Keep the Blood Pure.—Most of the discase that are fund among men originate from humors in the blood, and even consumption itself, in a great many instances, can be traced to the settling of some humor upon the lungs. With how much joy then should a remedy be halled that will 'frever eradicate from the system the worst and most desperate humor that can attack'ti.—Kennedy's Medical Dircovery cures every year thousands afflicted with Ecrotials, Erysipeias, Esit Rhvum, Rhoumstim, &c., &c., and yet there are some who, through ige norance or want of faith, delay obtaining it. We would say to such—"Be ye not faithless, but believe."
