The Fillmore men will vote the same 26 names but will head their ticket with the name of Fillmore. The Republican and North American State Committees and a portion of the Fillmore State Committee united in framing the ticket. E.

Since the above was in type we have received the Philadelphia Bulletin of Saturday, from which we learn that the Republican Committee made two distinct propositions to the Fillmore Committee—to nominate a joint ticket on the above basis, or to unite in the formation of one on any other basis that might be deemed satisfactory to both—but the Fillmore Committee would accept of neither. The North American Committee submitted five propositions to the Fillmore men, all looking substantially to the same end, but they were all rejected; whereupon some seven or eight of the Fillmore Committee seceded and united with the other two Committees in framing the above ticket.

The gentlemen seceding from the Fillmore Committee will, it is thought, be able to control the bulk of the Fillmore vote in the west and the centre of the State; and the impression is general that all the Fillmore men in the East will eventually come into the Union arrangement.

Our friends in the East are by no means disheartened. They have been overcome by glaring frauds and treachery, and have strong hopes of being able to circumvent such tricks at the next election. They are, in fact, sanguine of success.

BEATEN, NOT CONQUERED.—No event was ever so well calculated to incite men to renewed and unflagging effort in a noble cause as the result of the election of the 14th. We have talked about Border Ruffianism in Missouri and in Kansas; we have again and again shown to the people that systematic fraud and open violence had been resorted to, to crush out the residents of that territory. We have found it necessary even to produce affidavits to show that former well known and reliable citizens of Allegheny County have not become liars since they left this soil But led by demagogues and base tools of power whose interest it is to deny every thing, the truth in regard to a distant portion of the country has met no response in the hearts of men who profess to depreciate the outrages "as reported" but to which they appear to give no credence. Open your eyes then, fellow citizens, to border ruffianism in your very midst, in your own state. Look at Pennsylvania, with her mighty interests involved for weal or woe in the success of the cause of freedom, prostrated and trampled under foot by colonies of men, who have no rights at the polls except such as done by false swearing. The increase in the vote of Philadelphia alone over that of last May when at the Mayor's election the strength of all parties was out is no less than ELEVEN THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN. That alone is from eight to nine thousand votes more than the majority which the loco focos claim in the whole State. The success of the border ruffianism in Kansas has emboldened the enemies of liberty, of the union and of the constitution, the foes of all our institutions except the "peculiar" one, to try it upon us, and it has succeeded again. We are beaten but we are not conquered. While there has been a strife and a bandying of words, about whether or not there have been murders and illegal votings in Kansas, behold the game has come home to our own State and the voice of her people is stifled by wretches poured in upon our cities in legions. Federal money is not only used to put the bayonet to the breasts of our people in Kansas, but to send liars, ruffians, and perjurers into our midst to usurp the rights of freemen and make our ballot-boxes a nullity.—There cannot be the shadow of a doubt but a majority of the legal voters of this State gave their ballots for the Union ticket on Tuesday last.

What say you now friends? Will you see the game tried again in this city on the 4th of November? Will you have men run in upon you to steal your birth-right? We shall see. We can carry the State in November without a shadow of doubt if we but preserve the purity of the ballot-box. One thing is sure, the men who defeated us in October will be needed elsewhere in November. There will be less chance for colonising. If Philadelphia alone can be kept from the clutch of the Vandals we are safe. Let us perfect our organization here and every where. Let us at least preserve our sacred rights at home if we cannot defend them for such of our citizens as go abroad to the distant West to build up a new empire there for freedom. The times demand renewed effort. We shall have it.

A NEW LITERARY STAR.—The N. Y. Times learns that all the readable articles in Household Words are written by a young fellow named SALA. This young literary Bohemian, as we have heard from other sources, is a most remarkable instance of a literary mimic, and his fecundity is not less marvelous than his imitative talents. He writes so much in the style of either Dickens or Thackeray that it would take a sharp critic to distinguish the false from the real author; and, what is more marvelous still, is his faculty of imitating popular actors. People have wondered at the fertility of invention and industry of Dickens, in writing so many of the articles in the Household Words, while he was at the same time engaged in writing his Bleak House and Little Dorrit. But the secret of his wonderful fertility is explained by the announcement of the fact that he has an admirable Crichton in his pay, who acts as his double. This literary journeyman is the son of Madame Sala, a theatrical performer.

We wonder how the "large package of money" that came here from New York just before the election for the "democracy" was disposed of! The [illegible] bears the names of C. M. Cle[illegible] and J. B. [illegible] and we presume [illegible] Hon. R. Reed, and Mr. Brodhead shows his [illegible] Council. They both were stopping at the Monongahela House or both had been.

