BUCK AND BRECK TO THE RESCUE!

As Steambost Cabins Decorated and Gitt. See Cabinds Dr. Keyser's Shoulder Braces—From Pittaburah Dispatch, April 10th, 1856.—For more than no reason said where constantly worn the Weshington Surpender Brace, manufactural by Dr. Geo. II. Hoyser, of No. 110 Wood et, in this city, and would heartily recommend it to all whe are compelled to follow a sedentary occupation. As we have before remarked in calling attention to list meetin, it answers for a heart and suppenders, the weight of the pantialous being so piaced as to continuals by tend to bring the shoulders to their natural poellion and expand the cheet. Somen, hundreds of whom are annually injured by the weight of semenous "airing" should also procure these braces. In particular in procuring the halm emittends, as many of the braces used as humanulous. Soid as Dr., GEO. H. KEYERPE, Wholeans Drigged, 140 Wood et, eign of the folden Horter.
