement. This glorious Union has stood firm during sixty years, and, with the blessing of Heaven, it will stand firm sixty years longer, though the Washington Union and its misled confederates should live all the time to predict its downfall.

How can the Intelligencer, the main supporter and defender of Mr. Fillmore, call the Union sentiment a sound sentiment, when that gentleman has declared emphatically, against it in his Albany speech; has virtually repudiated the idea of the right of a majority to rule!

THE INNOCENT.—What an innocent little lamb this Pierce is. He is in great tribulation about this "sectional" feeling. Hear him as he spoke in Concord:

"It is most lamentable to see and be compelled to admit that there is a sectional spirit in the land, increasing hatred and all uncharitableness, and which threatens at this moment to rock the Union to the centre."

Poor man! How he is to be pitied! It is not his fault of course! He had nothing to do with it! His administration has been so impartial.

BARTHOLOMEW LAPORTE.—We understand that the Buchaniers are making a desperate onset on this gentleman who is a candidate on our State Ticket, the special motive being the fact that he was once a member of the party, and is a warm friend of Judge WILMOT. They are offering, in all quarters in the east and centre of the State to trade off votes for the purpose of reducing his vote or defeating him. We hope our friends everywhere will be on their guard against any such scheme, and support the whole State ticket.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT ACCESSION.—The Philadelphia Times announces that the celebrated HORACE BINNEY—the pride and honor of the Philadelphia bar—has declared his determination to support FREMONT. The virtuous and enlightened all over the land are following his example.

SIXTH WARD.—A Fremont meeting will be held, to night, at the Sixth Ward stand. Speeches will be made by Dr. Geo. L. M'COOK and OLIVER H. RITTER, Esq. A general attendance of the public, from all parts of the city, is requested.

MASS CONVENTION AT GREENSBURG.—We are pleased to be able to announce to the friends of Freedom that the Hon. A. Burlingame and Hon. N. P. Banks, late speaker of the House, are expected to be in attendance at the Mass Convention at Greensburgh to-morrow.

WHAT A WHOPPER.—The Post of yesterday has an article from the Detroit Free Press—rather far off—wherein is said, that 500 Germans in New Haven too part in the Democratic procession. It should read, in the Republican Procession. As what is said in the same paper of the Philadelphia Free Press, I will pay $50 if ever such a sentence as that quoted by the Detroit Free Press can be found in the late Phila. Free Press. The whole is from beginning to end a falsehood.

J. G. BACKOFEN.

FREMONT MASS CONVENTION AT GREENSBURG.—The adjourned meeting to make arrangements for attending the Convention at Greensburg on the 8th inst., met at Fremont Head Quarters on Monday evening. Mr. Weaver on behalf of the committee, reported that a special train would leave the Depot of Pennsylvania Railroad, at 9½ o'clock on Wednesday morning.

GREENSBURG MASS MEETING.—Wm. F. Murdoch, Chief Marshall of the delegation from the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Wards and Pitt Township, to the Mass Convention at Greensburg, on the 8th inst., has appointed the following Aids:

ROCKY MOUNTAIN THUNDER AHEAD—ATTENTION.—All who intend to go to the Mass Convention at Greensburg on Wednesday the 8th inst., will meet at the Relief Engine House, Pennsylvania Avenue, this day at 12 o'clock M., to report themselves.

Rocky Mountain Thunder will leave the above place with an escort at the hour mentioned.—Come one—come all.

WM. F. MURDOCH,
Chief Marshal.

On Thursday a reporter of the Tribune was beset by a gang of Ruffians while quietly pursuing his tedious duty in taking notes of Governor Floyd's speech at the Exchange. They tried to bust and bruise, and, perhaps, kill him—all because he was recognized as attached to this journal. He bore himself with gallantry and coolness amid the furious throng, and by the help of the police escaped uninjured.

On Thursday night another gang of Ruffians, led, as we hear, by a "Democratic" Councilman, entered a Republican meeting in the Fourteenth Ward and broke it up. The venerable Judge Emmet was speaking; but they paid him the compliment of forcing him to quit.—N. Y. Trib.

YELLOW FEVER.—This disease showed a statement at Charleston, S. C. For the 24 hours ending on Tuesday evening there were seven fatal cases. The number of deaths from the disease in that city last week was 24; all white adults, and 14 of them natives of Ireland, and 6 of Germany. The yellow fever was prevailing to a serious extent in the Bermudas at last dates, September 22d. Warwick and Somerset were worst affected.