A NEW candidate for Senatorial Honors has arisen in Missouri. It is the Gen. B. F. Stringfellow who has gained such notoriety as a leader of the border mobs. It is a striking proof of the degradation into which the Democratic party has fallen that his claims are supported by some of its organs, not destitute of influence. One of them, the Western Argus, discusses the matter in this wise:

His election and appearance in the Senate will remove from the political escutcheon of the State the stain of Frank Blair's election to Congress from the St. Louis district, and at the same time will remove all doubt from the minds of our national brethren of other States as to the position of Missouri—denounced by Greeley as the Lieutenant-General of the party opposed to the treasonable efforts of the Abolitionists, the election of Gen. Stringfellow will forever exclude the hope that Missouri is to fall a victim to local abolitionism.

The St Louis Intelligencer notices the above with the remark:

If the election of Stringfellow from Missouri is necessary to take off the stain of Frank Blair's election, will the Argus pray tell us what name has soap enough in it to wash out the stain of Stringfellow's election.

If the Democratic organ is afraid of "local Abolitionism," it may be sure that the bestowment of honors and power upon such opponents of it as Stringfellow, will do little to fortify Slavery against it.

OREGON.—An interesting letter in the New York Tribune shows that slavery already, exists in Oregon. The writer says:

"The 'ruffians' are not here, nor United States troops to force their votes upon the people. But emigrants enough are here from the ruffian State, and Atchisons and Stringfellows enough are here to lead them on to Slavery. And these plotters against the liberty of the Territory only await their time! They feel certain of victory. They say nothing openly, i. e., the papers do not as yet openly advocate it, but they are ready to do so as soon as the time shall come.—The may seem to be a needless alarm but the danger is real and imminent, and I am forced to believe it, against all my inclinations. I contested, step by step the convictions of its truth, as they were forced upon me. I groan in spirit under them, as the prospect before me darkens in these beautiful valleys and on these forest shores.

Fellow Citizens! the issue is plain and open. It is whether we shall have any more free States. The Richmond Enquirer honestly puts it to its people in the South: "Let us" it exclaims "let us make Kansas a Slave State at all hazards, and then with a tied Senate and the National Democracy we can forever hinder any more free States from coming into the Union."

The following is the official vote for State officers in Lawrence county:

Cochran,	2,085
Scott,	1,107
Majority,	1,578
Phelps,	2,682
Fry,	1,109
Majority,	1,573
Laporte,	2,684
Rowe,	1,105
Majority,	1,579

Stewart's majority for Congress is 1,574.

THE Missouri Democrat says that notwithstanding Gov. Geary's proclamation that "he would keep intruders out of Kansas, armed Southern companies are still going in. On Thursday the steamer Die Vernon, from New Orleans, landed at the wharf a company of 'Mississippi boys,' as they style themselves, commanded by Capt. Hackett. They proceed immediately for Kansas.

THE editor of the London Times, Mr. Delaine, arrived in the Niagara, at Boston on Saturday week. There are now in this country the editor-in-chief and two of the prominent writers of the "leading journal," Mr. Lowe and Mr. Fillmore.

The results in the State of Ohio is as we expected it would be, a glorious triumph for truth and right; a majority of some 30,000 votes.—Ohio, Vermont, Iowa, Maine shall lead the way for Pennsylvania in November.

THE Ohio State Journal speaking of the defeat of Mr. Galloway, says:

It is useless at this time to go into an examination of the cause or causes of his defeat. It is clearly traceable to the conduct of the Fillmore men. It was in their power to elect him or to defeat him; they have chosen the latter alternative. They have defeated him, but they have not elected Mr. Stanbery, their candidate, indeed we doubt whether their vote will exceed one thousand in the entire district. They have elected Samuel S. Cox, or at least they have suffered him to be elected, notwithstanding the abuse he has for years heaped upon both their candidate and their principles, and who in Congress will be found acting with the Brookses, Keitts, and the whole pro-slavery Buchanan crowd, to fasten the case of human bondage upon the fair free land of Kansas.

BALTIMORE AGAIN—BEHOLD HER!—Slung-shot have again prevailed The dark lantern police have again carried it, but devoted city anti slavery: One bleeding victim of the reign of Black Terror in Baltimore is to be found in the person of "Border Citizen," hinting at the course of Mr. John A. Collins in the Methodist Conference lately held at Indianapolis. It is dangerous to delay speaking out boldly in relation to the action of the Methodist Conference of Baltimore. It is now the main fulcrum of anti-slavery agitation. Many of its ministers have thrown themselves upon the political arena, and have gone from Maine to cultivate the Know-Nothingism and opened and closed them with the prayers and secret preachings of midnight politics. Let the Democratic press give us a full expose of the Collins and his host of holy politicians, who are now shaking slavery so loose in Maryland.—Let them give us the list of leading merchants who voted for Wright and who voted for Swann. The latter are the Collins and Henry Winter Davis patrons, politically, and the question for Southern traders is, are they the men for our patronage? The Baltimore Patriot has taken us to task for what it urges as espionage of the South over the business men of the North.—Do not the Abolitionists keep up their emissaries and spies upon the South? Aye, do not business men in the cities keep up their espionage upon the traders of the South? Have they not regular agents who report the credit and trustworthiness of every dealer in the country? May we not, then, publicly know who are the enemies to the slave property on the very property of the labor of which they are realizing their fortunes? And what fortunes! Look at the 100, worth $25,000,000, who called Banks to speak in Independence Square, at Philadelphia, the other day. We say to the South, then, again, form your associations, employ your agents in all the cities, and have the names published to the world, and touch the pocket nerves of Mammon.—Richmond Enquirer, Oct. 14.