SENATOR BENTON is engaged in the work of abridging the debates of Congress, commencing in 1793. The first volume is nearly completed, and it will comprise the debates of the first eight years of the Constitutional government.

AMONGST the passengers lost by the burning of the steamer Niagara, on Lake Michigan, was the Hon. John B. Bissy. He was a native of Nantucket, (Mass.) and, after having resided for some years in New York and in Michigan, he took up his residence at Fon du Lac, Wisconsin, and represented the Northern district of Wisconsin in the last Congress. He led a life of great activity and full of adventure and vicissitude. Few men in the Northwest were more generally known, and his loss will be felt by a large circle of acquaintance.—Chicago Democrat, 30th ult.

THE Nash. Gaz. says that it is informed from a reliable source that in Fremont electoral ticket is to be formed in the State of Tennessee, and adds—"If such a ticket was gotten up in Tennessee and Kentucky, it would doubtless receive from five to fifteen thousand votes.

IT is now ascertained beyond reasonable doubt that the burning of the Niagara on Lake Michigan, by which some seventy-five human beings lives were lost, was the work of an incendiary.

MARRIED—On Wednesday morning, the 1st inst., in Erie, Penna., by the Rev. Mr. Pressly, JACOB B. BUSBLEY, Esq., of Pittsburgh, to Miss LIZZIE A., daughter of David Kennedy, Esq., of Erie, Pa.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Disease of the Liver.—When the celebrated Dr. Rush declared that drunkenness was a disease, he enunciated a truth which the experience and observation of medical men in every day confirming. The many apparently insane excesses of those who indulge in the use of nutritious liquors, may be thus accounted for.—The true cause of conduct, which is taken for infatuation, is very frequently a diseased state of the Liver. No organ in the human system, when deranged, produces a more frightful catalogue of diseases. And if, instead of applying remedies to the manifestations of disease, as is too often the case, physicians would prescribe with a view to the original cause, fewer deaths would result from diseases induced by a deranged state of the Liver. Three-fourths of the diseases enumerated under the head of Consumption, have their seat in a diseased Liver. Dr. M'Lane's celebrated Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., are a cert-in cure.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS of PITTSBURGH, Pa. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROTHERS.

Frostwort or Rock Rose.—For the cure of Scrofulous Diseases.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1, 1852.

My son Charles has been afflicted with inflammation of the hip joint. At the age of 8 he was attacked, and the inflammation increased until the hip was very diseased, and the joint seriously affected his leg, drawing it up so that he was impossible to straighten it; a professor of surgery gave it as his decided opinion that the leg would never heal, and that the young man would never walk again.—The disease increased so rapidly that for two and a half years he only walked with a crutch, and the efforts to erradicate the limb were attended with great pain, so that he could not sleep. I watched him so attentively, that for 5 months, did not have one full night's rest. He had been treated by distinguished medical practitioners, by leeching, blistering, &c., he had also been eefore the Medical Clinique of Yale College. The remedies they recommended were most faithfully tried, but without avail. This was the sad disease and dreadful condition it mentally drove when he commenced taking Mystic Root Tea. One bottle was all but partly taken when he was much better, continuing until three bottles had been taken, when a cure was effected; their completed, now he is in excellent health. This is the testimony of and can be corroborated by addressing Mrs. Catharina McGill, 91 Wallace st., New Haven, Conn., or can be fully substantiated by hundreds of witnesses, or by addressing a line to Rev. T. W. Dodd, New Haven, Conn.

Age and Debility—As old age comes creeping on us, it brings many attendant infirmities.—Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and wasting activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy. In cases where old age adds its influence, it is almost impossible to add vigor and health, and although many remedies have been tried, all have failed, until BERRIAN'S ISLAND BITTERS were known and used. In every case where they have been employed they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have become a great agent for this alone and are now used by many people who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, thus giving nature another opportunity to repair internal injuries.

CAUTION—Guard against purchasing an imitation. To prevent imposition, be careful to ask for Boerhave's Holland Bitters.

☞ Sold at 81 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the proprietors, BERRIAN & CO., Manufacturing Pharmaceutists and Chemists, Pittsburgh, Pa., and druggists generally.

The only Medal Awarded by the New York Exhibition to the English or foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, or their whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS that he has carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a knapsack, have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal.

I can with truth say there is nothing in a traveler's baggage so essential to my comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce.

In India also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most Palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and is a universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or paper patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.