VIOLENCE AND FRAUD.—The system of tactics by which the Pro-Slavery party carried the elections in Kansas, is the identical system by which they mean to carry the election of Buchanan. There is no doubt about this. Every mail from the East or West which brings us news from any disputed election district, brings us startling intelligence of preconcerted schemes of the worst villainy and fraud to gain votes for Buchanan. Violence and fraud, invasion of the polls, and bullying, knocking down and dragging out many honest free State men, was the history of squatter sovereignty, and the freedom of the election franchise in Kansas.

A similar extension and most fatal fraud is attempted in Pennsylvania. We hear of fifteen to twenty thousand spurious names being entered on the poll-books in Philadelphia.

In our own State there are means which might well alarm us, that these Pro-Slavery minions, hopeless of carrying the State by honest votes, are planning to introduce colonies of the same Missourians who carried the fraudulent election in Kansas, to insure by fraud a majority for Douglas and Buchanan in this State. And in our own city, double voting, triple voting, voting in every ward by the same men, and by men who have no right to vote at all, is the strong reliance of these desperate gamblers for power. —Chicago Tribune.

EVIDENCES OF FRAUD—The aggregate vote for District Attorney has come up to 69,251, while that on the Prothonotary of the Common Pleas is only 66,723. Now, we defy any one to bring forward a Fillmore or Fremont man who voted for Cassidy, while it is well known that a large number of Democrats voted for Mr. Mann. This latter fact was suspected from the first, and therefore the ballot boxes were stuffed with some 5 or 6000 fraudulent votes to give Cassidy the return. This fraud is so patent, there cannot exist a doubt but that Mr. Mann will ultimately [illegible] his rights. The same game was formerly [illegible] Wm. R. Reed in favor of [illegible] Hon. R. Reed, and Mr. Brodhead shows his [illegible] an anxiety to let both stand. We have [illegible] and cheerfully recommend the Democratic party [illegible] the terrible disease. Respectfully, &c.

THE GERMAN VOTE.—The Protestant German vote went as true as Steel with us on the 14th and will again. In the 4th ward Allegheny where the Germans are very numerous our vote was largely increased, and the great gain in Cincinnati and in Hamilton County generally for the Republicans was through the aid of the liberty-loving German population, against whom the Cincinnati Enquirer, edited by a Louisiana man who hates anything like liberty hurls the bitterest revilings, for their "ingratitude." The trouble with the free Germans is that they have no overseer to tell them what ticket to vote, and consequently like all unbiased men who have been born to hate oppression they vote for free soil and Fremont.

FREMONT MEETING.—Another tremendous rally of the friends of Fremont took place at Poughkeepsie on Thursday. Eminent speakers were present and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed.

Governor Johnston of this city and George Law of New York were announced to address a meeting of the friends of freedom in New York city on Friday night.

BULLY BROOKS.—One of the most noticable features last night, among the Shamocratic crowd assembled in front of the office of the Pennsylvanian, was the giving of three shouts for Preston S. Brooks. We were prepared for all manner of servility and sychophancy from the Shamocratic party of Philadelphia. Those who would vote for Florence must necessarily admire the scoundrel against whose expulsion he voted.

We do not wonder at the sympathy they express for this villain, and his supporters and defenders. Those who will colonize voters, stuff ballot boxes, and defeat the popular will, naturally rally around ruffianism, whatever forms it assumes. We do not envy any party who, even in its lowest stage can exhibit a rascal. Will the Pennsylvanian, dare it defend any expression of its party in favor of the South Carolina bully? We have no doubt it will sneakingly shirk such an issue. It has not the manliness to defend the actions of its own party.—Phila. Time, 17th.

Keep the Blood Pure.—Most of the diseases that are found among men originate from humors in the blood, and even consumption itself, in a great many instances, can be traced to the settling of some humor upon the lungs. With how much joy then should a remedy be hailed that will forever eradicate from the system the worst and most desperate humor that can attach itself.
